On Sept. 12th death which for a long time has been hovering near her collapsed at last the being of little Annie Jane, the infant child of Jas. and Mrs. Brennan of Darnley, aged 11 months and 30 days. During the past six months death seemed very near ever ready to take advantage of the feeble spark of life which seemed so dim at times. All that loving and patient parents could do was cheerfully performed and medical aid summoned but every effort to prolong the precious life of that darling one, so early called away from this earth to a home above was ineffectual. "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." The remains of little Annie were laid to rest in the family plot in the cemetery adjoining St. Mary's R. C. Church, Indian River on Sunday Sept. 16th. To the father, mother, brothers, and sisters, The Guardian joins with the community at large in expressing heartfelt sympathy.
