In Memoriam

MR. JOHN A. GALLANT

On Sunday, February 8, 1948 there passed away at the Prince County Hospital a highly respected citizen of Howlan in the person of Mr. John A. Gallant.

Mr. Gallant was born in Howlan in 1877. In 1902 he married Zella Gaudet, and they lived in Rumford, Maine until 1915. They then returned to the Island and settled in Howlan where he lived ever since until he was stricken with a brief but fatal illness.

Of a naturally quiet disposition, Mr. Gallant did not take a prominent part in public affairs but devoted his whole attention to his home and to his family who will always cherish the memory of his unassuming kindness and his noble example of a true Christian life. The loyal practice of his Catholic Faith was to Mr. Gallant a source of much happiness during his seventy-one years, and with the strengthening grace of the Last Sacraments of the Church he died the happy death for which his whole life was a fitting preparation.

One brother, Frank, predeceased him in 1885 and one sister Elizabeth, died six years ago. A brother, Albert, of Portland Me., and a sister, Mrs. Dominic Arsenault, survive.

Of Mr. Gallant's eight children, one son, Peter, died in 1925 and four sons and three daughters survive with their mother to mourn his passing and await a happy reunion in Heaven. They are: Fred, New York; Eva, Mrs. Elmer Pineau, Summerside, Emily, Mrs. Gabe Arsenault, Howlan; Oscar, South Paris, Maine; Doctor Gilbert, Kinkora; Bertha, Mrs. Joseph Gallant, Piusville; and Clifford at home.

The funeral was held on February 12th to St. Anthony's Church, Bloomfield where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Reverend M. J. Rooney who also officiated at the services at the grave. The pallbearers were: Lawrence Peters, James Duncan, Arthur Cornish, Felix Arsenault, Anthony Perry, and Joseph E. Arsenault.

The host of friends who came to the funeral and visited the house during the preceding days gave silent testimony of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Gallant and their family are held by all with whom they associated. Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets, and Messages of sympathy in large numbers were tangible evidence of the sympathy felt for Mrs. Gallant and her family in their bereavement.

to Darnley from Prince County Hospital recently where they have been the guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. James Hickey.

A card party sponsored by Spring Valley W. I. was held Tuesday evening, April 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cassey. There were eleven tables in play. Mrs. A. Conneck and Mr. Wilbur Bryanton winning the prizes while Mrs. Gordon Cousins and Mr. Guy Duggan captured the consolations. A dainty lunch was served by ladies in charge. Proceeds for Canadian Appeal for Children.

In the passing of Mrs. George MacLeod, Sr., on April 4th, the community of Irishtown mourns the loss of one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens. Born at Baldu, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Bernard. Mrs. MacLeod was 88 years of age. She was a woman of sterling qualities, a good neighbor. She endeared herself to all who had the good fortune to know her. She will be greatly missed by her aged husband and sons, Kenneth of Irishtown, and James on the homestead and his wife, who tenderly cared for her mother-in-law through all her declining years. Also surviving are, one sister, Mrs. Amelia Evans, Vancouver, B.C., and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren, to whom sincere sympathy is extended. The funeral service was held on Tuesday from her late residence, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Campbell, who gave a most helpful and comforting message to the bereaved family. The hymns sung were: "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross" and "Rock of Ages". There was a good attendance of friends and neighbors who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one who will long be remembered. Interment was in Geddie Memorial cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Thomas Campbell, Wilfred Campbell, Preston Campbell, Ansel Bernard, John E. Campbell, and Heath MacLeod.—Dar.

"MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET" SPARKLES WITH HIGH HUMOR

A delightful entertainment present was unwrapped yesterday at the Capitol Theatre with the showing of Twentieth Century-Fox's "Miracle on 34th Street." The film has the gaiety of a holiday party with plenty of romance, laughter and sentiment to make all who see it glow with the feeling that there still are a lot of wholesome people left in this troubled world of ours.

Maureen O'Hara, as Doris Walker, a department store executive, and John Payne, a young lawyer, who are even more charming than they were in "Sentimental Journey," provide the romance, and Edmund Gwenn, one of the screen's finest character actors, motivates this heart-warming love story with his unusual characterization of Kris Kringle, a kindly old man who really believes he is Santa Claus. The unscrambling of the situation which Kris manages to create makes the story bright with laughter and poignant with pathos and sentiment. George Seaton, who both wrote the screen play from a story by Valentine Davies and directed the picture, has given it sparkling dialogue and heart-gripping action.
