The roads were completely blocked and for a day and a half his progress by rail was eight miles. SOME COMMENT ON CANADA'S AFFAIRS

MONTREAL, Feb. 24.—A London cable says: "The Globe in an article entitled Canada Sets the Pace, says: 'A Toronto Journal expresses delight that a statesman of Lord Minto's position has had the courage to speak out plainly. We are familiar on this side with the misrepresentations which have been sent forward with regard to colonial sentiment and it is reassuring to find an able and trustworthy exponent offering them a flat contradiction.' 'We fully agree with the Toronto newspaper that Lord Minto could perform no more useful service to the empire just now than by making the British public acquainted with the real trend of Canadian opinion, especially on the subject of imperial preferential trade. As the Toronto paper asserts, the ex-viceroy said what is true when he declared that Chamberlain has the hearty concurrence of the people of Canada. We shall do wisely according to the colonial Journal in not paying too much attention to the comparative reserve which has been shown by the political leaders of the dominion. No doubt they have pronounced plainly in favor of a preference but they have not reflected in its fullness the sentiment of the people on the question.' 'Reynold's newspaper publishes another warning about Canada this time from 'A British workman' regarding British Columbia. The workman says that thousands of Japanese laborers are imported to work in the west for nothing and take the places of white men. The writer declares he can truthfully say there are not more than fifty per cent of able-bodied white men at work on the coast.'"

Interesting Experiment in a Restaurant.

An advertising agent, representing a prominent New York magazine, while on a recent western trip, was dining one evening in a Pittsburg restaurant.

While waiting for his order he glanced over his newspaper and noticed the advertisement of a well-known dyspepsia preparation, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. As he himself was a regular user of the tablets, he began speculating as to how many of the other travelling men in the dining room were also friends of the popular remedy for indigestion.

He says: "I counted twenty-three men at the tables and in the hotel office I took the trouble to interview them and was surprised to learn that nine of the twenty-three made a practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal."

One of them told me he had suffered so much from stomach trouble that at one time he had been obliged to quit the road but since using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets had been entirely free from indigestion but he continued their use, especially while travelling, on account of irregularity in meals and because like all travelling men he was often obliged to eat what he could get and not always what he wanted.

Another, who looked the picture of health, said he never ate a meal without taking a Stuart Tablet afterwards because he could eat what he pleased and when he pleased without fear of a sleepless night or any other trouble.

Still another used them because he was subject to gas on stomach, causing pressure on heart and lungs, shortness of breath and distress in chest, which he no longer experienced since using the tablets regularly.

Another claimed that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was the only safe remedy he had ever found for sour stomach and acidity. He had formerly used common soda to relieve the trouble, but the tablets were much better and safer to use.

After smoking, drinking, or other excesses which weaken the digestive organs, nothing restores the stomach to a healthy, wholesome condition so effectually as Stuart's Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the natural digestives, pepsin, diastase, which every weak stomach lacks, as well as nux, hydrastin and yellow perilla, and can be safely relied on as a radical cure for every form of poor digestion. Sold by druggists everywhere.
