EASTERN NOTES—Miss Belle Adams, popular teacher of Eglinton District, returned to her home in St. Eleanor's Friday. Miss Adams has been teaching in Eglinton for the last two years, and much regret is felt by the people that she is not going to continue next year. Prior to her departure Miss Adams was presented with a well filled purse by her scholars. We regret to state that Miss Maude Ching, teacher, was called to her home on account of the serious illness of her father, Mr. Benj. Ching, Eglinton. Later report is to the effect that Mr. Ching passed away Friday evening, July 12.—Miss Alice Douglas, accompanied by her young brother Harold, has arrived in Fortune from Boston to spend the summer months.—Miss Sadie McKenzie, primary teacher of Fortune Bridge School, has returned to her home in Charlottetown.

Junior Chautauqua

Activities of Junior Town started Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the "big brown tent." The officers which had not all been elected on Saturday afternoon were chosen this morning. Thelma Teed is the Mayor of Charlottetown's Junior town. The rest of the officers are as follows: Town Clerk, Marion Whitehead; Press Reporter, Helen McKie; Law and Order Commissioners, Horace McQuinn, Allison Rogers, Gordon Morris; Service Commissioners, Marjorie Holman, Hilda Fletcher; Health Commissioners, Betty Rogers, Doris McCloud. With such a reliable, capable council the Mayor of Junior town ought to be able to make Charlottetown a banner town. Just a few words about the "Play Festival" or pageant. On the last afternoon of Chautauqua which is Friday afternoon, July 17th, the Juniors will entertain the adults with dances, songs, games, stunts and drills which they have learned during the week all of which have been woven into a pageant. Juniors, those of you who have Junior tickets come out and swell the crowd. Let's make this the best pageant the Juniors of Charlottetown have ever staged. After the Juniors part of the program on Friday you will be entertained by the Dunbar Singing Bell Ringers. Don't miss this afternoon.

THE NEW STREET—Work on the new street project on Water Street is proceeding satisfactorily. Concreting is now being carried out from the Railway Crossing in the West end of the town to Central Street. After the street is prepared with a good bed of sand concrete blocks seven inches deep are laid. There are three blocks (or sections) across the street, the centre block and one on each side. The work has been held up for the past few days waiting for gravel from Moncton but with a full supply of materials and good weather the foreman, Jas. Millman states that the street will go down in a surprisingly short time. For instance in three hours yesterday morning one block or section thirty one feet long, 12 feet wide, 7 inches deep was completed. The men are now at work preparing the street between Central and Summerville, tearing up the macadam and making it ready for laying the concrete.

Malpeque

The Sea View school closing was held in the school-room on Wednesday afternoon with a large number of visitors in attendance. The scholars were carefully examined by their teachers, Misses Mathieson and Meek, and by several visitors. In the answers given there were evidences not only of careful training by the teachers, but also attention and study by the scholars. After the first part of the program was ended all repaired to the hall, where a splendid program consisting of songs, readings, solos, etc., was given. Mr. Edwin Murphy acted as chairman. Prizes were awarded by the teachers to several of the scholars. Addresses expressive of regret at their departure were given to the teachers and a presentation was made to each. Remarks were made by several visitors, which was followed by the singing of the hymn, which was enjoyed by all present.

A number from Malpeque and Hamilton were in attendance at the induction service of Rev. M. C. McDonald at Summerside on Friday evening.

The lobster season closed on Monday, July 5th, but many of the traps were taken in the previous week. A number of the fishermen made good, while others did not meet with much success. Lobster fishing is like all other vocations; there are successes and failures, but honest labor will surely bring its reward, and the truth of the old saying, "the best is yet to be," will it is hoped, be verified, for there are still other fish to catch.

The very many friends of Mrs. H. A. Stewart, Hamilton, were glad indeed that she was able to be present at the memorial service on Sunday evening, July 4th.

Mrs. J. K. McGougan entertained at her home in Malpeque in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gordon McGougan, on Thursday, July 1st. Mrs. John Simpson and Mrs. Vernon McGougan served. Mr. and Mrs. McGougan will return to their home in Ottawa on Thursday, July 8, after a pleasant three weeks' visit in Malpeque and Hamilton.

Mrs. Robert McNutt, Darnley, is the guest of Mrs. Bruce Howatt, Tryon.

The following was omitted from the memorial school prize list which was recently published: Special awards (other than those awarded by Cumberland Trust Fund): Thelma Woodside, for the best kept Nature Study book; Sidney McGougan, for arithmetic; Lois Ramsay, for daily work; Barbara McNutt, for history in Grade IV; Gora McGougan, for arithmetic in Grade I. Public school leaving certificates, awarded by the Department of Education: Thelma Woodside, Lea Bealro, Edith McNutt, George Howatt, Strathcona Prize for Physical Drill, awarded to the Senior Department.

About six hundred people attended the memorial service in Malpeque Church on Sunday evening, July 4th, in honor of our boys from Princeton congregation and Indian River district who sacrificed their lives in the recent Great War. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut and potted flowers while the monument on the church grounds was strewn with floral tributes. The choir under the direction of the organist, Mrs. James A. Campbell sang the beautiful hymn, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," "Faith of our Fathers Living Still," and "Onward Christian Soldiers." Messrs. T. W. Bentley and A. R. Gillis, of Chtown, contributed very wonderfully to the beauty and solemnity of the service by a number of vocal selections which were rendered with great pathos. The following is the list of special music: "Babylon" (Michael Watson) Mr. Bentley; "The Ninety and Nine," (Edward Campion) Mr. Gillis; duet, "Come Unto Me," Messrs. Bentley and Gillis. Prelude, "Largo," by Handel. Operatory, "Andante B flat (Handel) Postlude, "Dead March in Saul," by Handel.

During the service the audience was asked to stand while the list of our honored dead—sixteen in all—was read, by Rev. A. N. Gillis, the congregation still standing while prayer was offered and a verse "For all the saints who from their labors rest," was sung. The text for the evening was taken from the words of Heb. 12: 1, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses" and from John 17: 19, "For their sakes I sanctify myself." Mr. Gillis said that the writer of the Holywrit in speaking of the Christian martyrs referred to them as still living and watching over their actions; it was a challenge for them to do their best; so he said a similar challenge comes to us in thinking of those who gave their lives in the Great War, and if we believe the spirits of the dead are still with us, there are many things we would like to do for their sakes, but the greatest we can do is what Jesus did for his disciples, "For their sakes I sanctify myself." Their devotion was his inspiration, so the devotion, honor and ideals of those who fell should inspire us. "To you from falling hands we throw the torch. Be ye to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die,

BEAR RIVER NORTH SCHOOL EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of Bear River North school was held on Wednesday afternoon, June 30. A large number of parents were present. The pupils were thoroughly examined in the different subjects by their teacher and assistant teacher. The following is the program: Speech of welcome, by Margaret Gallant; song, Canada My Home, by the school; drill, Very Famous People, by 9 children; song, All That She is an Old-Fashioned Girl, by Eileen McGough; A Little Boy's First Recitation, Thomas Gallant; song, Days of Those Queen Old Time Fashions, by eight little girls; recitation, Don't Forget, by Charles Kelly; dialogue, Little Pitchers; recitation, The Violets, by Eileen Kelly; song, The Four Crowns, by four boys; recitation, The Boy Who Meant To, by Kenneth Kelly; closing song, Song of Canada, by all country but what is best for the world. Second, we should believe in the eternal verities, namely: Devotion to duty, "The path of duty is the way to glory"; secondly, the inherent power of goodness. In closing, Mr. Gillis in referring to the men who fell, said he made but little reference to them, and that he knew but one of them, but he felt anything that he would say would sum up his feelings in the words, "What a sleep they sleep the men I loved."

WESTMORELAND SCHOOL

The following prizes were awarded: Attendance, George Gallant and Kenneth Kelly; deportment, Georgina Gallant; general proficiency, Estelle McDonald; neatness and order, Kitty Kelly. Augusta McDonald, teacher.

The semi-annual examination of Westmoreland school was held on the afternoon of Wednesday, June 30th, in the presence of a large number of parents and ratepayers. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Miss Anna Duffy, ably assisted by Miss Marita Malone, teacher of the kerman school, and proved by their ready and correct answers that they had been carefully instructed by their earnest and capable teacher. After the examination a very pleasing program was rendered by the pupils consisting of recitations,

The Opportunity of a Lifetime FRENCH GOVERNMENT 6% BONDS ARE ON THE BARGAIN COUNTER

WE BELIEVE that an investment made today in French Government 6% Bonds (Loan authorized Dec. 16th, 1920; redeemable at par at the option of the Government on or after Jan. 1st, 1931), presents an exceptional opportunity for profit on any material advance in the value of French money (Francs).

Due to the depreciation of French Francs a French Government 6% Bond (of 1,000 francs denomination) can now be bought for $27.00, with French exchange at normal (19.3c per Franc) the same Bond would have a value of $193.00

International bankers believe French Francs will sell at 10 cents per Franc before very long. Just think what this means to French Government Bonds; with the Franc worth 10 cents, each Bond of 1,000 francs will have a value of $100.00—a rise of over 270%, or a profit of $73.00 for every $27.00 invested today. With the franc selling at 15 cents, each Bond of 1,000 Francs will have a value of $150.00, a rise of more than 455%, or a net profit of $123.00 for each Bond of 1,000 francs, or for every $27.00 invested today.

We made a lengthy and thorough investigation to determine the best way to buy French Francs for maximum profits. We are of the opinion that these French Government 6% Bonds afford the best medium, for they represent to French investors precisely what British Government and our Canadian Government Victory Bonds represent to us, being investments for every Institution, Trust Fund and Savings Bank in France, and constituting a strictly high-grade Government investment. They may be sold again instantly for spot cash, as they are listed on the Paris Stock Exchange and traded in throughout the financial centres of the world. The interest coupons (payable June and December 16th) have always been paid promptly on the dot, and can be cashed in Montreal, New York, London, and other financial centres through our House, banks or other institutions.

French Government Bonds will, we believe, unquestionably come back to normal ($193.00 per 1,000-franc Bond). The United States were financially bankrupt after the Civil War. Their securities could be bought for a song, yet in a few years the Americans were on their financial feet again, and today are considered the richest nation in the world.

INTEREST INCOME

The income from the average coupon of industrial Bond is fixed, that is to say, exactly $6.00 every year until maturity. The income from French Government Bonds comprises many of the most desirable features of an ordinary share, or common stock. While the income earned in French money remains fixed the value of that money to the Canadian or American investor depends upon the exchange rate of the French franc expressed in dollars.

Thus it will be seen that the rate for the franc the holder of a 6% French Bond will receive for the amount aggregating always 600 francs per annum in Canadian money equivalent to a return of nearly 7% on his investment. This is on the cost of his 10,000-Franc Bond which at the present time is $170.00.

When the franc reaches 8 cents, the value of the franc the holder of a 6% French Bond will receive for the amount aggregating always 600 francs per annum in Canadian money equivalent to a return of nearly 7% on his investment. This is on the cost of his 10,000-Franc Bond which at the present time is $170.00.

And lastly, with the franc at present 19.3 cents per 1,000-franc Bond the coupons for one year amount to 600 francs will be worth $115.80 amount equivalent to a return of 43% on the original investment of $27.00.

Table Showing Present Price and Possibilities

WE ARE selling a large number of these Bonds at the above price, which covers every expense. Upon receipt of accepted cheque or money order we will at once deliver them. They are sold as directed by registered and insured mail. Order without return of money. For many years this investment House has been Canada's foremost exclusive foreign Bond house. It is a vitally important fact to have our clients select those Bonds which will make the most money for them and make it most quickly. Our interest does not cease after a sale, for it is our constant aim to keep in touch with our clients, scattered throughout the length and breadth of Canada, the United States and Newfoundland, to render them the best service, informing them when Bonds rise in market value, and informing them whether or not we do not deem it advisable to sell. This service is expensive to ourselves, but its value to our clients is incalculable.

The payment of principal and interest on French Government 6% Bonds is guaranteed by the French Government and backed by the entire resources of the public of France.
