—EXTRACT FROM THE HALIFAX PAPERS — Among the four hundred teachers attending the five weeks Summer School at Dalhousie University was Miss Mildred Harrington of the Mount School, Charlottetown. Her instructors quickly recognized her native teaching ability as she alone was chosen to demonstrate several original ideas in teaching. In Social Studies she showed a method of teaching Geography by means of large outline maps with numbers representing places, products, etc. This device met with the hearty approval of both instructors and teachers. In the Correct English Class she explained a project in formal Grammar concluding with a "parts of speech game" which she illustrated by having the instructor and teachers take the parts of Grade Six children. This original project was so well received that the instructor, Miss Rosamond Archibald asked Miss Harrington's permission to include this project in the former's latest edition of New King's English Drill" which is now in the hands of the publishers and which is being used by the Nova Scotia teachers.

—GIVEN BRIDAL GIFT — Mr. and Mrs. Earle Campbell, Graham's Road, were waited upon on Thursday evening at Mr. Campbell's former home at Burlington, by their friends of Burlington, Irishtown and vicinity. The event was in recognition of their recent marriage, as well as a farewell party for Earle, who is now making his home at Graham's Road and will be greatly missed in the community, where he was born and grew to manhood. Having taken a course in blacksmithing last winter, conditions appeared more favorable elsewhere, hence the change of residence. During the evening, an address was read by Mr. Layton Profitt, and an upholstered rocking chair was presented to the bride and groom by Messrs. Clair Campbell and George MacLeod. Mr. Archie Johnstone acted as chairman, and the bridal couple were escorted to suitably placed chairs, by Mrs. Clayton Stavert and Mr. LeRoy Campbell. Individual gifts were presented by Mrs. Charles Cole and Miss Irene Paynter. Earle thanked their friends, on behalf of Mary and himself, and extended an invitation to visit their new home. After singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows", the boys thought it only fitting to bounce the groom. Instrumental music was a pleasing feature of the evening. Those performing were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bernard, Miss Laura McKay, Mrs. Borden Campbell, Mrs. George MacLeod, and Miss Joyce Campbell, a 13-year-old who is sure handy with the violin. A delicious lunch was served. Those assisting Mr. Campbell's mother, Mrs. A. H. Campbell, were Mrs. Borden Campbell, Mrs. Clayton Stavert, Mrs. Robert Stavert, Mrs. James Evans, and Mrs. Halsey Profitt. Bur.

—VISITING IN AMHERST — Miss Georgie Stewart left on Friday after spending several weeks at her home at Norboro, for Amherst, N.S., where she will join her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baty and little son Brian. The party will motor by way of the States, to Hamilton, Ont. Miss Stewart will return to her position in Toronto.—Bur.

—LOST BARN BY FIRE — Lightning struck a barn on the farm of Leigh Cole, Spring Brook, in the New London district, on Sunday morning. In a matter of minutes it was a mass of flame and burned to the ground with all its contents. The hay crop, poultry, hogs, binder, mower, harness and many small articles were burned, bringing the loss to several thousand dollars. There is said to be very little insurance. The loss is serious to the owner who is a young man, only recently settled on the farm.—Bur.

—FINGERLINGS PLACED — Eighteen thousand fingerlings were placed in trout streams in Western Prince County yesterday by officials of the Federal Department of Fisheries, it was learned from Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, parliamentary assistant to the Minister of Fisheries. The restocking of trout streams is being carried out generally this time of year, a season when the kingfisher, a serious enemy of young trout are not so active. The fingerlings are taken from the rearing pond at Cardigan which is operated by the Department of Fisheries.

Personals

—The condition of Mrs. William Campbell, who became ill last week at her home at Kensington remains much the same.—Bur.

—The condition of Mrs. Alden Moase, who is a patient in the Prince County Hospital continues much the same.—Bur.

—Friends regret that Mrs. Mary Simmons is ill with an attack of "flu" at her home at Burlington and will wish her an early recovery.—Bur.

His many friends are sorry to learn that Mr. Halsey Profitt is again indisposed at his home at Burlington and hope for an early return to better health.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

We hereby nominate Les Gaudet as "Third Baseman of the Year". Doubting Thomases look below:

	PO	A	E	TC	Pct
Gaudet, Red Sox	11	13	2	26	923
Landry, Kinsmen	10	9	2	21	905
Anderson, R.C.A.F.	14	7	3	24	875

Thorson, Allen, H. Gallant, G. Bernard and Underwood all played third base for the Legion, but none of them accepted enough chances to get a standing.

We have given you the .300 hitters of the Summerside Baseball League. Now we give you the "middle class" hitters:

	AB	R	H	Pct
Carson, R.C.A.F.	44	11	13	295
Phaneuf, Red Sox	44	10	13	295
Pope, Kinsmen	50	5	14	280
Allen, Legion	40	10	11	275
Brawley, R.C.A.F.	50	12	13	260
G. Gay, Kinsmen	48	9	12	250
T. Landry, Kinsmen	41	4	10	244
Greig, R.C.A.F.	29	2	7	241
Foy, R.C.A.F.	34	8	8	235
Bourque, RC.A.F.	35	4	8	229
H. Gallant, Legion	44	11	10	227

There you have the .200 hitters who have played 60 per cent of the games.

The four teams of the Summerside League have been as evenly matched and the standing has been as close throughout the season as any fan could hope for. From the day on which Herb Schurman, league prexy, threw the first ball (we hope we're not being stubborn about this, but fully two feet wide of the plate, folks) the struggle has been nip-and-tuck all the way. Every team except the R.C.A.F. took a turn at heading the parade and the airmen were very, very close. Of course, we realize the standing can be close and yet the games, or most of the games, might be anything but close. Eighteen of the thirty games ended with the teams separated by two or less runs. Four of the remaining twelve saw the contesting teams three runs apart, at the finish, and there were two 4 to 0 encounters that seemed closely fought all the way. This leaves six games only in which one team ran away with the show.

Jimmie Hogan, one of our umpires, has asked us to put certain protesting players clear on one of the rules. Jimmie has a little book which clears up disputed points in the rules. It is in the form of questions and answers. Somebody wanted to know if a ground ball hit outside the line between first and home, or a fly ball dropped outside, and in each case the ball rolled inside the line, would the ball be fair or foul. The answer is that it would be a fair ball. Of course the same thing would apply between home and third. The dispute just happened to be concerned with the line going to first base.

Strange, the "rules" that govern the game in some sections, but cannot be found in the rule books. Here are a few we have met: (1) In overrunning first base, if you turn left you can be put out returning to the sack. (2) A ball which is batted and hits the home plate is dead. (3) The one Jimmie has called attention to above. (4) Quick return pitch by the moundman to catch the batter off guard. (5) If the batter hits the ball, and the ball hits him, he is out.

There are others which we can't recall just now. Sometimes the reason for the error is that the rule was at one time in the rule books, but has been changed. No. 1 is an example. Some thirty or thirty-five years ago that one was in the rule book. The quick return pitch also, we think. We remember a pitcher in Sydney, N.S. some thirty years ago who fooled many batters with the quick return. His name was Buchanan and he'd wheel and pitch the instant he received the ball from the catcher. It was uncanny how many strikes he pitched that way too.

Here is a "rule" that we have seen followed here, but can't find any confirmation for in the official playing rules. They tell us if a foul ball is hit and the batter stays in his box the runner returning to a base is liable to be tagged out. We have looked in vain for something covering this. All our book says is: "The runner cannot be put out while returning." (This is part of the interpretation, not the rule) Perhaps someone will be kind enough to help us out on this one.

Red Sox Win From R.C.A.F. To Enter Finals In Summerside League

Les Gaudet, Red Sox third baseman pressed into service on the mound because of a temporary shortage of flingers, won his second straight game of the semi-final series between the Sox and the R.C.A.F., and the Airmen went down to an ignominious 15 to 0 defeat. Gaudet allowed the Flyers only two bingles, one an infield hit through the box. The Red Hose hit Mickus hard and the Airmen turned in their worst fielding exhibition of the season, getting a total of eight errors.

14-year-old Paul Schurman was the batting hero of the Red Sox barrags, getting four hits in five trips.

His big brother, Bob, was next in line with three for four, and Landry and Gaudet, the other members of the first four in the batting order, each got two for five.

The Sox got four runs in the first frame on three hits and three R.C.A.F. errors. They added a brace in the third. Bob Schurman hit a double to centre field. Phillips was safe when Mickus threw wild to first, and Walper drove both runners in with his bingle. A. Landry singled, but Walper was out at the plate when Toy relayed Phaneuf's ground ball to Greig.

The Sox got six more in the fifth; with two out the heavy artillery of the winners shelled Mickus from the mound and Toy replaced him, pitching to Walper who got to first on one of the many errors of the evening but was out stealing second to end the inning. Greig's throwing to the keystone sack was good. Paul Schurman also getting nipped going to second in the sixth after driving in Grant and Landry for two more counters. Landry had previously driven home Phaneuf, who had walked.

The Red Sox will now enter the finals against the winners of the Legion and Kinsmen series.
