Baltimore, Md., Nov. 11, 1903.

Sirs:—I came accross a bottle of Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Your MINARD'S LINIMENT in the hands of one of the students at the University of Maryland, and he being so kind as to let me use it for a very bad sprain, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that it helped me would be putting it mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain,

Yours truly,
W. C. McCUBBAN.

Rev D. MacLean will preach at Glasgow Road today; Tuesday at Hunter River, Wednesday and Thursday at Stanchel at 7 p. m.

A. E. McNeill, accountant of the Bank of Nova Scotia, in this City, has been appointed to the position of manager of the branch at Summerside. Mr. McNeill is now on his vacation, but will change at the end of the month.

The Guardian on Saturday had the pleasure of sampling the splendid General Grant crab apples grown in the garden of Lewis P. Tanton, City. The General Grant is a finely flavored apple ideal for eating, and is much larger and superior in quality to the ordinary crab apple.

The daily average circulation of The Guardian, for week ending October 2nd, was 7,307 copies a day. The circulation of The Guardian is greater than that of all the other Daily newspapers on Prince Edward Island combined. Attention is called to the statement in another column.

The Annual Convention of the Canadian Ticket Agents' Association has just closed in Buffalo. The convention was largely attended by members from Ocean to Ocean. The people of Buffalo treated the members royally, a spendid program having been prepared. The officers elected were i Pres J. P. Hanley, Kingston; First Vice—Prest T. B. Morris, Rodney, Ont; 2nd Vice Pres—J. L. Thomson, Charlottetown; third Vice— A. Philips, Mayor of Huntingdom, P.Q.; Sec and Treas—E. de La Nooke of London, Ont. The weather has been glorious.

T. G. Ives, Montague, owner of Ozen D., the little trotter that has done so well on the mainland circuit this season, arrived home Saturday night from Brockton, Mass. Mr Ives had his horse entered in two of the events there but only raced in the 2.18 class, in which Ozen D. captured fourth place out of a field of sixteen. The Guardian erroriously stated last Saturday that Ozen D. had been unplaced. The heats were won in 2.16, pretty good time for Ozen D. Mr. Ives states that the Brockton Fair was the best he has yet seen in this line, the attractions were of such a high class that the attendance was as large as ninety thousand in one day. P. C. Brown had Tom Trim in the Brockton races and Mamie P., of the Victoria Hotel Stables was another competitor. All had a splendid trip.

One of the most interesting maches of the season will be fired at 2.30 this afternoon on Kensington range, between the 4th Reg't C. A. and the Charlottetown Rifle Association. Many citizens took advantage of the beautiful weather on Saturday to enjoy an outing. Some walked across the Hillsboro Bridge while others wandered out to the Park and while there enjoyed the beauties of nature and helped themselves to the ripe hazel nuts, which were so abundant.

At New Wonderland tonight there is a complete change of program. Princess Nicotene is an excellent trick photograph. For His Sweetheart is another good one. Good for Evil runs a whole reel and is a dandy. There is also a new song by Mrs. Tufts. You Dont Know How Much I Miss You. By special request Ten Nights In a Barroom will be shown. This is an excellent picture and no one should miss seeing it. Tonight is the last time it will be shown.

The S. S. Louisburg, of the Black Diamond Line, arrived in port at eight o'clock Friday night from Montreal, with a large general cargo, and sailed at two p.m. Saturday for St. John's, Newfoundland, via the Sydney's. Her outward cargo consisted of two thousand bags oats, two hundred and twenty-three bags potatoes, seventy-five barrels potatoes, seven hundred and fifty bales hay, two hundred cases Canned berries, one hundred and fifty tubs butter, thirty boxes butter, thirty-seven pieces furniture and sundry other cargo.

A large crowd assembled at the Central Christian Church last evening to hear Rev. J. F. Floyd preach on the topic "What Must I do to be Saved." His sermon was an eloquent and impressive effort, and was listened to with rapt attention. Tonight the Special Evangelistic Services, will be continued, the service beginning at eight o'clock each evening through out the week. Rev. H. R. Bell will assist Mr. Floyd during this week as singer. He possesses a rich voice, and his singing will assist materially in making the meetings a success.

New pictures and illustrated song at New Wonderland. Admission only five cents. 10-9tf.

Some millinery designs are Creations---others, just-hats.

THAT ELUSIVE SOMET ING, that marks the difference between the commonplace and the best—that artistic touch so hard to express in words, is emphatic in the beautiful millinery designs our workroom is turning out every day.

Almost anybody can get together a shape and a few millinery trimmings and call the result a hat—it takes an artist to give the little touch here the skilful twist somewhere else, that moves the result out from the work of ordinary milliners.

Our workroom is here to give you exclusive individual millinery, the sort that means delight to the wearer and to every one who sees her.

OUR HIGH CLASS MILLINERY COSTS LESS THAN ORDINARY MILLINERY.
