Tortured with Pain.

Too Weak to Work.

ULCERS, BOILS AND PIMPLES ALL OVER HER BODY

Such was the condition of Mrs. Samuel Deitz, Zurich, Ont.

She happily found relief from her terrible suffering by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

A remedy without a rival for the cure of all diseases and troubles arising from bad blood. A record extending over a quarter of a century and thousands of testimonials will prove this. Mrs. Deitz writes: "Too weak to work, tortured with the pain of ulcers, boils and pimples all over my body, especially on my face. I had almost made up my mind to give up trying to have them cured. I was ashamed to have any person come to see me, my face was in such a terrible state. I tried everything I could think of but got worse and worse. I was then led to try Burdock Blood Bitters and was surprised at the wonderful change the first bottle made. Altogether I took seven bottles and am now completely cured and am in perfect health again. I feel that B. B. B. saved my life."

GIRLS WITH SMALL INCOMES

They Must Select Their Costumes With Great Care.

The girl with a small income must choose her costumes with care, but if she does this she will often find herself better dressed than her sister whose larger means sometimes make her purchase things without due reflection.

Always remember that it is better to have one good costume than three indifferent ones. Study the styles carefully, and choose what you find best suited for you.

With one walking costume of mixed goods and a dressy tailor made for visiting, a girl will find herself well dressed for the street. The walking costume may be made of black flecked with white, of navy blue or of brown, the skirt kilted just to clear the ground and the jacket three-quarter length.

GRAY CLOTH COAT.

The gloves and petticoat should match the costume with which they are worn.

A turban shape is pretty to go with the walking costume, and it may be trimmed with shaded cock's plumage.

The illustration shows a useful gray, cloth coat having a tinted lace collar. It is trimmed with mouton fur.

JUDIC CHOLET.

WHAT IS WORN.

Colors and Fashion Adopted by Well Gowned Women.

Bright blues are very smart for afternoon gowns, made with the hat to match. Browns and grays are to be met with on all sides, and quite a bit of lavender and purple is also popular. Coarse laces are dyed to match blue and brown chiffons, and the effect of a gown of this description is very smart.

The real old fashioned Marie Antoinette belts are being revived, and these are boned in a dozen places so that they will be sure to retain the shape of the figure.

The new skirts are fuller than ever, and they are much better made unlined and simply worn over a slip or a well fitting underskirt.

Petticoats are becoming more voluminous, and they have more ruffles than ever in order to hold out the full skirts. These new petticoats require as much skill in cutting as an outside skirt.

Ecru lace is used in a variety of ways for gowns, waists and even negligees. In the picture you will see a negligee of this ecru lace trimmed with dainty narrow velvet beadings.

Paint is to a Building

what clothing is to the body. It is just as important. You should take as much care in selecting the paint to clothe your property, as you do in selecting the material to clothe your person. Paint preserves the building. Paint gives beauty to the building. In painting the labor costs more than the paint. There will be a large waste if the right paint is not used.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS

is made for painting buildings. It is not a low-priced paint, but it is cheap because the best. It is made of the purest materials—that wear the longest. The colors are bright and handsome.
