The Favorite Laxative

One at Night Makes the Next Day Bright; No charge if it Doesn't.

Because of its extremely gentle and effective action, Rexall Orderlies have become the most popular Remedy for Constipation.

We are so positive that Rexall Orderlies will do all that is claimed for them that we positively guarantee to hand back the money you paid us for them upon your mere request, if you are not entirely satisfied.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, are very pleasant to the taste, do not gripe, cause nausea, or any other annoying usually experienced when ordinary cathartics are used.

Rexal Orderlies have a positive regulative effect upon the bowels and tend to provide permanent relief from Constipation and the myriad of associate ailments. Besides, they help to overcome the necessity of the constant use of laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

We honestly believe there is no similar medicine so good as Rexall Orderlies, especially for children, aged or delicate people. They are prepared in convenient tablets form in three sizes of packages. Prices, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Why not try them at our risk on our guarantee?

Remember, Rexall Remedies can be obtained in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, McKinnon Drug Co.,

The marriage was solemnized by Rev. W. M. Tufts, D. D. in the First Presbyterian Church at Boston, on the twenty-second of November, of Williams Munn of Montague and Miss Sarah McPhail, daughter of Donald McPhail of this Province. The happy couple have the congratulations of their many friends here.

A quiet event took place on twenty ninth of November when John McPhail of Argyle Shore and Miss Laura B. McKinnon, daughter of John McKinnon of DeSable, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony took place at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. Tufts of Somerville, Mass. The bride and groom have the wishes of their many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

Rev. Dr. Tufts of Somerville, Mass, performed a most happy ceremony on November the twenty-eighth, when he united in marriage two young provincialists who are now residents of the United States. The ceremony took place at the residence of the officiating minister and parties were Charles Riggs and Miss Josephine Huggan, daughter of George Huggan, of this province. The Guardian joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for future prosperity to the happy couple.

The second quarterly meeting of the Vernon River and Cherry Valley Circuit of the Methodist Church was held in the Vernon River Church on Wednesday afternoon before the full board, excepting one brother who was unavoidably absent. It was a most harmonious session and much interest was displayed in the present position and future prospects. For the information of all who are interested in the effort which the circuit is making to achieve independence it may be stated that the prospects are so far encouraging. A number of subscribers have cheerfully and willingly increased their financial support and it is confidently expected that others will do so shortly. Of course, here as everywhere some who have been counted upon have failed expectations but it is hoped that upon mature consideration in view of the advantage conferred by a resident minister easily accessible at all times to their varied needs and requirements, they will fall into line and do their share. The pastor, Rev. Geo. Orman, will have completed his full term of service at the ensuing conference of 1912 and having received a unanimous call to the Superintendent of the Cornwall circuit has accepted the call, subject the authority of the N. B., and P. E. I., conference.

One of the neatest little booklets ever issued by local merchants is that of W. N. Tanton, jeweler, city, which has just come to hand fresh from the press. It is an eight paged booklet illustrating and describing Mr. Tanton's display of Xmas gift suggestions. The front and back covers are printed in two colors with an appropriate Xmas design and the text, besides describing the line of goods now offered, present many interesting features regarding this popular jewelry store which will be of interest to all people. This booklet was written, designed and printed in the city and every order sent for goods described in this booklet can be filled the hour it is received. This booklet will be sent free to any address and those in need of Holiday gifts will find it well worth reading.

Parents will be interested in the ad which appears in this issue for The Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd. This ad which describes their line of guns, rifles, and air-rifles will assuredly make a pleasing and delightful gift or that boy. Their line which includes Steven's single barrel shot guns, Steven's and Bayard's 22 rifles, and King air rifles, leaves nothing to be desired, for these different makes are regarded the country over as the best in their particular line and the prices quoted in The Rogers Hardware Co's ad places these rifles within the reach of all. Among the gifts that will delight in the boy's heart, a rifle, air-rifle or shot-gun stands pre-eminently best and a careful perusal of The Rogers Hardware Co's ad in this issue will give you practical pointers on what selection would prove most pleasing.
