Cavendish Meeting Discusses the

Non-Fulfillment of Union Terms and Strongly Endorses the Tunnel—Deep Interest Shown and Resolutions Adopted

The hall at Cavendish was filled to the doors on Friday evening last with a deeply interested audience who listened to a discussion on the non-fulfillment of the terms of union. Arthur Simpson presided and in fitting words introduced the speakers from Summerside and Charlottetown. Captain Joseph Read, who spoke for an hour and a quarter, and Mr. McCready who held the floor for an hour, dealt exclusively with the non-fulfillment of the terms of union and the tunnel as a remedy. They did not touch upon the subsidy question. It ought to be mentioned that the tunnel seems to be very popular in Cavendish. A tunnel emblem about two feet across, the work of Secretary J. A. Clark, and modeled on the famous Tunnel Stamp in form and color, blazed on the wall behind the President's chair. It carried the motto "United we stand; divided we fall." A number of local speakers followed those who had been invited from a road with short speeches. These were W. H. Hogan, J. C. Clark, Walter Simpson, G. R. McNeill, William Moffatt, D. M. Simpson. J. A. Clark moved a resolution which was very heartily adopted without a dissenting voice, on the same lines as the resolution adopted at the Kensington meeting, strongly endorsing the memorial of the Legislature in 1905 in favor of the tunnel and a third winter steamer, and also our claims to six members in the House of Commons.

ANOTHER AWFUL RAILWAY WRECK

Electric Train Wrecked Near New York—Cars and Passengers Piled In Heap—Fire Breaks Out—22 Killed And 145 Injured.

(SPECIAL BY WIRELESS) New York, Feb. 17.—Closely following the terrible Larchmont disaster in Long Island Sound when a hundred and fifty lives were lost, comes the appalling news of another train disaster to be added to the already long list of railway accidents which has marked the beginning of this year to an unusual degree. On Saturday the electric suburban train on the Harlem division, which left the Grand Central Station in New York City at 6.15 in the evening met with disaster, and was wrecked near Mosholn parkway in the Bronx. As a result of the accident which was caused by the train jumping the track while it was running at the speed of 70 miles an hour, twenty-two persons are known to be killed, while one hundred and forty-five others were injured. The horror of the calamity was increased by the fact that the cars caught fire and the wreck was soon enveloped in flames. The scene of the accident after the outbreak of the fire is said to have been horrible. The cars and passengers were piled in one awful, indistinguishable heap, and the flames crept in among the living and the dead, making the scene one that will be classed as among the most fearful accidents in the annals of railroading.

Death Halts Thaw Trial

Juryman's Wife Dead of Pneumonia, Court Discharges the Twelve Men From Bailiffs' Care, and they are Free to Go Where they Please.

New York, Feb. 11.—Another tragic chapter in the history of the Thaw-White episode was written today when grim death stepped in to halt the famous trial in its fourth week. The wife of Juror No. 11, Mrs. Joseph B. Bolton, passed away this afternoon soon after her husband had reached her bedside. The fact that the Thaw jury has been selected for trial service and that Mr. Bolton had been allowed to visit his wife's fatal illness, lent a pathetic aspect to the case and the greatest sympathy for the afflicted man was expressed on all sides. During the brief morning session when Mr. Bolton had taken his place in the box, Thaw fixed the juror with his gaze as he entered. It was not a stare of curiosity or of concern as to his own welfare that the defendant turned upon the juror, but there seemed rather to be a light of sympathy in the eyes of the man accused of the murder of Sanford White. Mrs. Bolton suffered from double pneumonia. Her condition became serious yesterday when the morning session of the trial was abandoned to allow the juror to visit his home, which is far up in the Bronx. Bolton was accompanied by two other jurymen and by two court officials. The law which was invoked at the beginning of the trial to keep the jury together, provides that no one juror shall at any time be separated from the others. Mrs. Bolton rallied yesterday afternoon, her husband returned to his place and the trial went on. When court opened at 10.30 this morning Mr. Bolton was again in his place but it was said his wife's condition was critical and he might be called away at any time. JUROR SUMMONED TO DEATH BED. Dr. Evans, superintendent of the New Jersey Hospital for the Insane, was recalled as an alienist to continue his direct examination. The witness was a key to detail the conversation he had on various occasions with Thaw in the Tombs. He had already declared these conversations to be an essential feature in his conclusion that Thaw was of unsound mind at the time of the doctor's first three visits to him, the last being on Sept. 22. Mr. Jerome had withdrawn his objection to the statements by Thaw going into the evidence and Dr. Evans was about to detail the events of his first visit on Aug. 4, when the summons for Juror Bolton came. Capt. Ricketts, of the police squad, was seen to whisper to Justice Fitzgerald. Bolton seemed to divine his mission and moved unobtrusively in his chair. A recess was taken until 2 p. m. and the juror, still accompanied by two of his associates and two court clerks, hurried to the little home in the Bronx where Mrs. Bolton was being kept. She died soon after her husband's arrival. JUROR FREED FROM CONFINEMENT. Juror Bolton is 57 years of age and a clerk. When court again convened at 2.25 p. m. there had been a conference of the attorneys with Justice Fitzgerald and an agreement had been reached to release the remaining jurors from further confinement. In taking this Justice Fitzgerald took pains to state that the rule keeping them together had not been adopted upon the separate recommendation of either side but was the result of an agreement based upon reasons which appeared excellent alike to the interests of the defendant and of the people. There was intended not the slightest reflection upon the jury in any way. It would have been well, Justice Fitzgerald remarked, if the rule could have been adhered to until the close of the trial, but the sad occurrence has brought about a condition which must be confronted. It would be manifestly unfair, the court said, to keep the jurors further from their homes during the delay.

BRITISH MINISTRY AVOIDED DEFEAT

By Vote Of 192 To 190 House Re'used Writ For By Election

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Against the advice of the Government the House of Commons decided by 192 to 190 votes to refuse a new writ for the election of a member of Parliament to replace Mr. William Cone, Conservative and tariff reformer, who was unseated following charges of corruption by agents. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Asquith and the Attorney General, Sir J. Lawson, Walton, supported the motion to grant a new writ, but many Liberals considered that the period of disfranchisement of the constituency should be prolonged and Mr. Asquith announced that the Government would leave the question to the judgment of the House.

NEW DELICACY CANNED MERMAID

It Will Soon Be Obtainable in London and Paris—The Latest Delicacy.

LONDON, February 14.—"Canned mermaid" will soon be obtainable in London and Paris as the newest exotic delicacy. This strange viand comes from Queensland, where the dugong, the curious aquatic animal which was taken by the old voyagers for a mermaid, is common in the shallow waters along the coast. The dugong was called a "mermaid" by the early navigators on account of its habit of standing upright in the water, clasping its young to its breast. It is a clean feeder, living on seagrass, and its flesh is said to be quite palatable.

TREASURES STOLEN IN LONDON

Pictures Valued at 175,000 Taken from Mr. Wertheimer's House

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The most sensational burglary since 1876, when Gainsborough's "Duchess of Devonshire," now the property of John Pierpont Morgan, was stolen by an American, Harry Raymond, occurred at Park Lane, during the night. Several costly canvases, including pictures by Gainsborough and Reynolds, were cut out of their frames and carried off. The two Gainsboroughs and a Reynolds were worth together $80,000. So unskillfully were the pictures cut from their frames that they have been irrevocably ruined, even if they were recovered. The thieves also made a big haul of eighteenth century French snuff boxes and miniatures. They made their exit from the front door with their booty, which caused the alarm bells to ring and aroused the household.

A TORONTO MAN TO PESSIMISTIC

Toronto, Feb. 15.—That a period of dear money is probable for some time; that the national export trade of Canada is becoming extraordinarily large; that deplorable conditions, such as revealed by investigation in commercial, financial insurance and political affairs are fostered by paternalism; that Government bonuses should be discontinued; that preferential treatment should not be introduced in regard to Canadian products in the Old Country; that the railway commission of Canada should give more attention to questions of car shortage and discrimination, etc., that touch local matters as crossings and that the sewage of Toronto should not be emptied into the bay, are some of the opinions of Mr. Peleg Howland expressed by him as retiring president at the annual meeting of Board of Trade Monday.

ATTACKED AND BURNED TOWNS

Six Members of the Constabulary Killed By Pulajams—Teachers Missing

MANILA, February 14.—Pulajams attacked and burned two towns in the province of Occidental Negros yesterday and killed six members of the constabulary. Two American teachers, W. J. Bassett and Walter J. L. Isa, are reported to be missing. No cause is known for the uprising. Raids were made within a radius of ten miles, and schools were first attacked and burned in both instances. The province of Occidental Negros has been free from disturbances for four years. It is believed that the raiders were mountaineers venturing their hereditary animosity against coast towns.

ONTARIO MAY REFUSE CHARTERS

Retroactive Legislation May Be Resorted to, and Powers Granted Rescinded.

Toronto, Feb. 14.—To meet a situation created by the Hamilton merger, it was stated today that the Ontario Government would in future refuse to grant charters giving powers which cannot be obtained elsewhere unless a clause was inserted providing that the applicant would not seek to escape Ontario jurisdiction. With regard to the charters already granted it is said retroactive legislation may be resorted to and all the powers previously granted rescinded where the holders have sought to evade Provincial jurisdiction. This would be a serious step and will not be taken without mature consideration by the Government. In addition as suggested by the Premier, taxation will be resorted to.

BILL OF FARE IN N. B. SPEECH

FREDERICTON, February 14.—The New Brunswick legislature was opened today by Lieutenant-Governor Snowball with the customary military display. In the speech from the throne his honor announced legislation providing an increase in the salaries of public school teachers, a measure to provide for inspection and stamping of creamery butter, legislation to encourage sheep raising, importation of heavy draught brood mares to improve stock, legislation to give further aid to the building of the International railway from Campbellton to the St. John river near Edmundston, and which is to connect with main lines, and other measures dealing with the liquor license act, workmen's compensation act and incorporation of fishermen's unions.

ANOTHER GREAT DISCOVERY.

A well known gentleman in Black Bay, Ont. Mr. John Cowan, has discovered an absolute specific for Rheumatism, and chronic Rheumatism which I contracted years ago. The disease had a great hold on my blood, and it was hard to make any impression on it. Reading of Ferronone I was convinced of its merit and it certainly is the best I have ever tried. Why it just drove away the Rheumatism. Even stiffened old sufferers will experience quick results. The reason is that Ferronone acts through the blood and thereby destroys the cause of the disease. RELIGIOUS DISPUTE NEARING AN END

French Press Expresses Heartiest Satisfaction That Settlement is in Sight

PARIS, Feb. 14.—M. Briand, the Minister of Education, is silent relative to the negotiations between Mgr. Amelot, the Coadjutor Archbishop of Paris and the prefect of the Seine, M. Desjardins, on the subject of the modified contract for the lease of the churches, but it is known that drafts of contracts, practically identical in substance, have already been exchanged with only differences in words separating the negotiators, and it is said that the parish priests of Paris and M. Desjardins may exchange signatures before the week ends. Coughs, colds, soreness, and other ailments are quickly relieved by Crocollin tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

STATUE OF QUEEN VICTORIA TURNED ABOUT BY EARTHQUAKE

When Kingston was virtually destroyed by the recent earthquake the statue erected in memory of Queen Victoria of Great Britain was not upset by the shocks, but was so turned as face in exactly the opposite direction.

SUFFRAGISTS WILL FORCE LONDON TO BANKRUPTCY

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The campaign to save London from bankruptcy, at the hands of the progressive Socialist majority of the County Council has developed into the hottest political struggle in the modern history of the metropolis. The issue is solely a question of further municipalization of local industries. The present majority has been in unbroken control since the creation of the Council in 1880, and they are so confident of their strength that they have emphasized their campaign this week by adopting an electrification scheme on even a larger scale than previously planned.

GOOD RED TAPE FROM WAR OFFICE

LONDON, February 13.—The Aldershot News narrates a curious occurrence at North Camp, Aldershot, due to the recent removal of the War Office from Pall Mall to the new building in Whitehall.

CAPT. McVEY MAKES STATEMENT

PROVIDENCE, R.I. Feb. 14.—Captain McVey, commander of the steamer Larchmont, when seen at his home in this city today at an early hour this morning in regard to the statement made by Fred Hierpress of Brooklyn, admitted that it was probable that his lifeboat was one of the first, if not the first, to leave the sinking ship. He explained, however, that this was due to the fact that a seaman standing on the hurricane deck out the davit rope, but even after the boat was in the water he remained by the ship until she went down.

CRAZY INDIANS HOLD UP TOWN

MALONE, N. Y., Feb. 13.—Indians from the St. Regis reservation, crazed with liquor, have kept the residents of Hogsburg, Franklin county, in fear and peril for several days. Conditions became so serious that scores of families remain indoors for fear of encountering the redskins.

GALICIANS HAVE BRIGHT FUTURE

MONTREAL, Feb. 13.—Consul General Freydenberg, the representative of Austria-Hungary in Canada, who goes to Celestia, stated to the Chronicle yesterday, that he was leaving Canada, fully convinced that the Galicians and others of the 100,000 former subjects of Austria-Hungary had a very bright future before them.

NEW PEERAGES ARE DYING OUT

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The death of Lord Thring without an heir, following on the tapes of the baroness of Field, Burdett, Onitts, Currie, Hobhouse and Lingen, draws attention to the number of peers, particularly recent creations, who are without heirs to carry on the dignity. When Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman made a number of peers recently it was jokingly said in the House of Commons lobby that they had only one son among them. This meant that they were nearly all childless, or at any rate peers without sons, and as the list included Lord Courtney, Lord Pirrie, Lord Armstrong, Lord Fitzmaurice, Lord Glantwa, Lord Haver, Lord Loreburn, Lord Weardale, and Lord Winterstoke. It is to be supposed that with the deaths of the present holders the titles will become extinct.
