The YELLOW STUB

by Ernest Lynn

BEGIN HERE TODAY

HENRY RAND, middle-aged business man, is expected home to help celebrate his son JIMMY'S 27th birthday. A theatre party is planned to include Jimmy, his father and mother, his sister, JANET, and her fiancé, BARRY COLVIN.

While they are waiting, police telephone with word that Henry Rand is dead in a cheap hotel.

The body is found in a gas-filled room, a small welt on the back of the head. The only clues are a woman's handkerchief and the stub of a yellow theatre ticket.

Janet Rand breaks her engagement with Colvin, because of the "disgrace," Jimmy learning that the stub is from the Paragon Theater in Montreal, leaves for Montreal with DETECTIVE MOONEY.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER 6

Not much to go on, Rand, but better than nothing. Detective Mooney folded his wallet, in which he had just replaced the yellow theatre stub and the handkerchief. The train was pulling into Montreal.

"As far as I'm concerned," observed Mooney as they were leaving the Pullman, "the first thing to do is to get in touch with the local police. Courtesies of the profesh, you know."

He continued, more seriously, "I'll have to let that detective bur-an know I'm here and what for. Chances are they will be glad to give us a lift if they can be of any use. After that I'm darned if I know our next move, unless it's to go down to this Paragon Theater and see if there's any chance of running down the guy who bought this ticket." He tapped his chest, where the wallet reposed in the inner pocket of his coat.

"There's about as much chance of doing that," he added, "as of finding a needle in a haystack."

"But still a chance," Jimmy persisted.

"Well, I'm not overlooking any bets, no matter how slim they look. Give me credit for that." Jimmy hastened at the sight of the other's injured look. "Don't think I have any idea that this thing is going to be cleared up in a day."

A City Builder TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD THREE

Ladies and Gentlemen: In submitting my card for your consideration I respectfully draw your attention to the following facts:— As a successful builder of business I believe in building up a successful city. I believe in building for all classes of people. I believe in building with economy. I believe in building within the resources of revenue. I believe in building without increased taxation. I believe in building, employment of home labour and the beautifying of this city, capable of becoming without undue expenditure the most ideal in Canada. It will be impossible for me to call upon all voters personally. Therefore, Ladies and Gentlemen of Ward 3, if you do me the honour to vote for me, I shall heartily appreciate your support.

A. A. HENNESSEY.

Indisposed Seaman "Doctored" by Radio

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Radio roared on the back of the gale that screeched through the rigging of the Anchor Line Caledonia in mid-Atlantic Tuesday and permitted Dr. John J. Gasperine, the ship's surgeon, "to sit" at the bedside of an unconscious seaman on a small Dutch freighter, the Berk, plodding against the storm, 270 miles southward, in the prescriptions were in the dot and dash language of the air on radio blanks.

Thursday the master of the Berk signed off, thanking him for the advice that had his man on the road to recovery.

Fascism to Find 1926 Its Napoleonic Year

LONDON, Feb. 4.—A Rome telegram states there is much curiosity concerning the meaning of an enigmatical phrase occurring in the soliloquy of the Italian dictator, Benito Mussolini, in which the Italian dictator states: "We must have faith in the Fascist revolution, which in 1926 will see its Napoleonic year."

TO ELECTORS OF WARD ONE

Ladies and Gentlemen: At the request of a large number of electors of Ward One I have nominated as Councillor for that Ward in the civic elections. If elected it shall be my earnest endeavor to serve the City to the best of my ability and to see that the interests of Ward One are fully looked after.

Respectfully yours, F. C. DOUGAN, D. M. D. 7573-5-11.

ELECTION CARD

TO THE ELECTORS of the City of Charlottetown: Ladies and Gentlemen: Complying with the request of a large number of electors, I am again a candidate for the Mayorality at the Civic Election to be held on February 10th, 1926, and through this medium respectfully solicit your influence and support at the Polls.

Having been officially connected with civic affairs since 1889, I have seen service in about all the various branches of the administration—including a term at the Water Commissioners' Board, and, as I have apparently discharged the duties entrusted to me to your satisfaction, I appeal to you on this occasion with confidence, feeling that I shall not do so in vain.

Complying with the intention of the "Ballot Act," I have never made a personal canvass, but have placed myself in the hands of a free and intelligent electorate. Such is my position on this occasion.

With my general knowledge of civic requirements, I see much that can be done—even with our financial limitations—that will greatly add to the improvement of our city, and supply demands so justly made by our tax paying citizens.

While in hearty accord with the system of Permanent Streets, yet, this work should not be proceeded with to the neglect of our Clay Streets.

The Tourist Association is an institution doing a wonderful work for our City and Province, and, if we cannot aid it as much financially as we would wish, we can do a great service by giving it our hearty moral support in making our city more attractive, and by showing every courtesy to those who may visit us. This is a trade which other provinces are spending thousands of dollars to secure, and find the money profitably spent. It is plainly our duty to be alive to this opportunity, and make Charlottetown the distributing centre.

Those who are acquainted with our financial affairs will agree with me that prudent economy must be the watchword for the next few years, but it does not follow that we should stand still while there is work to be done to keep pace with progress.

Should you honor me with election to the office of Mayor, I will exert my best efforts to safeguard your interests, while endeavoring to reflect your intelligence to the best of my ability in maintaining the dignity of the office.

Faithfully yours, L. B. MILLER. 27-1-tts61.

TO THE ELECTORS Of The City of Charlottetown

Ladies and Gentlemen: I am in the field as a candidate for Mayor at the coming Civic Elections. With a record of twelve years' continuous service as Councillor for Ward Three, including four years as Chairman of the Street Committee and eight years as Chairman of the Fire Committee, I feel that I am justified in seeking your votes for the highest office in the gift of the city.

Should you do me the honor of electing me I shall endeavor to justify the confidence which you have reposed in me, and to give my support to a policy of improvement in our Civic Departments consistent with our revenue.

As it will be impossible for me to call upon every elector, I take this opportunity of thanking you for the generous support which you have accorded me in the past, and of soliciting your vote in the present election.

Respectfully yours, R. B. RATTRAY. 7430-26-1-tts-71.

Attention of Ward 5 Electors

In voting for Samuel Kennedy you are surely safeguarding your own interests. He has been instrumental in the erection in this Ward of from $90,000 to $100,000 worth of splendid residences which are a valuable asset to the city.

By his enterprise in purchasing what was formerly a pasture field in the east end, dividing it into building lots, disposing of these at reasonable prices, he has greatly encouraged the building up and the beautifying of that section of the Ward, which now contains some of the most comfortable and attractive homes in the city.

In the west end, he has also showed his faith in our fair city by continuing his policy of building and beautifying.

He has much at stake in this city being a large holder of real estate, and electors can rest assured, that if elected, his outstanding qualities as a shrewd and successful business man, will be of great value in the conduct of the city's business.

Actions speak louder than words.

Electors Notice

To the Electors of Ward Three, Ladies and Gentlemen: At the request of a number of the electors of Ward Three, I have decided to nominate as a candidate for Councillor in the coming civic election. Realizing the fact that our taxes are now high enough economy will be my watchword.

Should you do me the honor of electing me I promise to do my utmost for the benefit of our city and Ward Three especially.

Respectfully yours, F. R. McLAIN. 7552 4 51.

To Electors of Ward Four

Ladies and Gentlemen: Two years ago you did me the honour of electing me as one of your representatives at the Council Board, for which I thank you.

I am now seeking re-election on the tenth of this month and I trust that my record during my term of office, merits a continuance of the splendid support I received from you at the last general election.

My policy with regard to civic government is exactly what it was before, viz—Progress, tempered with Economy, and for this end I shall always strive. I have conscientiously done all in my power for the betterment of our city and especially Ward Four and endeavoured to rectify every complaint.

If you see fit to re-elect me, I can assure you that I will continue to do my best to serve you and serve you well. Again thanking you for past favours, I remain, Faithfully yours, E. A. FOSTER. 25-41.

To Electors of Ward Four

Ladies and Gentlemen: On February 10th the citizens of Charlottetown select those who will constitute the governing body of this City for the next two years. At that time it is my intention to offer as a candidate to serve the interests of the people of Ward Four.

As a practical business man, and as a resident with an intense love for my City I would consider it at once my duty and my pleasure to promote every legitimate object that would have as its ultimate aim the improvement of our City.

Realizing the fact that as a city we cannot stand still, we must advance, my watchword would be "Economic Advancement" along all lines necessary for the growth of a progressive city, and a prosperous citizenship.

It is not my purpose to personally interview every voter before the election, but should I receive your endorsement all electors will find me at their service after the election.

With a hearty appreciation of your kind support, Respectfully yours, P. W. TURNER. 23-71.

Electors of Ward Five

Ladies and Gentlemen: Two years ago you elected me as one of your representatives at the Council Board. I trust my services have merited your approval and further confidence.

As ever I stand for improvements and the advancement of our City in every possible way consistent with our revenue and not involving increased taxation. There are many streets in ward five that require attention and it will be my aim, if elected, to find ways and means to have them put in better shape.

As it is impossible for me to see every elector personally I take this opportunity of soliciting your vote and influence.

Yours respectfully, W. ALLAN STEWART. 7499-29-91.

Election Card

To the Electors of Ward Five Ladies and Gentlemen: Having decided to again offer as a candidate for Councillor in Ward Five, I respectfully solicit your votes and influence on Feb. 10th next.

For four years I have had the honor of being one of your representatives at our Council Board. During that time I have endeavored to do my best for the advancement of our city in general and Ward Five in particular.

Permanent civic improvement and the beautifying of our city must be continued but only if keeping with our revenue.

Thanking you for your generous support in the past, and soliciting a continuance of same at the coming election.

I am, Respectfully Yours, GEORGE W. MACLEOD. 7540-3-71.

Mrs. Ayres: "How did it happen, Ellen, that you never saw finger bowls before? Didn't they use them in the last place you worked?" Ellen: "No, ma'am; they mostly washed themselves before they came to the table."
