The Eastern Guardian

*IT PAYS to buy in this Province. *MR. HAROLD P. GORDON is the Georgetown Guardian representative.

*WOMEN HELPERS—Young ladies are rapidly taking the places of the sterner sex as they leave for military duty. The writer notices that Mr. Hood, who has been for some years teller in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has had his place filled by Miss Adell Garret, Miss Margeret Morrow taking her place at the ledger.—C.

*A HAUNTED HOUSE—Considerable interest has been taken in the rumour that a disembodied spirit has been seen in and around a certain dwelling in Souris. Of course most people are rather skeptical as to the accuracy of the report, but so strong an impression was made on the late occupant that he removed elsewhere and left the ghost in undisputed possession.—C.

*PETERS ROAD ITEMS—Miss Alexina MacLennan of Peters Road is spending her vacation with her friend Mrs. Gratto of Sturgeon.—Miss Florence Renton is home from visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reynolds of Murray Harbour North.—His friends regret to learn that the esteemed merchant Mr. Geo. Munn is about retiring from a long and successful business career, having sold his stock and good-will to Mr. J. T. McKinnon. May Mr. Munn long live to enjoy the fruits of his labour.—Mrs. J. L. McDonald has retired from a two months visit to Worcester, Mass. where she was the guest of Mrs. Phil. Buxton. Miss Sadie Carver clerk with J. L. McKinnon & Son has returned to her duties after spending a well earned vacation in Alma.—Miss Hazel McLean has been confined to her room for two weeks and her many friends join in wishing her speedy recovery.—The Red Cross work of this locality are not idle if one may judge by the number of socks.—Mr. Harry Johnston, returned soldier has returned from Halifax after having his wounds attended to, and receiving his discharge.—A number of the farmers are very disappointed at the slump in the potato price. They imagine that there is a tear even in their eyes of busy engaged in hauling his large residence.—Mr. Jos. Jenkins is the moving contractor.—The fishermen are busily engaged in getting out their traps.—At a meeting held in Cambridge Hall it was agreed between them not to run any lines or put out traps till some date between the 8th and 10th of May, such date to be set at a later meeting.

EAST-RN PERSONALS

*Mr. George McQuaid of J. J. Hughes & Co., left for Charlottetown this week to join the colors.—C.

*Mr. Hunter of Matthew & McLean has been called to hold himself in readiness to go on active military service.—C.

*The friends regret that Mrs. Bernard Creamer, Souris, had to be removed to the Charlottetown Hospital, being attacked with a sudden rather serious illness. An operation abroad may be necessary.—C.

*Mrs. Henry Dingwell, who lately lost her husband and who for some years conducted a hotel business in Charlottetown has opened a hotel in Souris in the building formerly occupied by Mrs. Roach. With extensive premises and an energetic hostess the writer prophesies her a successful business.—C.

Poultry Feeds

A writer in the New York Sun tells us that there are many things about hens a great many of us would like to know. He asks:

"Why are eggs cheap when my hens are laying and high when they are not laying?" "Why are hens cheap when I sell them, and high and tough when I buy?"

After referring his questions to Mr. Hoover or to a graduate of some good reliable chicken college, he adds:

"Why is a hen, anyway? A rooster is a very simpleminded individual and after you have shaken hands with him two or three times he will speak to you anywhere he meets you, whether you are dressed up or not. But a hen—good night! You can't even approach her without getting a scolding, and when she does lay an egg even once a week she will hide the egg if she can, and then come out in the open and yell her head off just because she has laid something she knows you want and hopes you will never find."

However the hens bring the eggs, the eggs bring the dollars. Just received: 60,000 LBS. MIXED GRAIN. (Wheat, Barley and Oats) all sound, clean grain, $4.00 per bag of 100 lbs. FIVE TONS CHICK FEED for young chickens

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz". It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz". It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.
