ADVANTAGES FOR YACHTING

In Charlottetown Are Unsurpassed and Many Fine Yachts and Boats Are Daily to be Seen on the Beautiful Harbor.

The Cruising Yacht Charlotte owned by Commodore Rogers.

There is probably no Province in Canada where the people are so well provided with the means of indulging in the pastime of yachting as Prince Edward Island. The advantages are general all over the province and here in the capital city of Charlottetown, built at the confluence of three broad rivers, which make its splendid harbor, with the ample Hillsborough Bay just outside the harbor entrance the situation is such as to compel the admiration of all who are interested in aquatic sport.

comfortable cabin and equipped throughout with a luxuriousness that is calculated to make anyone think yachting must be an enjoyable occupation. The Charlotte is a handsome sloop, slightly under 40 feet in length, and is shown in the accompanying illustration.

There are also owned in Charlottetown several other sloops, the Leadnaught, Hawatha, Wanderer, Mienac, Venco, etc., all of which are to be reckoned on in a race, and some remarkably fast lobster boats, notably the Hazel M. which can show her heels to most competitors.

There have been many pleasant parties held in this manner. What would probably tend to the popularizing of yachting, or to more closely define it, boating, would be the introduction of a small boat class say about 15 foot keel. With good boats of this size it is possible to go to many places which a larger boat is compelled to avoid on account of lack of water.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

(Continued from page 1.) Good average work was being done in the encouraging feature being the summer and interest in adult classes. On motion Chas. Bentley, Kensington, was appointed secy of the Kensington District in lieu of Miss Clark, Sea View, resigned. Mrs. Glyden, Summerside, Superintendent of the Home Department reported little work done, owing to illness, but had planned aggressive work for the future which she trusted would result in good being done.

which are too costly for ordinary purses. A 15 foot class could be easily maintained in Charlottetown. The boats would be found a means of enabling their owners to enjoy many of the benefits of this magnificent summer climate of which they do not even dream at present.

total charges. The matter was, on motion of the Secy seconded by Jas. Carruthers No Bedeque, referred for consideration to the annual general convention which takes place at Summerside in October next.

EVENING SESSION.

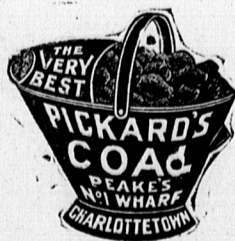

The evening session began at 7.35 o'clock with devotional exercises led by the chairman, Rev. W. B. Crowell. Addresses were made on the Home Department by Rev. Geo. Steele, Bedeque, Temperance Department by Jas. Carruthers, Bedeque; Adult Department by Rev. W. B. Crowell. The speaker on the Home Department gave a clear concise review of the starting and progress of this branch of the work. Many were enabled to enter upon a systematic study of God's word in this way that could not possibly attend the Sabbath School. In some cases classes were organized and in others individual study was being pursued.
