Messrs. C. M. Lamson & Co., Winter Sale Will Commence January 21, 1926

Fine furs, such as Fox of all kinds, Beaver, Otter, Lynx, Fisher, are intended for the Winter Sale, should be in New York not later than the morning of December 31, 1925.

Staple articles, such as Skunk, Possum, Muskrat, Mink, Raccoon, Bear, Wolf, etc., reaching New York by the morning of January 8, 1926, should arrive in London in time for inclusion in the sale.

The improved feeling in Europe, due to the confirmation of the terms of the Locarno Pact and the fact that the stocks of furs in dealers' hands are small, indicate an excellent sale next month.

As business on the continent has been satisfactory, Messrs. C. M. Lamson & Co. look forward to a general advance in prices as compared with October values, with the possible exception of Possum, which were extremely high at the recent sale.

Notice is hereby given that a dividend of four per cent. (being at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum) upon the paid-up Preference Shares of this Corporation has been declared for the half-year ending December 31st, 1925, payable on and after the 15th day of January, 1926.

By order of the Board,
W. M. McDONALD, Secretary.

Cosette's Christmas COLOR CUT-OUTS

COSETTE'S SECRET WISH

Cosette was a poor little French girl whose mother and father were dead. For as many years as she could remember, she had helped her stepmother in the duties around the inn, carrying the water, building fires and all the other tasks of drudgery which her two little sisters escaped. For food she had nothing but the scraps from the table, and her clothes were those which the stepmother could no longer wear. It was not a happy life for a little girl only eight years old, but Cosette had known no other.

Now it was only a few days before Christmas, and the Christmas toys were all in the windows. Cosette stopped every day to gaze longingly at a beautiful doll with waxen pink cheeks and shining yellow hair. But Cosette knew that it could never be hers.

(This is Cosette in her ragged little slip. Color it pale blue or pink. Cosette's hair should be golden and her cheeks a pale pink. Her stockings may be brown or gray, and her shoes black.)

Instead of putting round-eyed screws in the handles of brushes and dish mops that we hang up when not in use, I use small cup hooks. This makes it easier to put the brushes in place, and when several are hung on one hook it is possible to take one down without removing all the others.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

The effectiveness of the two-piece frock is such that women simply refuse to give it up as a fashion. Numerous one-piece models have been introduced in late fashion catalogues, but the two-piece dress still holds its prominent place.

As shown a day frock which combines a long black velvet overblouse with a black satin skirt showing the front flare. Novel trimming is added in the use of silver cord for collar and cuff bands and for the three-cornered pieces caught at the upper corner of the skirt.

These overblouses, which are straight and quite long, are being favored by smart women.

Canadian Pacific Compartment - Observation Sleepers

A most attractive feature of Canadian Pacific service between Saint John and Montreal is provided by the Compartment Observation sleepers which are now running on train 15, leaving Saint John at four o'clock in the afternoon and on train 16 leaving Montreal at seven o'clock in the evening.

Each of these cars contains one drawing-room, three compartments, a large observation room and an observation platform, the latter of course being always placed at the rear end of the train. The observation room which is fitted with large windows, giving a practically unobstructed view on three sides, is intended as a lounge for the benefit of all sleeping car passengers on the train. It is supplied with the latest magazines, as well as with stationery and a writing desk. Each compartment contains one lower and one upper berth, and all toilet facilities, much like a drawing-room. Fatuous travelling alone or in parties of two, who are unable to secure a drawing-room, will find a compartment most convenient, as well as distinctly lower in price.

Needless to say, the whole car is fitted up to the best Canadian Pacific standard, thus ensuring complete comfort to the traveller. 6605-12-12-stt-91.
