A DROP IN MILK.—There was an exciting runaway yesterday morning when the horse attached to Mr. Duffy's milk sleigh took a sprint from Elm Avenue to Grafton Street. While rounding Crabbe's Corner the horse struck a lamp post, demolishing the sleigh, box and milk bottles while the milk cans were scattered far and wide and all the milk spilled. PROSPEROUS CIRCUIT.—Rev. Hugh Miller's friends in P. E. I. will read with interest his success in Baie Verte as printed in The Wesleyan. This circuit continues to prosper. Last year it became independent and renounced the Sustentation Fund grant. At the second meeting of the Quarterly Official Board the receipts were in advance of the previous year, and there is a steady increase of the amount raised by envelope contributions. All the Congregational Funds for the year have been raised. The Missionary income is in an advance of other years there have been additional members at some of the appointments, and the spiritual outlook is good. Rev. Hugh Miller is greatly encouraged with the prospect, this old circuit is taking its place amongst the first of the Conference.

FUNERAL TODAY.—The funeral of the late John MacLean will leave Mr. G. D. Wright's parlors for the People's Cemetery, today (Tuesday) 19th inst. at 2 p. m.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.—On Tuesday evening, January 29th, a reception was held in St. Andrew's Church, North Sydney, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid in honor of its new minister, Rev. Mr. Wauchope and Mrs. Wauchope. The congregation being so large only the adult-portion of it was invited. Mrs. Wauchope is a daughter of the Rev. D. B. McLean, formerly of this city. In the evening, Mr. Edmund McDonald in his usual happy manner, gave the address of welcome. A choice musical program was rendered by the choir. Rev. W. Rosborough, spoke words of welcome in his own behalf and also for Mr. Jack whose congregation he represented. Then followed the chief feature of the evening when Mr. and Mrs. Wauchope formally received their people, they being helped in this pleasant task by the senior elder, Mr. Alex. Boyd and Mrs. Boyd. From the main auditorium the people passed into the large Sunday school rooms where many small tables were set with the daintiest appointments, each in charge of two ladies and their waitresses. Needless to say the ladies of St. Andrew's applied their record of ministering to the most fastidious tastes. Here the crowd mingled as one immense happy family, getting to know one another better and being drawn together more closely in the bonds good fellowship, while a group of young men surrounding the piano gave an added home-like touch by the singing of many "old favorites." Thus passed one of the most enjoyable social affairs in the history of St. Andrew's, the getting acquainted with its minister, although with them but a few weeks, has already won their respect and love by his eloquent preaching, his manly personality and his intense interest in them, not only as a congregation but especially as individuals.

ALEXANDER J. McCORMACK Alexander J. McCormack, of St. George's parish, Lot 55, died on Saturday, February 9th, from an acute attack of pneumonia, aged 56 years. He was an exceptionally fine type of citizen, and his many noble qualities of head and heart endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. Few serve Church and state more faithfully than did he. A busy and prosperous farmer he could still find time to entertain his many guests. But his chief pleasure and comfort was to lend a helping hand to relieve distress. It was indeed a ruling passion with him to quietly render services to the poor and the sick, and then to follow them when dead to the grave. In fact no funeral seemed complete without him. It is no exaggeration to say that the parish has lost in his death one of its most active and esteemed members. The parish is indeed the poorer now that he has been taken from us. Strong men shed sympathetic tears when the news of his death reached them, so true a friend he was to one and all. When shall we see his like again? We shall see the eloquent commentary uttered by every mouth on a good practical Christian life. He leaves a disconsolate widow and five young children to cherish his memory. On Monday, the 11th a Requiem High Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul, a large congregation assisting thereat. The Church service over the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. "Eternal rest give to him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him."

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION: On the eve of her marriage, having resigned her position as organist of the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches of Lower Montague, Miss Edith Wightman was presented with the following address and a well-filled purse of gold: To Miss Edith Wightman, Lower Montague, P.E.I. Dear Miss Wightman: We, the members and adherents of the Lower Montague Presbyterian and Methodist Churches wish to convey to you our high appreciation of the service which you have so ably rendered to the above congregations. Your talents and ability has been freely placed at the disposal of all. Ever faithful in attendance and patient in your unwearied efforts to help, frequently at no small sacrifice to yourself, you have placed us all under deep obligations. Then what you have done for the young people and children of our homes, makes us all feel that your absence will be a personal loss to all. We do not think we can ever repay you for your helpful and unwearied efforts and kindness. But we would like you to accept this purse as a small token of our appreciation and love. We, one and all, wish you and Mr. Hyndman, the greatest happiness and prosperity in your new sphere of life. We shall ever be only too glad to welcome you back amongst us; ever pleased to hear of your success and welfare. Yours, Mrs. Freeman Hewitt, D. P. Ross and Montague Annex.

IF BACKACHEY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER Eat less meat also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush or the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

The late Mrs. Cavanagh was a woman of estimable character and much respected in the community in which she lived, also by the large circle of friends who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. For her charity she was known far and wide, the needy never left her door unaided, and the way farer always found refuge in her home.

In sickness or sorrow her ever willing hand was always ready to soothe and comfort.

In her home she was ever gentle and kind, on her face she always wore a smile.

An ever consistent member of the Roman Catholic Church she lived and she died fortified by its last sad rites administered to her by the hands of her beloved pastor, who paid her frequent visits of consolation during her last illness.

On Tuesday morning Jan. 22nd her home was filled to its utmost with friends and relatives who came to pay their last tribute with respect to one who as friend and neighbor left nothing to be desired, after which her remains followed by over fifty sleighs were conveyed to All Saints Church, Cardigan, where a High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the pastor Rev. B. Gillis thence to the cemetery adjoining where interment was made, the Rev. Father Gillis also officiating. She was laid to rest in the family plot beside her husband and son who predeceased her some years ago. She leaves to mourn their loss
