Wembley Lions Hold Sudbury To 3-3 Draw

TORONTO, April 22—(CP)—Three goals by Tony LeMay, flash centreman, gave Wembley Lions a 3-3 overtime draw tonight with Sudbury Tigers in the first game of their best-of-three International series before a crowd of about 1,000.

The scottish LeMay picked up a goal in each of the three regular periods. Tigers, newly crowned Allan Cup champions, also scored a goal in each of the regular sessions with George Hastie getting two and Don Grosso the other.

The best chance to break up the game in the 10-minute overtime period went to Irwin Chamberlain of Tigers who missed the net with a shot that skidded across the goal-mouth.

Jo-Jo Graboski, bounding, one-eyed centreman for the English National League Champions, had his nose broken in the first period when body-checked by Frankie Lavigne, Sudbury defenceman.

NEW WATERFORD, N.S., April 22—(CP)—Second Maritime basketball championship series to be played here this winter will begin tomorrow night when Moncton, N.B., juveniles clash with New Waterford Strands for the juvenile tri-province title.

The second game will be played Saturday night. Strands juniors defeated Saint John, N.B., Falcons in a two-game series for the Maritime junior title two weeks ago.

Court Battle To Block Bout Continues

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, April 22—Madison Square Garden continued its legal battle for an injunction against the Jim Braddock-Joe Louis bout today by charging that Braddock is putting forward his greed as equitable defence for repudiating his contract to meet Max Schmeling for the Garden, June 3.

In a long and carefully worded brief to Federal Judge Guy Fike of Newark, N. J., the Garden's Counsel conceded that the chief issue in the case is what contract or contracts are in effect between the parties at the present time. They sought to prove "it is necessary to read the contracts of April 10, 1935 and December 12, 1936 together in order to ascertain the rights of Braddock and the Garden in the Schmeling bout."

Under the April 10, 1935 contract, Braddock agreed to fight his first heavyweight title for the Garden and "not to engage in any boxing contest other than four round exhibition bouts without the written consent of the Garden, before defending his title."

The Dec. 12, 1936 contract says "Braddock cannot meet Joe Louis until after June 3, 1937."

Arguing before Judge Fike of Newark a week ago, Braddock's counsel claimed that the Dec. 12 contract included the essential agreements of all previous contracts between Braddock and the Garden and therefore stood alone. The Garden's attorneys contended Braddock was still tied to the first contract and pointed out that the Louis bout in Chicago June 22 would be his first title defence unless he fulfilled his contract to meet Schmeling.

Will Deal With Reinstatement Of Hockeyists

TORONTO, April 21—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association decided today on a plan to deal with cases of hockeyists who play only one year professionally and then seek reinstatement to amateur ranks.

A. H. Coo, Winnipeg, president of the Manitoba branch of the Association suggested forms be drawn up for the applicants to fill out concerning information on their cases. All applications would have to be in by Oct. 1 and would be dealt with by the registration committee.

The matter was brought up by Hanson Dowell, Middleton, N. S., President of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association, who queried an executive committee concerning possible reinstatement of Bill Gill and Dud James, former Moncton Hawks, who dropped from professional hockey not long after deserting amateur ranks.

Ordinarily professionals have to remain out of hockey for three years before reinstatement is possible but under this compassionate clause one-year pros will receive consideration.

Pirates Defeat Chicubs As Cards Topple Reds

NEW YORK, April 22—(AP)—Ed (Dutch) Brandt, veteran south-paw, pitched Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-2 victory—their second straight over Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field in Chicago today.

Each team made 10 hits—but the Pirate lefthander fanned eight Bruins and was effective in the pinches, halting a Cub rally in the seventh inning after the Chicagoans had put three men on base with one out.

Al Todd led the Pirate attack with a single and a triple, the three-bagger accounting for two runs in the sixth frame. Bill Lee, starting Cub hurler, was touched for nine safe hits.

The Cardinals made it two straight over the Cincinnati Reds today by taking a wild scoring contest in the Reds' lair 14-11. Manager Charley Dressen used 18 players and St. Louis 13. Each team sent four pitchers to the mound.

The Cards sent Paul Derringer, the Reds' leading righthander and a former Cardinal, to the showers in the third. The Reds came back in the fourth to score nine runs on seven hits.

St. Louis scored four runs in the sixth when Joe Medwick doubled to drive in three and then scored on an error. Cincinnati tied the count at 11-11 in the sixth. St. Louis tallied its final three runs in the eighth.

ST. LOUIS, April 22—(AP)—Zeke Bonura and Monte Stratton were thorns in the flesh of St. Louis Browns today as Chicago White Sox evened the two-game series with a 6-1 victory.

Five hits, only one for extra bases, were all the heavy hitting Browns of yesterday could garner off the delivery of Stratton. Bonura, busy Sox first baseman, drove in four runs.

One of Bonura's two hits was a home run into the left field bleachers in the third inning with no one on base.

Toronto Leafs And Newark Win Openers

(A.P. by Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, April 22—Toronto trounced the Orioles 10-7 to open the International League race in Baltimore today, the home team taking a licking although blasting out four homers.

Toronto scored all their runs in the third when 14 Leaf batters slept to the plate. Harry Matuzak's wildness and Roy Schalk's error in the face of a probable double play mainly accounted for the big tally.

Nicked for eleven bingles, Francis Nekola improved as the game progressed and pitched the victory for the Leafs. Schalk atoned for his error in smashing out two of the Orioles' four-ply smacks. Pucelli and Wright hit one apiece.

Scoring six times in the first inning, Newark Bears opened their International League campaign at home with an 8-5 victory over Montreal Royals. Overcast skies kept the crowd down to 6,000.

The Bears knocked Lauri Mylykangas out of the box in the initial frame after reaching him for five hits, including a pair of doubles and a home run by Bob Seeds that brought in five runs.

Marvin Duke, who pitched for Mylykangas and lasted the rest of the route.

Dave Harris poked a homer for Montreal with Sammy Bell on base in the first inning. George McQuinn homered for Newark in addition to Seeds.

(By The Canadian Press) Red Dutton, then a hard-hitting defenceman of New York Americans, signed a contract to manage the National Hockey League club two years ago at Montreal. Succeeding "Bullet" Joe Simpson, the Calgary redhead assembled a fighting bunch of players and led the Amers to the playoff for the second time in the club's history.

Here & There Around The Sports Circle

NEW YORK, April 22—It may not be news that Sten Suvo of Finland, 1936 Olympic champion, has turned pro... but it is news that he has been guaranteed $2,000 per year, plus 66 2-3 per cent of what he earns, by his United States manager, Emil Sarbo... This is just about tops for an unproved fighter... Most of them sign up for $600 per year or the customary 66 2-3 per cent... Van Lingie Mungo, who turned in 18 wins for the Dodgers last season, thinks he'll repeat because his auto license adds up to 18.

Lou Ambers, the lightweight champion, and his manager, Al Weil, are in Tampa to second Louis stabelmate, Red Guggino, against Chino Alvarez, tonight. Connie Mack says his young Athletics are the best hustlers he has directed in five years... Latest hot baseball tip is to watch Chicago Cubs—reason: Phil Cavaretta is doing a swell job in the outfield and Augie Galan appears to have regained his 1936 form... Lester Patrick says his young New York Rangers of the National Hockey League will be Stanley Cup contenders for the next three years.

The way the Giants are running against Brooklyn makes 'em look like the Giants of the John McGraw days... Hot spots controlled by Jack Dempsey and Tony Canzoneri are fighting for business almost next door to each other... A block away is a place operated by Mickey Walker and Benny Leonard is looking for a spot in the same Broadway neighborhood.

Members of the fair sex were first in line at three of the unreserved gates in Brooklyn for the opener... Beginning in 1934, the Yankees have lost every opening game by one run... Before Tuesday's inaugural, Lefty Gomez had been trimmed twice by 1-0 scores... It isn't true that Primo Carnera is coming back to these shores as a wrestler... What did Mickey Cochrane think when he read the Washington box score and saw what Aloysius Simmons did.

Van Mungo is just as "swift" as Bob Feller, so far as our eyes can detect, but Brooklyn's ace hasn't the hop on his fast one that the Cleveland youngster produces from full windup... And giants now are willing to admit they'd rather hit against Mungo than Feller.

Study Effect Of Suspension By A.A.U. of C.

TORONTO, April 22—The major question in amateur hockey's double muddle today was the effect a suspension by the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada would have on members of the Winnipeg Monarchs, Dominion junior champions.

A few hours before Monarchs were scheduled to play Hershey Bears in an international series game here last night and shortly after the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association had concluded its three-day annual meeting, a bombshell was tossed into the ring by a delegate to the Association's meeting.

Leo Burns of Montreal, Quebec Amateur Hockey Association representative and first vice president of the A.A.U. of C. issued a statement on behalf of the latter body that meant automatic suspension from any sports controlled by the A.A.U. of C. for players of any team playing Hershey.

Burns said the A.A.U. of C. had been notified by the A.A.U. of the United States that all teams in the Eastern United States amateur hockey league, of which Hershey was one, had been suspended in March, 1937. Burns said the Canadian body had no choice except to uphold its alliance with the United States Union and serve warning to Canadian teams.

After defeating Hershey 8-7, players and club officials of Monarchs hustled to the train, homeward bound. No statement was made on behalf of the players or the club but it was indicated they were not worrying about the situation. It was believed few if any of the boys compete in sports under A.A.U. of C. jurisdiction.

The A.A.U. of C. directly controls track and field, boxing and wrestling, and gymnastics and handball. Most important of its affiliated bodies are the basketball, ski and lacrosse associations.

Dempsey Sees Boxing Game Deteriorating

DALLAS, April 22—(CP)—One more year at its present pace and the fight game will be washed up, Jack Dempsey bluntly predicted today.

"Something must be done, and if it isn't done within the next year we just won't have any boxing," flared the 42-year-old former heavyweight master. "In the past five years boxing had deteriorated so much that all other sports have gone far ahead.

"The game needs a czar—a Judge Landis of boxing—someone who can supervise the washing of boxing's dirty linen in its own backyard.

Run the game like organized baseball is handled—that's the idea."

Manassa's noted mauler, warmed up to his subject by citing the current Braddock-Louis-Schmeling tangle as one of his major claims that boxing is on a one-way path to the rocks.

Canadians Set For Track Meet

PHILADELPHIA, April 22—(CP)—Heavy rains kept tracksters idle here today but J. R. Cornelius, coach of the Hamilton, Ont., Central Collegiate Institute team, said his men needed no more training and were at the peak of their form for the annual Penn Relays at Franklin Field tomorrow and Saturday. The Canadians have been in town a week getting into tip-top shape. The rain, however, lessened the possibility of new records as nearly 3,000 school and college athletes gathered for the meet. Tomorrow's program will be given over mainly to schoolboy runners although a special 120-high hurdle invitation race, featuring the Olympic Champion, Forrest Towns, of Georgia, is one of the day's bright spots.
