A Banner Attendance Yesterday At the Provincial Exhibition

Grand Stand and Race Track Crowded to Capacity. Judging Progressed Steadily all Day. Grand Parade of Live Stock a Feature of Yesterday's Activities.

There was excellent weather and a very large attendance at the Provincial Exhibition yesterday, visitors and citizens alike evidently being determined to make up for the uncertain weather on the opening day by appearing in force yesterday afternoon. While the races of course attracted the great number of people there were many hundreds of visitors to be seen at all times about the main building, the stock pens, and the judging rings.

At the race track the grand stand was crowded to overflowing. The results of the races are given elsewhere in The Guardian. St. Patrick's Band was in attendance and rendered splendid music which was one of the big attractions of the day.

A notable feature of yesterday's programme was the parade of prize winning horses and cattle before the Grand Stand. There was a splendid turnout of heavy and carriage horses. The winners of special prizes offered by President J. J. Davies of the Exhibition Association for the best exhibit on the parade, for one owner, were 1st, Messrs. Home Bros., Charlottetown, and 2nd Mr. Garfield Warren, North River.

The cattle parade, in the opinion of one expert interviewed by the Guardian, was certainly one of the finest to be seen at any Exhibition in Canada, included the following herds:

Ayrshires: Experimental Farm Bert Ings & Son, Mt. Herbert; B. R. Brown, York; A. McRae & Sons, East Royalty; E. Reid, Rollo Bay; T. Ferguson, Frenchfort; Easton Bros., East Royalty; Geo. Howell, Frenchfort; W. Younker, East Royalty; Walter Gregor, Brackley Beach.

Holsteins—Dickie Bros., Truro; W. J. Gibson and Son, Marshfield; Godfrey Bros., North Wiltshire; J. W. Jones Bunbury; Falconwood herd; Howard Callbeck, North Truro; H. J. Kennedy, Alexandria; Alex. Agnew, East Royalty.

Shorthorns—J. C. Irving (champion herd winners of 1921 shield); Clark and Sons, North Wiltshire; Edgar Easter, North Wiltshire.

Guernseys—Roper Bros., East Royalty; W. G. Drake, Brookfield.

Aberdeen Angus—Home Bros., Winsloe.

It was announced that the Shield donated by Moore & McLeod's Ltd., was won this year by Home Bros., city. Prowse Bros' Shield was awarded to Dickie Bros., Truro.

The Cattle Show

Mr. Bert Brown of Brightside Farm, York, is the largest exhibitor of Ayrshires, having a herd of twenty-four, headed by Lessness's Queenie, imported from Scotland and a three year old, and grandson of the celebrated show cow Harleyholm White Rose the Fifth, champion of America in 1919.

1919. One of the principal aged cows in the herd is Queen's Own which holds the magnificent five year record of averaging eleven thousand three hundred pounds a year. Another cow in the herd is Brightside Charlotte, a two year old who has just completed a record of 12,000 pounds with 477 pounds of butter fat. This is the highest record in the Province made by Ayrshires, said Mr. Brown and this is not surprising in view of the fact that Charlotte is the grand daughter of Milk Maid the Seventh, at one time champion Ayrshire producer. The grand daughter therefore bears the grand mother.

Easton Bros., of Charlottetown, pioneer Ayrshire breeders of the Island showed ten head, including a yearling bull, Spring Burn Creamer son of the champion of Quebec last year, A. MacCall and Sons of Charlottetown, very prominent Ayrshire men have seventeen head, the herd being headed by Spring Burn Golden Toy, sired by Lessness's Golden Love, that has a wonderful show record, being formerly champion of Canada in the show ring.

Other Ayrshire exhibitors are Charles Gregor, Brackley Beach, George Boswell, Marshfield; Ambrose Rodd, Milton and W. R. Younker, Brackley Road, Mr. J. H. Love of Charlottetown Royal ty exhibits Holsteins and Ayrshires.

Mr. R. S. Stevenson of Ancaster, Ont., judge of the Dairy Cattle after completing the Ayrshires and Holsteins, said that the exhibit of dairy breeds on the whole was excellent, the Ayrshire making the best showing for their breed of any that he had seen in Canada this year, and they were all island bred cattle. In the aged bull class, there were two exceptionally good animals entered by the Experimental Farm and Bert R. Brown. The bull classes all through were really good in every section. In the section cows in milk (4 years old), 17 females were brought out. Mr. Brown's first prize winner was an exceptionally large animal of a good utility type of Ayrshire. Brown won in the aged herd, A. McRae and Sons being second. In the breeders' young herd, the McRae's were first and Brown was second. The entries in the aged bull class were not so numerous as the Ayrshires. Dickie won first with his aged bull, a really good type of his herd. In the herd's Dickie got first, and Jones second. The diploma for the champion bull went to Dickie and for the champion females to Jones.

In the Shorthorns, there was keen competition, particularly in the dual purpose cows—there being 17 entries. The prize winning cow, owned by Albert J. Johnston of Truro has a record of 16,000 lbs. milk P. O. P. test. Mr. Johnston also won the first prize for aged bulls afterwards grand champion at the head of his herd. Island bred from the mainland entries, J. C. Irving winning first, for aged cow, The Upton Park Farm was particularly strong in young cattle with Amos Eter of Amherst was a strong contender in nearly every section. Mr. Keith Boswell with won ten second prizes for dual purpose herd showed an exceptionally good bull.

Sheep Exhibit.

There is a magnificent showing of sheep this year, among the exhibitors being Cephas Nunn of Winsloe with Hampshire and Cheviots, George Boswell, Frenchfort, with Shropshires, Albert Boswell, with Frenchfort, Lincoln and Cheviots, Cotswolds, Henry Boswell, Marshfield with Oxford, Linn, M. Mellick with Leicesters, Earl Coffin, Frenchfort, Dorset Horns, the Farmers Milling Company of Mt. Herbert Oxford.

The strongest competition was in Leicesters. Oxford's were fairly strong, in Shropshires, there was little or no competition, in Hampshire, Cephas Nunn had no opposition. There was a good showing in the long wool grades. Mr. Irving of Guelph, Ont., who judged the sheep, suggested that the prize list be revised so that the Lincoln and Cotswolds should be in a class by themselves. The same should apply to the Dorsets and Cheviots.

Military Courts For Ireland

(Special to The Guardian.)
BELFAST, Sept. 28.—The Provisional Government in South Ireland has sanctioned the setting up of military courts or committees to deal with persons charged with interfering with the restoration of order or endangering public safety, it is announced in messages from the Free State today. Every such tribunal is to include one member certified by a law officer to be a person of legal knowledge and experience.

Springhill Man Sandbagged

(Special to The Guardian.)
SPRINGHILL, Sept. 28.—Three hundred and twenty dollars is said to have been the amount of money taken from C. R. Thompson, District Agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company here, on Oct. 2nd, by a sandbagger, who attacked him in the door of his residence.

Mr. Thompson had returned from a collection tour of his district early in the evening and was entertaining at his residence District Manager Jolymore. He was called to the door and was absent for some time. The house hold and guests became anxious about his prolonged absence and went to the door. There, a few feet distant, they found Mr. Thompson lying on the ground, semiconscious and trying to rise. They assisted him and administered restoratives. Mr. Thompson told them he felt a blow just after leaving his door to go the front. It was then found that his pockets had been rifled, and the money taken. The police were notified, but no clue was obtained that would tend to reveal the robber.

Questioned later, Dr. Chown said that the name of the donor has been withheld from publication "it is a secret at the request of the giver" he said.

The Situation in the Near East Has Again Become Grave

Kemalists are Pouring Troops Into Neutral Zone in Defiance of British Ultimatum. Constantinople is in Panic. British Troops Concentrating at Border, United States sent Twelve Warships to Turkish Waters. Ottawa Awaits Beginning of Hostilities. British Government Regards Situation as Very Grave.

(Special to The Guardian.)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28.—Mustapha Kemal poured his legions into the neutral zone today in defiance of the ultimatum of the Allies. Constantinople is menaced by the latest move of the Turks.

The Kemalists already entrenched not far from the British positions in the Chanak area, are concentrating forces at Ismid, the key to Constantinople. The latest concentration is viewed here with the greatest alarm. The population is more panicky than ever as the reports of the advance of the Turks pour in. It is believed that the Allies may be forced to abandon Constantinople if the Kemalists advance on the city. Authorities here are doing their utmost to prevent an uprising of the Moslem population.

"Every Turk is a soldier," is a common proverb and it is feared that they would all spring to arms here if a Kemal advance over the straits were started.

Greece adds to danger of situation
LONDON, Sept. 28.—The collapse of the throne of Greece, coupled with reports that at least four other governments in the Near East are tottering, leaves the chancelleries of Western Europe alarmed and anxious at the possible trend of events in the next few days.

The Balkans are uneasy. News of the Greek revolt was followed by reports that Prince George had been proclaimed King of Serbia after bloody conflicts. The reports lacked confirmation and it was thought they might have grown out of events in Greece. There were nevertheless persistent reports of military movements in Jugo-Slavia.

Turk Reply not yet Received.
LONDON, Sept. 28.—Advices obtained from Nationalist sources in Constantinople are to the effect that Kemal Pasha has been to Angora to place the Allied note before the National Assembly in person and consequently no reply is looked for until next week.

New Greek Government Revolutionary.
ATHENS, Sept. 28.—The Crown Prince was sworn in as King George II. today to replace his father, King Constantine, who fled the throne when a bloodless revolution swept the country.

There ceremony was presided over by a revolutionary committee of three generals, including General Papoulas, who has evidently replaced Colonel Gonatas as the Chief of the Revolutionists. Immediately after the ceremony, which lacked the pomp that usually attends such events, the revolutionists announced their intention of starting the armies to Thrace to defend the territory from the threatened invasion of Mustapha Kemal's Turkish Nationalists.

Ottawa Awaits Firing of First Shot
OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—While the question of peace or war at the Dardanelles hangs in the balance, with the latest bulletin indicating imminent trouble the disposition here still is to wait for actual hostilities. There was no apparent change in the situation this morning. The Prime Minister is keeping in touch and, apart from cables from the British Government which are frequent he is supplied with news despatches. The procedure that in all probability will be followed has been pretty clearly indicated. The first of American interests, it was apparent that the United States will play some part in the efforts to settle the troublesome Near East problem.

The prediction was made in official quarters that this government as the result of Secretary of State Hughes' announcement that the United States stands back of the Allies policy regarding the Dardanelles and the action in sending more destroyers to the war area would participate in the conference at Venice on Near East questions.

United States Comes in WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—With twelve American destroyers under orders to rush to Turkish waters and aid in the protection hostile shot it is expected will be the signal for summing parliament with a delay of not more than ten days. Pending its deliberations whether undertaking will be given by the government itself is problematical. The situation has fluctuated from day to day in their past week with a hopeful outlook one hour and depressing forecasts the next. Officially little has been done other than to follow these despatches.

Rare Musical Treat At Methodist Church

Large Audience Last Night Heard With Pleasure the Excellent Grand Recital at Methodist Church.

A musical treat of a very high order was given last night at the Grand Recital in the Methodist Church which the large audience privileged to be present will recall with pleasure for a long time to come. The recitals previously given by the Methodist Church Choir under the direction of Prof. Fletcher have elicited enthusiastic praise and last night's performance was if anything even better than the ordinary high standard, included in the programme were many of Charlottetown's most talented singers and the selections were of a varied and pleasing nature.

The programme opened with an organ selection "Overture to Poet and Peasant" which was rendered by Prof. Fletcher by request and received with genuine pleasure. Viola solos "Melody in F" (Rubenstein) and "Serenata" (Moszkowski) by Mr. Harry Porter of Toronto followed. Mr. Porter is well and favorably known here and his performance last night was warmly applauded. Later in the evening he played "Traumerl" (Schurmann) and "La Chiquitine" (Gabriel-Marie) with fine effect.

Miss Lucy Blanchard rendered two lovely solos, "Smile Through Your Tears" (Hamblen) and "Thanks Be To God" (Dickson) in which her fine contralto voice was heard to good effect.

Other solos much appreciated were "The Voice in the Wilderness" (Pringle Scott) by Mr. G. Elmer Ritchie, and "Angel-Land" (Adams) by Mrs. Fletcher. There was also a splendid duet by Mr. Ritchie and Mrs. Fletcher, "My Song Shall Be Always Thy Mercy." The Harmony Male Quartette, composed of Messrs G.E. Ritchie, G.F. Hutcheson, E. C. Harris and R.L. McKee, sang with fine feeling that beautiful old hymn, "The Holy City." Three organ solos in addition to the prelude were given by Prof. Fletcher, "Salut d'Amour," "Cantilene" and in conclusion "Marche Militaire" (Schubert) and the national anthem. This made a fitting and a splendid evening's entertainment.

The Weather Temperature, Tide, Moon, Etc.

TORONTO, Sept. 29.—Maritime light to moderate winds, fair and somewhat higher temperature. High tide this evening at 6:12 and tomorrow morning at 5:06. Sun sets this afternoon at 5:42 and rises tomorrow morning at 5:59. Full moon Thursday, Oct. 5th. Full moon Thursday, Oct. 5th 8:58 p. m.

Splendid Performance by Mae Edward Players

"The Last Chapter" Received with Applause by Capacity House Last Night.

Another capacity house witnessed the performance of the Mae Edwards Players at the Prince Edward last night, when this popular company presented "The Last Chapter." Slightly more serious in theme than their previous offerings, it was however, entirely free from morbid pathos a timely interpolation of comedy, always relieving any situation which might otherwise become unduly strained.

Miss Edwards again presented her emotional side to her audience, and as always gave an exceptionally smooth, finished performance of her role, while Mr. Comhin was excellent as the husband. These two people are excellent foils, and can always be depended upon to get the most out of their roles.

William Walker's work with the violin last night scored heavily. This young man shows promise of being heard from more than favorably in the future.

With their engagement half finished, the Mae Edwards Players show no signs of falling off. Patronage increases nightly, and the plays, the manner of their mounting, as well as the musical and vaudeville portion of the bills are, if anything, improving. The entire acting cast is excellent, and it has been a long time since so thoroughly good an attraction has visited Charlottetown. They will undoubtedly play to record business throughout the remainder of their engagement and judging from the manner in which their offerings are received, their return will be impatiently awaited.

"The Last Chapter" again holds the boards at the maines today and for the evening performance manager Smith announced "The Arm of the Law," as a "crook play" which is different.

A review of last night's performance would not be complete without mention of Messrs. Smith and Murray in their rendition of "Gallagher and Shean." A comedy song par excellence it was repeatedly encored, and brought forth an apparently unlimited supply of verses. It was perhaps, the comedy hit of the engagement to date.

Fielding and LaPointe Coming to London
(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, Sept. 28.—On conclusion of League meetings probably this week end Fielding and LaPointe will come to London to start negotiations for the lifting of the cattle embargo.

During negotiations the Canadian Ministers will be entertained at a banquet by the British government if conditions permit. Some time later delegates will proceed to Paris to conclude a commercial treaty with France.

Interviewed by a Geneva correspondent, Dominion News, Fielding said that informal conversations with French delegates on the subject of the treaty had taken place during League of Nations meeting and he was hopeful that a treaty of mutual value would be arranged in place of present patchwork agreement.

Fielding was understood to say that new treaty would follow the lines of treaty of 1907.

"Organizations aiming at the formation and training of hands for military action in Thrace or in Macedonia, do not exist in Bulgaria."

"Bulgaria has no engagements either verbally or by treaty with either Angora or Moscow. She is in full agreement with the great powers and neighboring states concerning the freedom of the straits, and continues with the utmost loyalty to fulfill her obligations under the Treaty of Neuilly. She relies on the effective fulfillment of clauses three and four, article 48, of that treaty, granting her an outlet to the Aegean Sea."

"Organizations aiming at the formation and training of hands for military action in Thrace or in Macedonia, do not exist in Bulgaria."

Bulgaria is thoroughly resolved by no means to take any action whether political or military, which could entail complications at a moment when the great powers are settling the problems of the Near East, and the Bulgarian prime minister has declared and maintains that contradictory reports on Bulgaria's attitude must be once and for all considered as thoroughly inconsistent with actual facts, none of which can be regarded as disquieting."

A 3,000-GALLONS COW, ONLY ONE IN WORLD

LONDON, Sept. 28.—There are 56 cows in Great Britain which have given 2,000 gallons of milk a year. Of these, 52 are Friesians. Now a phenomenal British Friesian gives every promise of being the first 3,000 gallons cow on record.

This is Brookside Colantha, belonging to the Hache herd, Worth
