LOCAL BRIEFS

Latest News of the City and Province.

By Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

THE S. S. Halifax is due at midnight. The steamer Minto was in Halifax yesterday.

THE Evelyn, a new three masted schooner, arrived in New York Saturday morning. She is loaded with coal for Messrs. C. Lyons & Co.

THE S. S. Brent leaves for Summerside this morning. On Tuesday she goes to Cape Tormentine with a party among whom will be J. H. Bill M. F. B. D. McMillan M. P. to inspect the winter route. Before the Brent returns to this port she will supply the western light houses.

MR. JAS. T. MCKIE, second engineer of the S. S. Yarmouth's spending a few days with his parents in this city. It will be remembered that Mr. McKie underwent an operation for appendicitis a short time ago. He is much improved in health and expects to resume work in a few days.

THE Teachers' Association—The meeting of the Teachers' Association promises to be of more than usual interest this year. Through the effort of the executive. Hon. Mr. Stetson, Supt. of Education for the State of Maine has been engaged to attend the meetings. Mr. Stetson will address the teachers on Thursday and Friday, he will also lecture on Thursday evening.

In another column of to-days paper will be found a large display advertisement of F. Perkins & Co's millinery opening. It will be an attraction of to-night. We suppose the public who are most cordially invited, will see displayed all the latest styles in the art of millinery, including the German Curl, the French Roll, the Montreal Twist, the Toronto Bend, the Dewey Dip and the whole creation of their own high class millinery genius. Another strong attraction will be the large graphophone which will be operated by Messrs. Roger & Rogers the owners of this the largest graphophone ever brought to this city. It can be heard all over the building. Don't miss this grand millinery opening.

The steamer La Grande Duchesse sailed for Boston at sharp five o'clock Thursday afternoon and Plant wharf was thronged with people. The crowd who went aboard the ship to say goodbye to friends and who went out of curiosity was enormous and at times the jam was so great that it was feared that somebody would be hurt, and it only was by the extra care of the Plant officials and officers of the ship that an accident was averted. When the big liner backed into the stream there was a great fluttering of handkerchiefs from wharf and deck and when the Duchesse squared away for sea and gave her farewell whistles Capt Hanlon and his chief officers waved farewells from the bridge. Just as the Duchesse started saward the Royal Engineers, tug Lily came up the harbour and passing the Plant wharf blew the salute, to which Capt. Hanlon responded. Hx. Chronicle

Address and Presentation.

On the afternoon of Friday Sept. 29th the good folk of West River met at Meadow Bank School, to bid good-bye to their teacher, Miss Elsie McNeill, who after three and a quarter years in their midst, was leaving to take the Arts course at Acadia University.

They found Mr. Campbell, inspector for Queens, busy examining the school. The scholars answered well, showing how thoroughly they had been taught. Mr. Campbell declared that the progress since last visit was "very satisfactory".

At the close of the inspection Katie T. Hyde, on behalf of the school, read the following address and little Helen McMillan presented the gift, a beautiful gold chain.

DEAR MISS McNEILL—On the eve of your departure from our midst, we, representing the Meadow Bank School parents, children, friends gather to wish you Godspeed.

Looking backward we can but call to mind many pleasant things in connection with our school. How the little ones in their first term learned well their early lessons and loved their teacher as they learned, how the older ones were inspired and encouraged to attempt higher educational attainments and how the whole has indicated progress under the guidance of one of the most competent and faithful teachers the district has had the good fortune to know.

As you proceed to Wolfville's Halls of Learning we sincerely hope that even a fuller measure of success may follow your efforts than has marked your course while with us and we prey with full hearts that the Great Teacher who sits above and observes the efforts of each of his scholars—young and old—may guard and guide both you and us as we take our different ways.

In parting please accept this gift as a small token of the regard which each member of the community feels towards you as teacher and friend.

Signed on behalf of the school district.

WILLIAM BOYLE
JOSEPH M. HYDE
HAMMOND J. CROSSBY, TRUSTEES.

Miss McNeill made a suitable reply thanking them for their beautiful gift and for the many kindnesses she had received whilst among them. She had always enjoyed teaching them and had found them diligent in their work and hoped they would continue to be so, and make still better progress under their new teacher.

The next item on the programme was ice-cream and cake followed by candy, all of which was heartily appreciated by the older folks as well as the children. After a short time spent in conversation and game, the children gathered in a circle and sang "Should School Acquaintance be Forged?" Then followed "God-bye's" and Miss McNeill left followed by the best wishes of all present.
