MARKET REVIEW FOR JUNE 4, 1931
The earnings of Montreal Island Power Co. are now more than sufficient to cover interest on the 4 1/2 per cent first mortgage bonds due in 1937 of which $9,250,000 are outstanding.

Bank Stocks:
One of the explanations generally accepted for a portion of the liquidation that has been going on in Canadian bank stocks for some weeks past, is that a certain amount of switching over taking place. This is a reversal of the into New York bank stocks has been situation of two years ago, when American bank stocks as a whole had risen to levels that showed yields far below those of Canadian stocks.

Canadian Northern Power Corporation

The April earnings statement of Canadian Northern Power Corporation, subsidiaries of Power Corporation, shows that the increase over the like period of last year was not only the best for any month this year to date but was substantially higher than the cumulative increase of the first three months. Comparison with 1930 has steadily improved since the beginning of the year. In January, net earnings showed a decrease of 3.48; in February, there was an increase of $262; in March, an increase of $225; and in April, it is just reported there was an increase of $217.22. While gross in April rose $21,062, operating expenses were reduced $670. As compared with March, there was a seasonal decline in earnings, but this year the decline was only $3,208, as compared with a drop of $13,776, in 1930. Hand in hand with increased earnings the company reports higher figures for kilowatt hour output. Production in April amounted to 24,311,970 k. w. h. as against 20,232,300 in the corresponding month of last year.

An Income of $100 A Month That You Cannot Lose

Think of it - a monthly income that you could not outlive, that would follow you everywhere, that no business depression could destroy, that no employer could cancel! Isn't this what you would like to have? Saving money and getting the interest on it would be one way to secure such an income, of course, but very few people can save money for retirement. You know how it is - something always comes along to wipe out the savings. Money which can be easily withdrawn is easily spent. Savings must be kept safe, "even from the saver" if he is to have them later on. And suppose you became totally disabled and your earning power stopped completely before you had enough money saved to take care of you, is there any ordinary savings plan that would provide you with the income you need? There is a plan, a genuine, work-
