Malpeque United Church

Malpeque United Church services were of a special nature on Sunday last. The beautiful sunshine brought large congregations to this historical old edifice. Rev. J. M. Murchison (previous pastor of this charge) representing the British and Foreign Society, occupied the pulpit at morning service. Choosing the text I was in the Isle called Patmos. John was passing through strenuous days; but John was of optimistic spirit; so we are passing through strenuous days, but we must repent and turn to God. Uphold God's name. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. God is our refuge and strength, and a very present help in trouble. Referring to the good work done by the Bible Society, stating the British and Foreign Society originated in the Napoleon age. Despite wars, the word of God is shipped to all parts of the world. Mr. Murchison sang very feelingly the Scotch solo "My Ain Countrie."

The Anthem Bow Down Thine Ear, by Emmerson was effectively sung by the Choir. Hymns used were, Our Blest Redeemer, Jesus Lover of my Soul, and How Sweet the Name. National Anthem. The evening service was special, a number from a distance were present, and a large congregation. Rev. Mr. Watson was guest speaker, whose theme was, I Am Christ and Christ in me. The synopsis was:—If ye ask anything in my name I will do it, by prayer, prayer for your family; for Christ the spirit directs those moments of prayer. Get the world out of our ears, and give God time to answer our prayers. If I abide in you, ye shall bear much fruit.

Messrs. Bowness and Huestis, of Summerside were heard acceptably in duet, Beautiful Isle of Somewhere; also Mr. Huestis sang the fine solo, Only Shadows. The Male Choir occupied the Choir loft, and sang the anthem, Praise, Him, Praise Him. Mrs. A. J. Matheson, President of P. E. Island Presbyterial was introduced by Mrs. C. J. Crowdis. Mrs. Matheson gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Women's Missionary Society; the theme being Christian Stewardship, viz—time, talent and prayer; use talent such as gift of song or leadership. The power of prayer to sooth the ruffled spirit. Each given talent can work with God's goodness. Christian work stumbles for want of missionary giving. Lack of Christ's love in the field of labor, with finale Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. Messrs. Bowness and Huestis were heard in the beautiful duet, "In Jesus." Mr. Bowness also sang the solo "I'll go where you want me to go," very effectively. The music was in charge of the organist, Mrs. Simpson. Hymns used were, Glory be to God, O Love That Will, and From Greenland's. The National Anthem concluded the service.

We know at times we seem very ungrateful and may not have attained the high standard you wished for us, but as you begin your holidays we hope that you will forget the cloudy and remember only the bright and happy days we've had together.

Kindly accept this little gift in token of our esteem for you, and as you take up your duties another year may your efforts be crowned with success and we hope you have a delightful holiday.

Signed on behalf of the pupils of Mt. Albion School.
