THE fame of Chaplain Lane as a lecturer was sufficient to fill the main audience room of the First Methodist Church to the doors last evening to listen to his personal reminiscences of the war in South Africa. The great audience were amply repaid as for two hours and a half he held their closest attention. Chaplain Lane had gone out with the Second Contingent and his story had to do with experiences gathered mainly in the long march between Cape Town and Pretoria. He talked in strong voice, with much energy of utterance and detailed scenes of varied interest, some tragic in the extreme, others pathetic, and occasionally enlivening his story with laughable escapades and touches of rare humor. He had been himself more than once under fire and had suffered not only the hardships of the weary march, the night bivouac in the rain, the short rations and other privations, but, had been entrapped in an ambush, had been sniped at by Boer marksmen, and had his ear-drums blown in by a shell exploding at close quarters, a fragment of which pierced his hat. Very graphic and interesting it all was to the eager listeners, and served to give a most clear-cut and realistic impression of what war is like with its "moving accidents by flood and field." A fine peroration closed amid great applause a splendid lecture. A map of the large field of war operations, and diagrams of several battlefields, together with arms, flag and relics from the war aided in the exposition. Mayor Warburton presided and introduced the lecturer. The fine choir of the church under direction of Prof. Watt's furnished music at the opening and led God Save the King at the close.

HOW ARE YOUR NERVES?

If they are weak and you feel nervous and easily "flustered" can't sleep, and rise in the morning unrefreshed, your blood is poor. Strong nerves depend upon rich, nourishing blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the nerves strong by enriching and vitalizing the blood. It gives sweet, refreshing sleep and completely cures nervous troubles. Begin taking it today. Nausea indigestion are cured by Hood's Pills.

LIFE ON THE RAIL.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, Barrie, Ont., one of the best known engineers on the G. R. T. writes:—For years I suffered from kidney disease brought on by railroad life. The doctors called it "railroad kidney," but could give me no permanent relief. A friend recommended Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills saying they had cured him. A few boxes of this grand medicine completely cured me, putting an end to the dreadful pains in the back and greatly strengthening the kidneys. I am a well man today, thanks to Dr. Chase. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

BORN.

At Summerside, on February 3rd, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. D. Gordon, a daughter.

WHAT WOULD THEY GIVE?

It seems a waste of time to warn people against neglecting coughs and colds, but what would victims of consumption and pneumonia give if their disease were only in its beginning. If it were only a cough or cold. Deadly lung disease began with colds and could certainly be cured by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the great prescription which not merely relieves but thoroughly cures cough and cold together.

Cash vs. Credit.—Ask every merchant in this city, what they think about the principle of paying spot cash. I venture to say, they will, without an exception, endorse the principle of doing business on cash basis, yet credit has been, and is, the bone of business life in this City. We predict the time has come when our merchants should act and show greater independence and educate our people, by showing men the advantages of paying spot cash for all their purchases. As a consequence our people both buyers and sellers interests would be very much enhanced.—J. T. MCKENZIE, Tailor.

"See Those Seams"

"Yet see the seams go round the inside of the 'D. & A. straight front corset instead of up and down."

"That makes it FLEXIBLE—it never feels stiff." "But is it strong?"

"Oh, yes, I never had a 'bone' break, they are genuine, rust-proof, clock-spring steel. The D & A corset wears splendidly.

And then, you know—the straight front—is "the thing" as a foundation for this year's gowns. New D & A straight fronts, are here—
