

Disaster Toll on The Great Lakes

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 23.—Ninety-three deaths and a loss to shipping of from $6,000,000 to $8,000,000 is the disaster toll of the 1918 shipping season on the Great Lakes, according to figures compiled here.

Four vessels were sunk in collisions, five foundered in storms, and the Congo, one of the largest new ships on the lakes, went to pieces on Canoe Rocks, near Passage Island, Lake Superior, with its cargo of grain, involving a loss of $1,500,000.

The two French mine sweepers, Cerisiers and Inkerman, ocean bound from Fort William, Ont., became separated from their fleet and disappeared like shadow craft, with an estimate loss of $2,000,000.
