THE MORNING PAPER.

Some Reasons Why it Makes The Best Advertising Medium.

A woman's curiosity to know about society, marriages, births, eaths, forces her to read it.

The Morning Paper is before her all day long, and it is she who is doing her household duties, arranging nd improving the appearance of her home, that the missing and necessary articles of furniture, rugs, carpets, curtains or other necessities, show up the plainest, and there could be no more opportune time for a dealer to tell about the new goods, the new styles and the bargains offered, for the day or week.

In a majority of homes the newspaper is practically the bulk of the eading matter, and the long, allday life from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. of The Morning Paper gives not only the housewife but every member of the family an opportunity to read it.

The Morning paper is read at the breakfast table, again at home at noon, on the trains, in the restaurants. It is read in doctor's offices, professional offices, clubs, hotels, cafes, barber shops. It is read by daylight everywhere you go by both employer and employee.

It is a known fact that throughout the world, possibly with a half-dozen xceptions, the papers with editorial influence and national reputation are orning Papers.

With these facts in mind, the business man who is looking after the eal money-spenders of the family to interest in his goods will consult his best interests by placing his announcements where the women will read them.
