INSTITUTE MEETING.—The monthly meeting of the Kingsborough Women's Institute was held on April 2nd at the home of Mrs. J. Oswald Stewart. After the business part of the meeting, there was a mouth organ solo "Redwing" by Lillie Robertson, then a reading by Mrs. Walter Young "The Kaiser's Coronation", then a duet by Misses Lillie Robertson and Ruthie Stewart, "Nellie Grey". Next came a paper from the sec. on "Lessons of War" followed by a solo, "Mother Machree" by Ruthie Stewart accompanied by Lillie Robertson on the mouth organ, encore, "Juanita". After the singing of God save the King, the meeting came to a close. Next meeting to be held in Hall, M. Stewart, Secy.

WEDDING PARTY RECEIVED.—A large number of people assembled at the Georgetown Station on Friday night to meet Mr. James Hessian of the P. E. I. Ry. who with his bride arrived on the evening train. Mr. and Mrs. Hessian were given a rousing reception and even though it is winter time, rice was very much in evidence. Many of the on-lookers receiving as much if not more than the bride and groom. After the crowd has somewhat dispersed the bride and groom were given to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McDonald, followed by a lusty crowd of youngsters, eager to do honour to the happy party, by making as much noise as possible. Many sincere and hearty good wishes for their future welfare are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Hessian by their many friends.—G.

USE "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS WHEN CONSTIPATED

When bilious, headachy, sick, or sour stomach, bad breath, bad colds. Get a 10-cent box. Take a Cascaret to-night to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have head ache, coated tongue, a bad cold are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Remember, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

TAKE CHANCE ON HAPPINESS

Grasp the Meed as it Passes and Join the Great Throng Wearing Smiling Countenances

We were coming home from a dinner together, my friend and I. It was late at night and rather rainy, and as we sat together in the damp, almost empty trolley car, my friend spoke very suddenly and seriously, writes Margaret E. Sangster, in the Christian Herald.

"Just now," she said, "I've a chance to be very happy. But I'm almost afraid to take it!" "The rain beat, in a futile manner, against the car windows. I listened to it for a moment before I spoke—"Why?" I questioned at last—"Why are you afraid to take your chance to be happy?" "Because," answered my friend, and her eyes looked far away—past the car and the rain, even—"because I'm afraid that it won't last!" "When it is autumn, and the leaves are crimson and gold-colored and very beautiful, we know, even as we admire them, that they will be brown and withered some day. But that does not keep us from loving their glorious colors. It's like that, too, with flowers and springtime, and the blue sky of summer. We know that the flowers will fade away and that springtime will go and that there will be winter storms (clouds where there were once sparkles of sun. And so this is the answer to my friend and to other friends of mine: Never be afraid to grasp at happiness because it may not last. For happiness is as beautiful as the flowers of spring and the sky of summer and the vivid leaves of autumn. And even though it might not last, happiness is too beautiful to pass by with never a glance. And then, as the philosopher said, and as we know, don't be sure, as you take your chance at happiness, that it will not stay. Look around your circle of friends, look at the casual ones; associates, look at the casual crowds that you pass every day and you'll see that the average of happy faces is rather high. You'll see more smiles, I think, than frowns; more merry faces than sad ones! Don't be afraid to take a chance at happiness because you fear that it is too beautiful to last. Take your chance, instead, arguing that happiness is too beautiful not to last!"

HONOR ROLLS.—Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock there was a special service in the Montague Presbyterian Church. The occasion was the unveiling of two unique Honour Rolls of twenty-five names each. These boys, have all been connected with this Church at some time, and it was very fitting that a special service be held in their honour. There was a large audience present. Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor of the church was the chief speaker and gave quite a lengthy and instructive address. Rev. Mr. Stewart, read the Bible lesson, from King's showing how God punished his people in olden times, when they had forsaken Him. He pointed out, how that today people forget God. There time is spent in too frivolous a fashion. They should be in sincere prayer, by their maker, to save them from this awful war which has been brought upon us. There were many present, who have often realized the absolute truth of Mr. Stewart's statements. Many persons throughout our beloved Canada, spend their hours, days and nights, playing cards and doing other questionable things, to the downfall of our young men and women, when they should be on their knees in pleading prayer to God to save them from Germany and slavery. It is high time we realized the seriousness of this war, which is in God's hands, and he above can give us the victory when he knows by our sincerity that we are doing in a right way, all we can to WIN THE WAR.—T.

A PERFECT MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Baby's Own Tablets are a perfect medicine for little ones. They regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach thus drive out colds and simple fevers and make teething easy.
