The Golden Fleece COLOR CUT-OUTS

PRINCESS MEDEA HELPS

This is one day's chapter of the famous story of "The Golden Fleece." Have you been saving the pictures? If you have you will have a complete set of Golden Fleece dolls at the end of this week.

As Jason left the court of the King a beautiful, young girl came up to him. "I am Medea, the King's daughter," she said, "if you will only trust me I can instruct you how to tame the fiery bulls, sow the dragon's teeth and win the Golden Fleece."

Jason learned that the beautiful princess was an enchantress. "If you are as brave as I think you are you need have no fear," said she, "I have a charmed ointment which will prevent you from being burned by the brazen bulls." With the aid of Medea's ointment Jason was so anxious to meet the brazen bulls that he did not wait till day break.

(Here is the enchantress, Princess Medea. Her hair should be light brown and her dress a very pale blue. Tomorrow there will be another dress for her.)

P. E. I. TO GROW BETTER TURF FOR GOLFERS

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—The Department of Agriculture is endeavouring to improve Canadian golf scores by making available a special Maritime turf grass. It is said to be particularly tough and to resist assaults of the most frantic beginners who leave scars upon the face of the fairway as they proceed about the course.

The Department states this special seed, known as "brown top" is one of the natural grasses of the Maritimes. It produces "a very desirable turf, stands close clipping and comes through the severest winters in good condition." There are 400 golf clubs in Canada and 1400 in United States requiring turf seed annually.

United States imported 3,000,000 pounds of seed last year. Of the brown top seed which is mostly produced in Prince Edward Island, 300 pounds were produced last year and the total supply this year is thirty thousand.

Waits At Bedside To Marry Friend

NEWTON, Mass., Dec. 14.—A long friend is waiting at the side of Mrs. Eunice J. Estlin, anxious to bring her last hours fulfilling her expressed wish that they be married.

He is Alonzo S. Blood, 70, New York, and he is grief stricken in the fear that the wedding money may never take place.

Although physicians advised death seemed only a matter of hours, Blood yesterday obtained marriage license, and is hopeful that Mrs. Estlin may recover sufficiently to answer the question of a clergyman who is in readiness to officiate.

Mrs. Estlin has been a widow years. What are you doing? asked a convict of the reporter. He was writing an account of the buildings. "Only taking a few notes was my reply. "Take care sir. That's what brought me here."

Terrific SPEED

THRILLED and amazed, the fans see the great hockey players flash down the ice at dazzling speed. Their skates are C.C.M.'s, light in weight, yet exceedingly strong, with the flint-hard running edges sharpened like razors. The correct skates are of vital importance to the players. That is why more

C.C.M. Skates are used by hockey players than all other makes combined. They choose C.C.M.'s for their speed, their great strength, their fine construction and finish, and because they keep their edge so much longer.
