—RED CROSS SOCIETY.—A very pleasant evening was spent on Feb. 8th when the ladies of the Alma Red Cross Society held a social at the home of their President Mrs. David Marchbank. The company was very pleasantly entertained by several selections of vocal and instrumental music, etc. A very dainty luncheon was served for which the Alma ladies are justly famous. The society wishes to thank all who in any way helped to make the affair such a decided success. The next sum of $80 was realized. The ladies have been busily engaged knitting and since October last have sent 180 pairs of socks to the boys at the front.

—STERLING INSTITUTE.—Stanley Bridge, one of the most interesting meetings of this progressive Institute was held on Thursday the 15th inst. After the opening ode, the president called the roll when every member responded with a quotation from her favourite author. The regular business followed the reading of the minutes. It was decided to adopt a prisoner of war, through Canon Simpson, and also to continue knitting socks for the men in the trenches. An excellent paper on "The Origin of the Red Cross" with a short sketch of the life of Florence Nightingale, written and read by Mrs. G. McAulay a paper on "Women and the War" by Miss Florrie Reid, a paper on "Women in War Time" by Mrs. J. McGuigan, and some well tried recipes for left-overs given by Mrs. A. E. Fyfe, completed the program. It was also agreed to open the meetings at 7 sharp, instead of 7.30, beginning on March 8th, the next night of meeting.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS B. LONGWORTH.

The death Wednesday of Miss Bessie Longworth, eldest daughter of the late Hon. Francis Longworth, is regretted by many friends in Charlottetown and elsewhere. A quiet, good lady has passed away. Those whom she leaves to mourn include the Messrs. Vernon and David Longworth, Mrs. W. W. Owen and the Misses Agnes and Edith Longworth, of this city.

MRS. J. LLEWELLYN.

A feeling of gloom was cast over Sturgeon and vicinity on Friday, February 9th, when the angel of death entered its midst, and carried away the spirit of the beloved wife of Mr. Jones Llewellyn. Deceased was in her fifty-first year, and leaves to mourn a husband, five sons and two daughters. The funeral service, which was largely attended, took place at the home on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Walter J. Domville officiating. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Llewellyn and family in their sad bereavement. The burial took place in the Sturgeon Cemetery.

DONALD A. GILLIS.

The Daily Province, Vancouver, B. C., of Saturday, February 3rd, contains the following notice:—

"The death took place in this city, February 2nd, of Donald A. Gillis, aged 65 years. The late Mr. Gillis was born in Ross Valley, Prince Edward Island, and has lived in the West for many years. He is survived by three brothers, Hugh and Kenneth, of Ross Valley, Prince Edward Island, and John D., of Agassiz, B. C.; four sisters, Miss Margaret, of Ross Valley, P. E. I.; Mrs. Thomas Nightingale, of Charlottetown; Mrs. Fred Turnbull, of Skye, Wash.; Mrs. M. T. Shipley, of Rockland, Mass. The funeral was held this afternoon at 1.45 from T. J. Kearney & Co. undertaking parlors, Broadway and Willow. Interment at Mt. View Cemetery."

MRS. WILLIAM BURNS.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of one of the most respected residents of Freetown, Mrs. William Burns, in her 77th year. She was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of Summerside. Although she had been in failing health for the past two years her death caused a shock to the community in which she resided for the greater part of her life, which she spent in doing good for others in a motherly and christian spirit. She is survived by a loving and devoted husband, with whom she spent a happy wedded life of fifty three years, and four daughters, namely, Mrs. F. W. Picketts, of Rimby, Alta; Mrs. F. E. Scott and Mrs. C. W. Scott, of Gardiner, Maine; and Ralph Brown, of Augusta, Maine; Joseph of Dorchester, Mass.; Chester and John of Augusta, Maine; Arthur of Charlottetown; Bruce and Russell of Freetown; also two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Adams, of St. John, and Mrs. Gains Sears, of Gardiner, Me., and two brothers, Mr. Joseph Baker, of Freetown and Mr. Jacob Baker of Biddeford, Maine. There are also 39 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The funeral, which took place on Tuesday, the 13th inst., from her late residence to the People's Cemetery at Freetown, was attended by a very large concourse of friends and neighbors to pay their last respects to a departed friend. Services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. Waldron McQuarrie of North Bedouque Presbyterian Church, of which she had been a consistent member. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. D. Schurman, Joseph Baker, Charles Bearisto, Robert Dammarell, John White and Jonah Lewis.
