SEA VIEW, 3; PIRATES, 0

The first play-off game of "B" section of the MacKenzie-Wignora League was played in the French River rink Saturday evening, Feb. 17th, when the Sea View Leafs took the Pirates into camp via the shut-out route. Approximately two hundred fans and spectators braved the sub-zero weather to be treated to a disappointing and slap-dash game of hockey from start to finish. Hard checking on the part of the defense and team work on the forward lines was conspicuous for its absence. The Leafs were the recipients of what might justly be termed two fluke goals, both scored in the second period.

The red light flashed for the first goal when Abbie McGougan's high shot deflected off Dennis' stick into the corner of the net as he attempted to bring it down with his stick.

Exactly three minutes later Dugan, flashy Leaf centre, carried in to the corner took a back hand shot which deflected off Meek's skate into the net.

In the last period the Leafs were content to take things easy, letting the Pirates do the advancing. This they did but to no avail, over-anxious on the part of the black and white squad and clever net-maintenance on the part of Hillz resulted in the game ending Sea View two, Pirates nothing.

Referees—Ralph Rose and Charles Payne.

COLLEGE GIRL OF TWENTY-TWO FOURTH MATE ON FREIGHTER

NEW YORK, Feb. 26—The fourth mate's nose was red and shiny from the cold—the mate's dark hair was wind-blown—no one cared. Certainly not the mate.

Florence La Bau, 22-year-old Goucher College girl, of Ridgwood, N. J., was the mate—"fourth mate without portfolio," explained Captain Didrick Holth of the freighter Wichita, finishing a China run today.

Miss La Bau, clad in blue trousers and a seaman's heavy greatcoat, was ending a trip started last October as a passenger. Her interest in the sea has turned her into a thorough-going salt. When the Wichita reached Shanghai she put away her trunk and resumed her duty and set about the business of learning to navigate a steamship.

"She's a good sailor," said Captain Holth today, with an approving glance at her "mate" as she stood on the bridge. "She worked hard learning the ropes. She stood her watch at the wheel; she was a first lieutenant from other women. And so we made her a fourth mate without portfolio."

GASPEREAUX WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The February meeting of the Gasperaux Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Ellie Llewellyn with an attendance of twelve members and six visitors present.

The meeting opened by reading the Creed in unison. Roll was called and answered by "Why I am a Member of the Institute." The minutes of the previous meeting were read, approved and signed by the President. The Sister Committee reported as having made one visit. A new committee was appointed for the following month. Several questionnaires were discussed and answered.

Mrs. Charles Steele invited the members to her home for the next meeting at which roll call will be answered by a "Joke." The national Anthem brought the meeting to a close, after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several ladies, which was followed by a programme by the Institute as follows: Duet, "Dreaming of Home," by Misses Mary and Matilda Steele; Recitation, "Our Institute," by Miss Marie Steele; Reading, "Ophthalmic Sisters," by Mrs. Lawrence McHarron; Recitation, "Neighbors," Miss Mary Steele; Reading, Mrs. George A. Hicken; Recitation, "Sunday Night," by Miss Vera Hayer; Story, "Fixing Up Light," by Mrs. Charles Steele; Dialogue, "Fish All," by Misses Hazel Kelly, Matilda Steele and Mary De Lorie; Reading, Mrs. Geo. H. Hicken.

SPOKEN ENGLISH IS WORLD'S OWN

LONDON, Feb. 25—(C.P.)—"It is no longer possible to legislate for the English language as though the English language belonged to these islands alone," says the Advisory Committee on Spoken English, which was set up by the British Broadcasting Corporation.

This committee comprises Irishman, two Welshmen, two Scotsmen and an American. Its membership consists of Bernard Shaw (chairman), A. Lloyd James, Professor Daniel Jones, Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, Logan Pearsall Smith and Professor Lascelles Abercrombie.

It has been decided to get into touch with authoritative opinion on language questions in the United States and in the Dominion.

"It does appear desirable," says the memorandum, "that there should be some attempt at unifying the pronunciation of technical words throughout the English-speaking world. Science knows no frontiers; American, Canadian, Australian, South African scientists visit this country for study and research, just as our scientists travel abroad in the pursuit of knowledge, and if there is a standard pronunciation for the technical terms of their work, nothing is lost and something is possibly gained."

CONFESSION IN MURDER CASE IS ALLEGED

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) QUEBEC, Feb. 25—Entry into the record of an alleged confession made to police by Nelson Phillips, 18 year old Gaspé youth now on trial in the court of King's Bench on a charge of murdering Maud Asch, 14 at Gaspé, last month, was the feature today of the continuation of Phillips' trial before a jury under Chief Justice R. A. E. Greenhalgh, Montreal.

Maud, and her cousin Marguerite Asch, 17, disappeared from home during the night of Aug. 31, 1933. About two months later Maud's body was found floating in the waters of Gaspé Bay by a fisherman. Subsequently the foot of a young girl, presumably that of Marguerite was found, although the latter's body was never recovered. Evidence given at trial tended to show accused was the last person to be seen with the Asch occupants.

The confession, declared to have been signed by the youth, was also read at inquest and at preliminary hearing. It purported to be a full account of how the two girls were slain on the beach at Peninsula, Gaspé, their bodies, tied to rocks being thrown into the bay.

Methods supposedly used to obtain the alleged confession were divulged into by defence counsel Guy Hudon. He branded Arthur Maloney, former Montreal detective, as a "stupid pigeon," asserting the latter had connection with gangsters of the underworld in Montreal who were interested in the present case. Accused had been kept in solitary confinement, Mr. Hudon stated in arguing against the admission of the alleged confession, and had not been allowed to see any body but police officers. He cited jurisprudence to the effect the court of appeals had decided when an accused made a declaration previous to his confession, he must be warned in spite of any previous statements, he was not obliged to speak. This, he claimed, had not been done in the present instance.

Addresses to the jury by counsel are expected to begin tomorrow.

DAY OF ALL COLOR IN CINEMATOGRAPHY NOW NEAR, EXPERTS DECLARE

LONDON, Feb. 27—Demonstrations that have recently taken place in strict secrecy in some of London's finest cinemas, have proved conclusively that the day of all color cinematography is coming rapidly near.

Such astonishing progress has been made during the past few months that it is felt that Britain will soon give the color lead to the world.

From the earliest days of the screen, the idea of color films has been foremost in the minds of technicians.

Now, after years of patient investigation, the goal is in sight. So excellent have been the films previously shown in London that they have been amazed and already ready to talk of the promotion of an all-color film company.

"There are only one or two minor laboratory problems now to be solved," Captain Jack Smith, of the British Kinematograph Society says. "I am convinced that one morning soon, we shall wake up and find British color films an accomplished commercial fact."

"We were shown a color film, one of our society's recent meetings and it was truly remarkable. The coloring was very good. The reds and blues were as glaring and vivid like they have been in previous attempts. They were beautiful, naturally harmonized perfectly. Everything was sharp and there was a complete absence of the density of colors to run into another."

The one obstacle to the great adoption of color films hitherto has been the immense costliness of the process. Even the brilliantly clever still symphonies have to be rented at five times the price of an ordinary score's picture.

TURKISH TOWEL HAS GRADUATED FROM BATHROOM TO BALLROOM

Miami, Fla., Feb. 27—The old Turkish towel has graduated from the bathroom to the ballroom. That utilitarian article that has hung unused on towel racks in these many years, is in vogue now. It's the favored fabric of Florida resort centres, and it has gone not only beach robes, but evening gowns as well. With it was worn a loose three-quarter mandarin coat of the same white toweling, its wide sleeves banded in white fox.
