..*THE GEORGETOWN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. Great activity was displayed this week by the Woman's Institute of Georgetown when the members congregated for the purpose of sending Christmas Boxes to the boys from Georgetown who are serving their King and country. Four boxes containing unwards of sixty parcels of socks,candy and other eatables were shipped to Miss Plummer Commissioner for Field comforts at Shorncliffe, England. This Institute has accomplished a surprising amount of work in the past year since it has been organized. One of the first commendable things which it did was to remodel and furnish the Kindergarten of the Georgetown High School in a modern and hygenic fashion. Another noticeable improvement was the planting of ornamental trees on the Main street from the Town Hall to the Court House. During the summer the Institute purchased a large quantity of wool, had it carded and in September held a Spinning Frolic in the Town Hall at which supper was served to the public the proceeds of which were sufficient to pay for the wool. Some of this yarn has already been knit into socks and forwarded to the boys of the town on Military Service. The Institute has petitioned the Councillor to assist in the proper lighting of the town but as yet no move has been made in that direction.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN NOTRE DAME

MONTREAL, Oct. 31—"Our fallen ones enrolled themselves valiantly to fight for a great cause that of civilization of right and of humanity. They immortalized themselves and in doing so, they immortalized Canada. In this fight Quebec has done and is doing its share. I have too great belief in the God of Justice and of right, to permit me to believe for a moment that our enemies shall ever triumph."

So said His Grave, Archbishop Brichesi, addressing the thousands of officers, soldiers and civilians, who crowded Notre Dame Church, to take part in the solemn Requiem Mass, for Canada's dead, for those who have made the supreme sacrifice on the fields of France and Flanders and especially for the officers and men of hte 22nd Battalion.

Perhaps never in its history has Notre Dame wittnessed such a gathering. The whole nave of the church was needed to accommodate detachments of every local regiment, whilst special places in front of the Sanctuary rail had been reserved for Lieutenant General Sir Sam Hughes and his aides, representatives of the Federal Provincial and municipal Government, representatives of Bench and Bas and delegates from the Chambre of Commerce and the Board of Trde.

The Mass had been arranged for by returned officers of the gallant 22nd French Canadian regiment and was destined to commemorate the gloricus deeds of that famous unit, which has, like the original Princess Patricias, been well nigh completely wiped out. As His Grace, at the conclusion of the Mass, encounterd the bravery and self-sacrifice of the French-Canadian boys who had gone to the fields of Flanders to fight for their dear ones at home, many an eye was dimmed with tears. To many the words of His Grace had particular significance, as many were the fathers and mothers or other relatives of those who had fallen on the Field of Honor. For these latter special places had been reserved, as well as for a couple of hundred soldiers, who have returned wounded and are now being treated in local convalescent homes.

His Grace the Archbishop officiated in person at the solemn pontifical High Mass, assisted by the Rev. Father Deschamos as assistant priest, Father Belanger and Dubuc, as assistant deacons Father Bouhier, P. S. S. as Deacon and Father Brodeur as sub-deacon. The Mass was fully choral.

The church was draped in deepest mourning, the immense catafalque, used only on state occasions, being draped probably for the first time in its history, in the Union Jack. A Guard of Honor, composed of officers from various units was stationed about the catafalque. At the solemn moment of Consecration, the vast edifice resounded to the Salute played by a bugler of the 178th whilst at the conclusion of the ceremony, as the officants were proceeding down the centre aisle on their way to the vestry, the Last Post was impressively sounded. As te military marced out of the Church, Choplin's Dead March was rendered, General Sir Sam Hughes, his staff and members of the local headquarters staff, accompanied by Father Rene Labelle, parish priest of Notre Dame, proceeded through the Sanctuary and were introduced to His Grace the Archbishop Gen. Hughes and Mgr. Bruchesi, were long engaged in conversation whilst members of General Hughes' staff were received by His Grace and other members of the clergy present.

DEUTSCHLAND CARGO VALUED AT $10,000,000.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 6.—That the cargo of the German merchant submarine Deutschland now at New London, amounted to approximately $10,000,000, it was announced here by Jabes L. McGovern, collector of customs, for Connecticut. Of this sum, he said, $9,000,000 was represented by stocks, bonds and other securities shipped from Germany for the purpose of strengthening German credit in the United States. About $1,000,000 of the value of the cargo, McGovern said, consisted of dye stuffs, medicines and chemicals.

A very small proportion was represented by diamonds and other precious stones he declared.
