Golden Wedding at Kensington

About two hundred friends called on Mr. and Mrs. John H. Paynter on Monday 8th inst. to tender their congratulations and best wishes to them on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter were assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Paynter, he having been Mr. Paynter's groomsman of fifty years ago, and by Mrs. Paynter's brother and sister, Mr. Charles Godfrey of North Wiltshire, and Mrs. John Rockham of Hunter River.

Miss Louise Johnson attended the door, and Mrs. William Paynter Burlington ushered the guests into the dining room, where all were treated to ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter were the recipients of three addresses, commended by gifts, besides personal gifts of gold, fancy work and chocolates.

The addresses were: One from the children accompanied by a sum of gold; one from the Brothers and Sisters, nephews and nieces, accompanied by a beautiful gold engraved case, and a gold brooch set with pearls; one from the friends on the Margate Road with a beautiful Electric Reading Lamp, and a sum of gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter thanked their friends for their gifts and addresses, though unexpected and nevertheless, be much appreciated as they will be a constant reminder of their friends as well as their golden anniversary.

munion Table is where they love to meet with fellow worshippers in remembrance of their Saviour's death and passion. The Choir, Womens Auxiliary and other activities of the Church have shared in their interest and effort.

WE, the company of friends assembled and many others prevented from being present, desire to tender you, Mr. and Mrs. John Hacker Paynter our very hearty congratulations and assurance that we pray God if it is His Will, to spare you to each other for many years to come.

We ask you to accept the accompanying gift as a token of our esteem.

On behalf of those mentioned above

Yours sincerely

Third Address

Kensington, Oct. 8th, 1928
To Mr. and Mrs. John Paynter.
Congratulations and Greetings from your friends on the Margate Road.

The celebration of a fiftieth wedding anniversary is an event that few couples live to enjoy and is always an occasion of congratulations to the twain who have together stood the vicissitudes and partaken of the joys that make up half a century of married life.

A Golden Wedding—when we remember what it signifies—is a very notable event. Think of two streams of existence running in one and the same channel for half a century. As christian people you have lived to know the blessedness of age. You are still young, if not in fact, yet in heart, in sympathy and in hope. After years of toil, sacrifice and service, in the home and the church, we are glad that we can congratulate you on the possession of a comfortable home and surroundings, of so many friends, and the esteem in which you are justly held by all who have the honor and pleasure of your acquaintance.

May your descending sun be long in setting, and may you prove that "At evening time it shall be light."

First Address

Dear Father and Mother: It is our pleasant duty to remind you that you have now reached a very important milestone in your lives, namely, the Golden Anniversary of your wedding day.

To reach this goal is no small achievement in itself, but to attain it in health and strength as you both have done, is indeed worthy of recognition. We are sure that Providence has been kind in sparing your lives to share the ups and downs, joys and sorrows of life together, and, it is our wish if God wills, that you still keep in good health and be spared to share many more years together.

It is a great pleasure for us all to be present to celebrate this occasion with you, and we felt that we could not let the day go by without showing you in some small way our regard for you.

We ask you to accept this gift which we now present to you as a token of our appreciation and good will.

Wishing you God's blessing and many more years of happiness, We are

YOUR LOVING CHILDREN

Second Address

To Mr. and Mrs. John Hacker Paynter
On Jubilee celebration of their wedding day October 8th, 1878

Greeting:—Fifty years ago a very happy event crowned a period of loving courtship when Miss Charlotte Godfrey consented to join Mr. John Hacker Paynter in the Holy State of Matrimony. In due course the affectionate couple settled down to life's duties and pleasures in a home near what is commonly called Black Horse Corner, P. E. I. Many happy days were spent there and by the Blessing of God they were privileged to have the responsibility of nurturing three girls, Florence May, Clara Mabel, Sadie Maud, all of whom are with us today to partake in this celebration. Prosperity also attended the labors of Mr. and Mrs. Paynter; they no doubt faced problems and difficulties common to most people, but however these were overcome and now we find them here living in a true lover's home.

During these fifty years their homes have ever been the centre of hospitality and cheer. WELCOME was always on their lips to one and all and they were ever ready to help anyone in distress or need.

One feature of their happy life must not be overlooked. Perhaps it is the cause of their success and joy. God was the centre of their thought and life and their devotion to His work in the church was an example to be followed by all. For many years they were faithful attendants at St. Stephen's Church, Burlington, and now they have made their home at St. Mark's Church, Kensington. The Holy Com-
