—DEATH OF ONE OF BEDEQUE'S OLDEST RESIDENTS—The death took place on Friday at the home of Mr. Waugh, of North Bedeque, of Mrs. John R. Donalds, at the advanced age of 93 years. Mrs. Donalds was a native of Bedeque, and was formerly, Miss Jane McCallum, and is the last surviving member of a well known family. The deceased was the second wife of Mr. Donalds and had lived in Montrose during her married life. After her husband's death thirty years ago, she returned to her native place to reside. There were no children of the marriage. The older residents of Bedeque will remember Mrs. Donalds in her youth, when she was very active in all activities for the betterment of the community. She was a woman of many fine traits of character. The remains will be conveyed to Montrose on Thursday for burial beside those of her late husband. There will be a short service at the home of Mr. Waugh at 10 a. m. and service at 3 p. m. in the United Church at Montrose.—S.
