H. PRICE WEBBER and his popular company will open an engagement in the Opera House commencing Nov. 23rd.

The Prohibition case of Wm. McKinnon in the case of Ronald Steel for interfering with the Police, and several corner loafing cases will come up at the Police Court this morning.

CAPT. P. A. MCKENZIE and Mrs. McKenzie have arrived from Picton to spend the winter here. Many friends hope the genial Captain and his good wife will have as pleasant a time as their qualities of mind and heart merit.

A CORDIAL invitation is extended to everybody who wishes to call and see The Guardian's Big Web Perfecting Press while running at 11.30 a. m. on Monday or Wednesday of each week. This is the only press of its kind in the Province and well worth a visit.

At the Police Court yesterday Peter McAleer, for vagrancy was sentenced to six months in jail. McAleer was only released on Tuesday. Of the three Government Institutions the Asylum, Jail and Poor House, McAleer prefers the Asylum but the authorities did not want him there and the next choice is the jail.

A NUMBER of commercial men commenced "celebrating" a few nights ago and in one night consumed over thirty dollars' worth of champagne. The orgie came to a finish on Tuesday night when, after making the night hideous with their howls, they embarked in a couple of cabs and left on a tour of the outskirts of the city.—Sydney Post.

SUNDAY was a big day among the Presbyterians of Sackville, for it was the day set apart for the dedication of their new church hall. In the afternoon T. C. James, superintendent of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co., Charlottetown, occupied the pulpit while in the evening an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. W. W. Rainnie of St. John's—Sackville Tribune.

The firm of J. Adams & Co., wholesale and commission fresh fish dealers of No. 5 T Wharf, Boston, have the most up-to-date facilities for handling consignments of smelts and other Island products of the sea. They have a first class freezer on the premises, their establishment is clean and their business thoroughly up-to-date. Island consignments are solicited and will be handled to the best possible advantage for shippers.

STURGEON R. J. JEWELLYN, general merchant is at present in Glace Bay.—Godfrey Jamieson has in his possession a valuable fox skin; also several other furs.—F. S. Robertson, Montague and Mr. McKay, New London were in Sturgeon last week.—The many friends of Miss Lulu Collings are pleased to learn that she is recovering after a serious illness.—The Guardian is a welcome visitor here every day.

"The prettiest wedding I have seen for a long time" so said the Rev. A. K. McLennan who performed the ceremony on Nov. 15th which joined together as husband and wife, Miss Kathern A. MacLean, recently of Boston, formerly of North Cardigan, P. E. Island, and Hugh MacLennan of Roxbury, Mass. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of white tulle trimmed with val lace and intricate and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary McLean, sister of the bride. The groomsmen were Hector McKenzie, cousin of the groom. The presents were numerous and expensive.

A CORRESPONDENT writes:—It is with sorrow we offer this small tribute of love and respect to the memory of Mrs. Patrick McGee Sen. whose death took place at her home, St. Mary's Road East on Friday 10 a. m. November 3rd, aged 62 years. Sad though it seems to be called away from the head of a happy home circle, yet there remains for those who mourn the consolation of knowing that she died happy, resting in the merits of her Maker. During her illness of a week's duration everything had been done that human skill could devise. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, one son and four daughters, James and Bridget at home, Annie and Maggie in Attleboro, Mass., and Mrs. James A. Hughes of St. Mary's Road, also one brother and three sisters Patrick Simpson, Mrs. James Fitzsimmons, Mrs. William Martin and Mrs. Peter Flynn, all residing in Charlottetown to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife, mother and sister. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Sturgeon on Sunday Nov. 5th immediately after High Mass, surrounded by relatives and friends and a large concourse of neighbors. The Rev. Wm. Phelan officiated.

Perfected Gualacol Emulsion—has stood a seven years' test, and today it sells on its merits. No chronic cough or cold can withstand its influence to cure.—For building up the lungs and producing flesh stands alone.—Try a bottle if you have any such diseases.—Only 40c. per bottle.—W. Reddin, Phem B. Sunnyside.

The Gold Ring is the title of the opening play in the Opera House tonight by H. Price Webber and his popular company.

ELLIOTT DIVISION, No 224, S of T. Rocky Point, held its regular meeting on Wednesday 15th when three young men took the pledge of total abstinence from all intoxicating liquors. This division is doing good work at present under the efficient management of its Worthy Patriarch, Miss Georgia Webster.

FAIRVIEW AND VICINITY—The farmers in this vicinity are busily engaged in shipping their produce and preparing for the winter.—Many are sorry to learn of the illness of Felix Feehan, but all hope to see him about again in the near future.—A new public road is now being opened up by the Government between Fairview and South Shore, which will no doubt prove a great benefit to the traveling public.—Neil Currie the popular and obliging mail carrier is giving fine satisfaction. He seems to be the right man in the right place.—The young men who left here some months ago for the harvest fields, have all returned.

A VERY pleasant event occurred at Burlington, Wednesday Nov 15th when Edwin and Mrs. Paynter celebrated the twenty fifth anniversary of their marriage. Relatives, friends and neighbors assembled, about one hundred in all, to testify their love and esteem for host and hostess. The evening was spent in full enjoyment of music, songs, games etc. After supper which was served at midnight a number tripped the light fantastic till 3 a. m. when all bade goodbye to their kind entertainers wending their homeward way in the pale light of the waning moon. Many handsome and useful presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Paynter conspicuous amongst which was a ladies' gold watch and chain from her brother Nelson Evans, California. During the evening a congratulatory address was read by I. B. Millman and responded to on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Paynter by Rev. A. W. Nicholls.

Free Pile Cure

Why Suffer When by Merely Sending Name and Address You Can Have a Free Trial Package of a Remedy That Will Cure You.

We receive hundreds of letters like the following: "I have been feeling so good I could hardly believe it, after suffering with piles for a year. To find that I am once more feeling like myself. I wish you could have seen me before I started using Pyramid Pile Cure and look at me now, and you would say I am not the same man. I have gained 20 pounds, and all on account of Pyramid Pile Cure."—Walter Sharkey, 56 Park street, Springfield Mass.

"I bought a fifty-cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used as directed with the most unexpected results, a complete cure. I have been troubled with piles for thirty years and was in much distress and passed much blood, but at present am free from any kind of piles." F. McKay, Weaverville, Cal.

"Pyramid Pile Cure has been worth thousands of dollars to me; it cured me after using numbers of other remedies and taking medicines from doctors. It also cured my son, although he could hardly walk, eat or sleep; he is now all right." B. Stringfellow, Postmaster, Elko, S. C.

By the use of Pyramid Pile Cure you will avoid an unnecessary, trying and expensive examination by a physician and will rid yourself of your trouble in the privacy of your own home at trifling expense.

After using the free trial package which we gladly mail you, in a perfectly plain wrapper, you can secure regular full-size packages from druggists at 50 cents each, or we will mail direct in plain package upon receipt of price. Pyramid Drug Co. 7700 Pyramid Building, Marshall Mich.
