

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

STORE ENTERED—The store of Mr. A. E. Nelson, Grafton Street East, was entered some time Saturday night, but the intruder got little to reward his efforts. Only a box of chocolates and a small quantity of other confectionery were missing. It is thought that the burglar was scared off by a dog which was on the premises. Entrance was gained through a window.

CANADIAN LEGION—The regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion, Montague Branch was held in the Memorial School on Thursday evening. Twenty members were present and several new members were enrolled by president McLagan. LETTER FROM DR. ... The following interesting extract is from a letter to Mr. W. D. Taunt, of the Halifax Herald, from Rev. Dr. J. Ingram Bryan, Yokohama, formerly Rector of St. Paul's Church here: "In the last copy of The Herald to hand, the social notes from Charlottetown and other towns refer to names familiar to me, of whom, however, I had not heard during the more than 30 years since I left St. Paul's, Charlottetown. It is refreshing to know that the bearers of these names are still alive and well, to say nothing of the happy recollections the names summon to my mind. Mrs. Hyndman, says the Charlottetown notes, has celebrated her 87th birthday. When I last saw her she was a young lady of 33. And then to think that Mrs. C. H. B. Longworth, after not seeing her for 34 years, now gives afternoon tea with bridge. The Longworths represent the very best type of Islanders, and were my staunch supporters as rector of St. Paul's, interested in all good works. This leads me to confess that after travelling around the world three times and living in several countries outside of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, chiefly in the United States, England and Japan, I have not met kinder or nobler folk anywhere than the people of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island."

THE LATE JOHN MCGOUGH—The funeral of the late John McGough was held in Kensington on Tuesday, March 28th, under the direction of G. R. Phillips, Mortician. At 12:30 the Rev. W. O. Rhoad held a private service at the home, after which the remains were borne to the Presbyterian Church by the following six nephews of the deceased: John E. Campbell, Kenneth and James McLeod, Vernon McGougan, James and George Ramsay. At 2 o'clock a service was held in the church by Rev. W. O. Rhoad, assisted by Rev. G. T. Spriggs and Rev. W. S. Loring. Rev. W. O. Rhoad spoke on those words taken from First Thess. 4th chapter, verses thirteen and fourteen, where Paul assures his readers of his faith in the blessed fellowship of those, like our brother, who sleep in Jesus. In spite of the raging snow storm the church auditorium was overcrowded and the annex filled with friends, showing the great esteem held for the departed. For many years a merchant in Kensington he became widely known and highly respected. During his last illness he impressed all with his patience and faith. He is survived by his widow, one brother, Fulton, of Washington, and three sisters, Mrs. Daniel Gordon, Georgetown; Mrs. Thomas Ramsay, Kensington, and Mrs. George Compton, St. Eleanor's. As shown by the large gathering on Tuesday, the bereaved have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire surrounding district.

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SO WRETCHED

Wake Up Your Liver Bile and Get A New Lease of Life. No Calomel Is Necessary.

For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must pour two pounds of fluid bile into your bowels every day of your life. Without that bile, trouble starts promptly. Your food just doesn't digest. It sits in your bowels and stagnates. Food stays in you and your entire system is undermined by this poisonous waste matter. You have indigestion—the discomfort of gas, bloating, heartburn and sourness. You are prey to headaches. Your tongue like cotton-wool, a nasty taste in your mouth, bad breath and ugly skin. You haven't anything like the pep a healthy person should have. In fact you are generally wretched.

FEW GEESE APPEAR—An unusual and alarming scarcity of Canada Geese in Prince Edward Island waters is reported by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police who have just completed a survey of the situation in Queen's County. At this time of year it is usual to see large numbers of these birds stopping in their northward flight to feed on eel grass in the rivers and bays of the Province, but this year there has a paucity, it is estimated, only about five percent of the usual number of geese. The almost complete absence of eel grass in it and wetlands this year is blamed for the condition. If the geese do not appear in larger numbers during the next few weeks, it is possible that there may be a cloud seen on shooting for several years. It is feared that as there is a scarcity of eel grass elsewhere, these birds may have suffered from famine.

Since the meeting the sum of $318.00 has been handed to the cemetery officials by the Executor of the Estate of the late Mrs. Emily S. Davies, for the care of Mrs. Emily plots.

The urging of a greater interest of all people in the local industries, and reference to general mixed farming as the "great and basic industry of the Island," featured the brief which was prepared by the Industrial Committee of the Board of Trade for presentation to the Government, and which was read by Mr. T. E. McNuit at the quarterly meeting of the Board last evening. DEBATE AT KELLY'S CROSS

The last meeting of St. Joseph's Literary and Debating Society, for this season, was held in Kelly's Cross Hall on April 7th, at 8:30 o'clock. The efficient president, Mr. Frank J. Flood, called the meeting to order after which followed a very interesting program consisting of the following numbers: A harmonica selection by Adrian Trainor; a step dance by Justin Sturdy; a recitation by Kathleen Cusack; a recitation by Mary Bradley; a reading by Mary Alice Monaghan; a reading by Peter Toole; a reading by Gordon E. Waddell; a reading by Peter Toole; a reading by Frank J. Flood. Mr. Thomas McAvinn gave a very intellectual five minute speech on a question of vital importance at the present time namely "Depression." Then ensued one of the best debates of the season, the subject being: "Resolved that the motor cars and motor trucks have been a detriment to the Island and there should be a law passed by the Legislature to prevent their operating." The speakers on the Pro Side were Maurice Bradley, Kathleen Cusack, Peter Toole, Joseph McAvinn and those on the Con side were Walter Cusack, Bennett Trainor and Mrs. Katherine Creamer. Such were the arguments put forth on both sides that it made it very difficult for the judges who were Mrs. J. W. McKenna, Gordon Waddell and Thomas McAvinn, to decide the victorious side. Finally it was announced that the con side had a majority of four points. The speakers are to be congratulated on the premeditated effort they made to make this last debate a conspicuous success. Rev. Fr. Peters, then spoke in a laudable manner of the interminable pleasure and perception received during the course of the seasons debates and his sincere wish was that they would resuscitate next winter and that the members would enter into them with a true spirit and renewed vigor to make them such a success as they have been during the past three winters. The singing of the National Anthem then brought an enjoyable, interesting and educational season to a close.

There passed peacefully away at the home of her son in Bayview, P. E. I., on Sunday, March 26, Mrs. Mary Simpson at the advanced age of 78 years. On Friday she was around as usual but about 3 p. m. suffered a slight paralytic stroke from which she rallied for a while, but it was evident to those in attendance, that the end was near and all that medical skill and tender nursing could do proved of no earthly avail.

The late Mrs. Simpson was before her marriage Mary Wares, daughter of the late James and Jane Wares who migrated from Calhoun, Scotland, and settled in Wheatley River, P. E. I. on the farm now owned by Robert Wares of that place.

Mrs. Simpson was an estimable lady, and her charitable and Christian disposition endeared her to all. In the home she was a devoted wife, wise counsellor and beloved mother and to strangers a "friend" in every sense of the word. She was an ardent Christian, a life long member of the Presbyterian Church and a charter member of the W. M. S. of Cavendish Presbyterian Church. Her husband the late James Simpson predeceased her some four years ago. Besides a large circle of friends there are left to mourn her loss, two brothers, John and Robert Wares of Wheatley River, P. E. I., and two sisters, Mrs. Chas Stevenson, New Glasgow, P. E. I. and Mrs. James Anderson of New Westminster, B. C., and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. W. A. Stewart, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mrs. Andrew Glen, Brercrest, Sask.; Mrs. R. W. Stuart, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. D. J. Gordon, Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. E. C. Bell, Cape Traverse, P. E. I.; Mrs. W. M. Chepeusk, Toronto, Ont.; Mrs. Allison Tait, Southport, P. E. I.; J. Ernest of Edmonton, Alta., and William of Bay View, P. E. I., with whom she made her home.

The funeral was held on Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the home of her son in Bay View, services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. A. Patterson of Cavendish United Church and although the day was stormy the large attendance at the house and at the grave bespeak the esteem in which the late Mrs. Simpson was held. The pall bearers, all life long neighbors and friends, were Messrs J. H. Simpson, Peter Trainor, J. O. Simpson, Austin Hogan.

Interment was made in Cavendish United Cemetery, the funeral being in charge of A. J. McLeod of Stanley Bridge.
