IN MEMORIAM

JOHN MacKINNON

There passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on March 25th, of Mr. John MacKinnon of Grand View in his 56th year. The late Mr. MacKinnon was the son of Ewen MacKinnon and Margaret Martin. During his young manhood he worked at his trade as Carpenter. About twenty years ago he bought a large property at Grand View and was a successful and prosperous farmer. Mr. MacKinnon was a man of splendid character, a good neighbour and a friend to everybody. In his home, the stranger as well as the friend received true Highland hospitality and he found great delight in helping anyone who needed assistance. The funeral services were held from the home to Orwell Head United Church and were conducted by the pastor Rev. A. O. Fraser. Favourite hymns were impressively rendered by the choir. The numerous floral offerings and the large gathering of people despite difficult roads, bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which he was held by a wide circle of friends. Interment was in the Orwell Head Cemetery and the pall bearers were: Martin Emsan, Alex MacPhee, Benson Carter, Jack Martin, Alben MacLean and Victor Sanderson. Besides his wife, the late Mr. MacKinnon is survived by two brothers, Alex MacKinnon of Lewis, Lot 60, P. E. I., and Montgomery MacKinnon of Vancouver, B. C. Three sisters (Mabel) Mrs. Perkins of Boston; (Sadie) Mrs. Daniels of Vancouver, B. C., and (Mary) Mrs. Irish of Vermont, U. S. A. To those deep sympathy is extended.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. John MacKinnon, Grandview, wishes to thank her friends and neighbours for their help and many acts of kindness during the illness and death of her husband. Also for floral tributes, letters and cards of sympathy.
