The first city housekeeper who makes application at this office can obtain the name and address of a country girl for general work. The name will be given to but one person.

Referring to a birth notice sent The Guardian for publication a few days ago, the sender of the same on application to this office may learn why the notice has not yet appeared.

In the seventh annual public speaking contest of the students of the Ontario Agricultural College which was held on the 7th inst. the 3rd prize was won by J. Walter Jones, formerly Principal of Murray Harbor South leads in the 2nd year. Mr. LeLacheur is an exceptionally bright student who when in his first year also led his class.

Two handsome diplomas for business writing granted by the A. W. Palmer Company of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, are on exhibition at Carter's bookstore. Congratulations to the fortunate winners Miss Margaret Gallagher and Miss Mary Brawders, pupils of the Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown.

The result of the Xmas examinations at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph were published in the February number of the O. A. C. Review. It is pleasing to note that Garnett LeLacheur of Murray Harbor South leads in the 2nd year. Mr. LeLacheur is an exceptionally bright student who when in his first year also led his class.

Last week A. J. Boyd of River Bourgeois, N. S., Superintendent of Indian Agencies visited Lennox Island to inspect the public works in course of construction there. As a result of his visit it is likely that the plan of the wharf will be entirely changed. The piles which had been driven by the contractors were lifted up by the ice.

On Friday evening the farmers' Institute of Lot 14 made a new departure by furnishing the members and their friends with an intellectual treat in the form of a lecture by Kier Ramsay of Port Hill. An audience of upward of three hundred assembled in Maple Hall to hear his lecture on Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Ramsay who has a pleasing voice and fine delivery held the attention of his audience for over an hour, dealing with the principal events in the life of the martyred president. Emmanuel McLellan, the president of the Institute presided. He first announced a chorus led by Alfred Phillips of Arlington, which was well rendered. By special request Mrs. Hubert Phillips, Tyne Valley's talented vocalist, contributed a vocal solo to the evening's entertainment and gracefully responded to an encore by singing "Starlight" in fine voice and manner. After many complimentary remarks by the Rev. J. F. Johnston, Rev. J. A. McDonald, John Trainor, Hector Dolbe, P. J. Gillis, Cyprian McDonald and others an unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer and the talented vocalists. The accompanists were Miss Laura Ramsay of Tyne Valley and Miss Miller of Bidford. After singing "God Save the King" the audience repaired to their homes well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Rev. G. R. White's sermon preached on Sunday in the Baptist Church this City, on the subject, "The Pulpit and Politics," will appear in next Saturday's Guardian.

The Rev. Dr. Gauthier, of Palmer Road, has consented to deliver an address before the Dairymen's Association which meets in Prince of Wales College hall today (Tuesday).

The big carnival in the Arena Friday night promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever held in this city. Special preparations are being made for a big display of new costumes and a larger number than ever will be on the ice. Good prizes are being offered for the best ladies and gentlemen costumes.

A despatch from Calgary announces the sad news of the death of Joseph C. McDonald, on Friday morning last. Mr. McDonald belonged to Grand River, Lot 14, and has a sister, Mrs. Angus Praught and a brother, Alfred McDonald, residing there. Mr. McDonald, as is known, taught school for a number of years in this province, standing high in his profession. He married a daughter of Patrick Ayers, who with a large family survive him. He occupied a high position in the home of his adoption and was an influential member of Calgary Council of the Knights of Columbus.

That there is considerable feeling in town and country on the automobile question has long been apparent and this is brought prominently to notice by the letters of two of our well-known merchants in yesterday's and this morning's issue of The Guardian. The matter is likely to come before the Legislature at its present session, we are told, and is now before many legislative bodies elsewhere, including the Legislature of Ontario and the German Parliament. It should receive fair consideration both in regard to the rights and interests of the minority and of the majority with a view to diminishing the friction that has arisen and securing as far as possible the public safety.

Fine weather, glorious sunshine greets a large number of lovers of the light harness horse on the frozen surface of the historic Pisquid River, on Saturday last where Trappy Tom owned by Frank Lea Score Card, owned by Joseph McDonald, and Dot owned by E. A. Large all of Vernon River, met in order to decide which of them were most entitled to the coveted honor of the local ice record for 1908. The first two heats were a procession with Trappy Tom first, Score Card second and Dot third. After considerable scoring the horses got away for the third heat with a slight change in their position. Trappy Tom broke badly in the first quarter and fell back to third place in the half but on the home stretch Vernon River's pacing monarch narrowed the gap between him and his speedy opponents and under the guidance of his youthful driver and amid prolonged cheers of admiring spectators Trappy Tom succeeded in gaining first place by a neck with Score Card second and Dot third.

Tommy Hayes the trick musician; Cunningham and D'Ivry in their bright comedy sketch and splendid dancing act; illustrated songs, orchestral music and the best motion pictures ever shown here! All at Wonderland tonight.

Be sure and see Tommy Hayes at Wonderland tonight. He makes music out of everything. Glasses, bones, any old thing at all, just so long as Tommy can get hold of it. And its good music! Don't forget that, and come and see him tonight.

SHIRTS

The back collar stud in our shirt is inserted in the tab, sewn in cut.

In this way the stud is easily inserted and it never touches the neck of the wearer.

When the collar is on, the tab cannot move.

But there is sufficient room left in the button-hole for the collar to move slightly from one side to the other, so that the collar may be easily adjusted in the front.

Only on Tooke Shirts can this tab be found.
