REPAIRING KID GLOVES

If a kid glove splits at the thumb or near a seam, a permanent way to repair it is to buttonhole it either side of the split then sew the buttonholed edges together. The result will be a new, firm seam. When buttonholing be sure to make a good hold, otherwise the stitching will pull out from the kid.

TENDERS

will be received by the undersigned up to Saturday, June 19th, 1915, for sawmill and standing timber on two hundred acres of land near Edon. Tenders must be on forms which can be obtained from Walter Roach, Iona, P. E. I., who will give full particulars in reference to the property. Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque for 10 per cent of the amount of the purchase price, which cheque will be returned immediately to unsuccessful tenderers. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Grand Patriotic Concert and Basket Social at Brookfield

On account of the stormy night this event has been postponed until Thursday, June 17, 1915, when the grandest entertainment of the season will be held in the large and commodious hall at Brookfield. Doors open at 7.30 p. m., concert commencing at 8. Admission 15 cents. Ladies with baskets free. A general invitation is given to all ladies to provide baskets. The programme will consist of city talent. A good time may be expected. Teams will be provided for and will meet all parties wishing to go at Robins' Livery, not later than 7 p. m. on Thursday evening. Come one and all and help our brave boys who are fighting so nobly for home rights and British freedom. Proceeds in aid of Kitchen and Patriotic Fund.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

The trees and shrubs during the past week, aided by refreshing showers, have burst forth into foliage and everywhere the eye can reach the green loveliness of early summer is apparent. The suburban districts are ideal and many from the city daily enjoy the freshness by going by automobile, team or boat.

Sails up East and West Rivers are becoming popular again and nowhere is the air more balmy or the scenery more beautiful than along these winding rivers.

The public function of the week was the ceremony in the Council Chamber on Monday afternoon when His Honor Lieutenant Governor Augustine Colin Macdonald was sworn into office by the Chief Justice, Sir W. W. Sullivan, assisted by Mr. F. W. Bennetts, assistant clerk of the Privy Council of Canada. His Honour, Mrs. Macdonald and their daughter, Miss Helena, will be warmly welcomed to social circles and it is hoped their residence in Charlottetown will be thoroughly enjoyable to them.

Favored with fine weather the tennis courts at Victoria Park are enjoyed to the fullest by the members. This afternoon the tea committee, Miss Gill, Miss Freda Hazard and Miss Louise McCready will be the hostesses.

The Prince and Princess Rospigliosi, whose visit to beautiful Dalry was interrupted by the war, left Saturday for New York. Since his departure the Prince has received word of the not unexpected death of his father, the Prince Camillo Rospigliosi, whose home is in Rome.

Mrs. Ewan MacDonald of Leaskdale, Ontario, better known to the public as L. M. Montgomery, the author of Green Gables and Avonlea fame, is to publish this month the third of her "Anne" stories Anne of the Island. Mrs. MacDonald, with her husband and young daughter are at present at her old home renewing friendships.

Premier Matheson is in Summerside this week attending the Supreme Court. He is accompanied by Mrs. Matheson who has many friends in the western capital.

Surgeon Lieut. Col. S. R. Jenkins is enjoying a short furlough with his family here after his very arduous hospital work in Halifax. He returns early next week, but it is anticipated he will soon be released from his special duties and either go to the front or resume his practice till such time as another call is made.

Miss Annie Johnson, daughter of Dr. H. D. and Mrs. Johnson, is being welcomed home by her young friends, having spent a delightful winter with her uncle in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dr. and Mrs. Dodd, of Boston, are among the members of the Harvard Medical Unit which leaves this month for the front. Mrs. Dodd was formerly Miss Margaret Lea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lea, of Moncton, formerly of this Province.

Miss Helen Hughes, who has spent the past winter in New York, continuing her musical studies under the leading singing masters, is expected home early next week. Miss Hughes, who has a host of friends and is a decided favorite in social and musical circles, will receive a warm welcome on her return.

Sir Louis Davies and Lady Davies are expected to leave Ottawa early in July for their beautiful summer residence, Waterside. Their daughter, Miss Gertrude, is now completing her studies as a nurse, intending to offer her services for the front.

Mrs. Philip Palmer, of St. John, arrived this week to be the guest of her brother, Major A. A. Bartlett and Mrs. Bartlett.

Miss Bessie MacKay, of Auckland, New Zealand, who during her residence in Charlottetown, has made a wide circle of friends she being a trained nurse of much ability, was the guest of honor on Thursday evening at a Variety shower, her marriage to Capt. L. Leard of Alberton, being announced for the latter part of June. Miss MacKay was genuinely surprised and was the recipient of many lovely gifts. The evening was pleasantly passed with music, games, etc., dainty refreshments being served ere the guests departed.

Mrs. Douglas Cameron, is leaving
