Miss Margaret Gillis left to resume her duties as teacher in Harmony School Prince Co. after visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Gillis, at Eldon.

Mr. William Hamm, Bunsbury, has returned home from the P. E. island Hospital after a very successful highly of the care received from Dr. Seaman and also of his special nurse, Mrs. MacNaughton, the Superintendent and nurses of the hospital.

Mr. Smith officiating. The pall bearers were: John T. Ferguson, Wm. Godfrey, Robert Stewart, Wm. Jackson, Peter Robinson and George Snegrove.

MATTHEW ROLAND WOOD. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to M. W. and Mrs. Wood, Highland Farm, in the loss of their infant son, Matthew Roland aged two months and 25 days, who passed peacefully away Sept. 29th, after an illness of only three hours in inward convulsions.

The family doctor was called and despite every possible care and tender nursing the little spirit took its flight to him who gave it.

There are left to mourn besides the father and mother, two sisters, namely Lisle and Helen both at home. The sympathy and respect of all was manifested by the immense throng of people who gathered at the house of mourning, and by the very large funeral cortege which followed the remains to the cemetery at Hazelbrook. The hearse drawn by a span of white horses draped in white bore the form of the little departed one and where all that was mortal of dear little Rolfe who was loved so well, was tenderly laid to rest in the family plot, there to await the dawn of the glorious resurrection morn.

The funeral service was conducted by pastor Rev. R. W. Lindsay, which was very impressive, the Hazelbrook choir rendered sweetly, When He Cometh, and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

Present. The family. Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Wood and family, Mrs. William Wood, East Royalty, Sprays, Mrs. Ellie Stewart and family, City, Mr. Gold's Dennis,

Beaman did half the legal business of New York, and received about half the money spent in litigation. Once Edward Lauterbach was associated with the firm as counsel and later on discussed with Choate the fee to be charged his client. He mentioned what he considered a large sum, but Choate promptly laughed it. Lauterbach stared at him, with his eyes bulging. Then he gasped, "Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian."

They keep the child in a constant state of unrest and, if not attended to, endanger life. The child can be spared much suffering and the mother much anxiety by using a reliable worm remedy, such as Miller's Worm Powders, which are sure death to worms.
