

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

LISBON, Oct. 8.—It is reported that monarchists at Vimeas, fourteen miles west of Braganza, have surrounded and cut off the retreat of Republican troops in that vicinity.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The report that King Manuel is in Spain, presumably on way to Portugal, is without foundation. It is at Richmond with the Queen Mother Amalie.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Rev. R. J. Campbell, minister of the City Temple, who is soon going on a preaching tour in America, has greatly wounded the susceptibilities of Marie Corelli.

In a sermon, Mr. Campbell referred to Miss Corelli's latest novel "The Life Everlasting," which, he said, was "marred by a certain strain of hard, bitter, intolerant, unempathetic insistence on human depravity and culpa bility."

"Miss Corelli seems to have been unfortunate with the people she has met. They seem to be acrouleals, hypocrites, devils, voluptuaries."

Miss Corelli dipped her pen in vitrol to answer. She charges Mr. Campbell with slander, libel, wicked falsehood, and presumption, and says that he has put himself "on a platform of holy platitudes."

"If such action is a form of the higher Christianity the reverend gentleman preaches, I pray God to save me from its teachings."

TORONTO, Oct. 6.—Constable Harry P. McGrath, who on Saturday night severed his connection with the local police force to accept a similar position on the force at Regina, Sask., walked into the detective office and turned over to the Inspector of Detectives Walter Duncun twenty-nine brand new one hundred-dollar gold certificates.

The policeman who is a son of former Detective Patrick McGrath found the money in an old coat in the bathroom of his boarding house at 342 West King street. The vest had been thrown over the gas jet that it belonged to one of the boarders, he took it to his room intending to hand it over to the boarding housemistress. When he arse he noticed two safety pins on the inside of the pocket. Making close examination he discovered the money. As none of the twenty odd boarders in the house laid claim to the vest, he handed it over to the police.

Subsequently, it was decided that the money belonged to an American real estate agent, who along with his wife, had taken apartments at the above address last Thursday.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—Roy Brintell, a young motorist, whose car struck and killed Mrs. Henry Sawyer, of Oshawa, on Yonge Street yesterday appeared in the police court, charged with manslaughter and was remanded to jail, until the inquest is concluded. The magistrate refused to renew his bail.

UNUSUAL AUTO ACCIDENT. TORONTO, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Henry Sautler, aged 55, of South Oshawa, sustained fatal injuries yesterday afternoon in an unusual auto accident on Yonge street. A car driven by Roy Brintell, of the Brintell Auto Company, got beyond the driver's control through a defect in the steering gears. Jumping over a bicycle standing by the curb it struck Mrs. Sautler and her husband, throwing them both to the ground. Mrs. Sautler died within fifteen minutes but her husband was only slightly cut. Brintell was arrested at the hospital where he had gone to ascertain Mrs. Sautler's condition and was charged with manslaughter. He was released on $3,000 bail.

SUMMERSIDE, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Dorothy Lefurkey, of Summerside, died at her home at nine o'clock Saturday night at the age of seventy-seven years. The deceased was the wife of the late Hon. John Lefurkey, Summerside, who died suddenly in Boston about twenty years ago. They had a family of four sons and four daughters, two of the sons, Charles E. and William A., dying some years ago when quite young men.

The surviving sons are J. Ephraim of Vancouver and Alfred A., also of Vancouver, but now at home. The daughters are Rosara, wife of H. A. Brennan, Summerside, Beatrice, wife of George McSwenney, Moncton, Celia, wife of J. E. Wyatt, M. L. A., Summerside, and Dorothy, wife of Mr. Roberts, Davenport.

Mrs. Lefurkey was the daughter of the late Ephraim and Mrs. Reid, a prominent family of Bedouque and Summerside. She was a clever woman and greatly assisted her husband, who was for many years prominent in shipbuilding and commercial life of this province, and who for many years represented Summerside in the local House of Assembly.

The deceased had been in failing health for some time and her passing at this ripe age was not unexpected. The funeral takes place tomorrow at 2.30 p. m. from her late residence.

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—An interesting visitor to Montreal this week is Rev. J. J. McCaskill, the Presbyterian clergyman of St. John, N. B., whose action in taking the stump for Reciprocity during the recent campaign brought strong criticism from his Presbytery and a request for his resignation from the trustees of his Church.

Rev. Mr. McCaskill, who is a young man of marked ability, with a Scotch firmness of conviction and determination to say what he thinks, is not taking his Church difficulties seriously, and despite the trouble which his position caused continues to discuss politics as freely as ever. He still believes in Reciprocity, and declared "that the moral and social results would be greater than those secured by the preaching of all our Presbytery for a generation."

"What was it moved you to this breach with your Church and associates?" Mr. McCaskill was asked. "Simply," he said, "because the importance to the country of the issue of free trade in natural products dwarfs any question of the personal relation of a clergyman to the ecclesiastical organization, or of a pastor to his congregation."

The special interests were lined up against the people here and there, as in England on the Lloyd-George Budget question. In England the people triumphed in Canada their interests are in temporary eclipse.

"The Presbytery have criticised me for my action in the matter. Their criticism might be just if the issue were not so serious. It meant new life to the Maritime Provinces. Had we secured it, the moral and social results even, would be greater than they are."

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—Around the death of J. Frederick Fraser, aged 45, formerly commissioner of lights in the marine department, whose dead body was found yesterday afternoon lying on a ledge of rock ten feet below the high cliff near the refreshment house at Rockcliffe park, there hangs an atmosphere of mystery, which at the present juncture looks suspiciously as if he had met with foul play. The finding of the body followed the receipt of a letter of the police on Tuesday from a stranger signing himself "H.," who the police are very anxious to locate, which told of the body of a man lying in the exact spot where Fraser was found.

This letter was at first thought to have been sent by Charles Lavigne, who committed suicide in Rockcliffe Park on Wednesday afternoon. Fraser left his home, 208 Bronson Avenue, on Monday morning, presumably for the purpose of going for his customary constitutional walk at six o'clock, and that was the last time his wife saw him alive. A singular coincidence on that morning was that he wanted his pet bull dog terrier to go with him as usual, but the dog could not be coaxed to do so, either by the dead man himself or by Mrs. Fraser.

Nothing among the effects found in the clothing feared by some that he had taken his own life, but an ugly bruise on the right temple, the only mark on the body, is causing the police to propagate investigations under the direction of Detective Golite to ascertain just how the HANKOW, China, Oct. 11.—The Revolutionary movement is gaining momentum with every hour. Since yesterday it has swept the city of Han Yang and the native quarter of Hankow. Great numbers of Chinese are joining the movement voluntarily.

The losses in fighting thus far have aggregated several hundred but practically all the dead are Manchus. The Slogan of movement, guided by shrewd and temperate leaders, is evidently "Down with Manchus."

Thus far there is no indication of any animosity against foreigners.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A startling item of war news comes from Constantinople to the effect that the Turkish Government on the Albanian Coast informed the Porte that a vessel flying the Austrian flag and carrying an Italian Officer and Italian soldiers has been sunk by the forts, all on board perishing. Italian warship then came up and bombarded the town doing much damage to property.

Italian reports tell of the sinking of two Turkish torpedo boats with a loss of three hundred Turks at Ste. Jean de Medua. From all parts of the Turkish Empire messages are arriving in Constantinople urging the Sultan to declare a Holy War.

Turkish forces in Tripoli have been withdrawn to Interco to return to the attack. Rumor has it that they are already short of provisions and may be forced to surrender.

THE WHITE FLAG IS CARRIED AWAY. A dispatch from Brindisi to the Messenger says that the two Italian destroyers Aetigliere and Puciere stopped an Austrian mail steamer near St. Jean de Madna. The commander Biscoretti went aboard the steamer, his boat carrying a white flag. On the return to the Artigliere the white flag was blown away, and the cliffs. The boat reached the Artigliere in safety and the Italians turned the fire, not less than 200 shots being fired. The Turkish batteries, two encampments and a barracks, were destroyed and a large number of Turks were killed or wounded. The engagement lasted more than half an hour.

THE VIEW OF ITALIAN PREMIER. Premier Giolitti, in a speech at Turin today, outlined the policy of the government with reference to Tripoli, which seems to have the support of most of the members of the chamber of deputies and a great majority of the people.

Signor Bisolati, leader of the socialist chamber, however, writes to the Secolo giving the view of a section of the democrats and socialists differing from that of the nation at large. Signor Bisolati was the first of his party to receive the king. When during the last ministerial crisis the premier offered him a portfolio. In his letter to the Secolo he says:

"Now that the occupation is accomplished, it must be decided whether Tripoli will be considered conquered territory unconditionally or whether Italy is ready to compromise. Stopping the war, sparing Turkish excessive humiliation and satisfaction, and thus rendering reparation of the good relations between the two states possible."

Signor Bisolati expresses the opinion that it will be necessary for Italy "to adopt a less brutal and dangerous solution" so as to remove the impression that violence has been used against Turkey and that Italy should show a spontaneous conciliatory disposition, thus apologizing "such measures as may be proposed if not imposed by the powers."

Dispatches reaching here from Tripoli indicate a great activity among the Italian forces at various points along the coast in preparation for the landing of troops. It is even reported that the natives are sympathetic in their attitude. The Turkish soldiers in Tripoli are said to be in a demoralized state, and also some of them are camped five miles from the city and are protected by small forts on the hills, they have not even attempted to molest the invaders.

mark came there. The deceased was not found head downwards on the ledge of the cliff, the position he would have been in had he fallen down, but only ten feet from the edge with his head upwards. This is rather curious because where the body was found the cliff is fully 150 feet deep from the top to the water of the Ottawa river. Mr. Fraser now lies in the undertaking parlors of G. H. Rogers and Sons, where a post mortem examination will be made today by Dr. Lillwall.

The unpleasantness arising out of the marine investigation in the marine department nearly two years ago, which resulted in Mr. Fraser severing his connection with it, he has worried a good deal. A few weeks ago he had an attack of grippe and following that he stopped using tobacco after being a heavy smoker for several years. This, it is assumed by some authorities, had a bad effect on his nerves, making him rather despondent lately, though he showed little signs of this among his friends.

WANTED GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the vision of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair—and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by E.A. Foster and McKinnon Drug Co.
