QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The mail train arrived last night at 9.00. The Northumberland arrived last night at 8.45.

Thomas Hayes, a St. John, N. B., horse buyer is in town. Wm. Pigot came to the City yesterday morning from St. Stewart.

Lorenzo T. Ramsay has returned to Charlottetown after a visit to Halifax. R. v. O. H. and Mrs. Craze of West Il. spent yesterday in Charlottetown.

William Lewis, Charlottetown, registered at the Grand Union. St. John, yesterday. Miss Carrie Haslam returned to the City last night from Montreal where she spent the past six weeks.

B. A. Romans and wife, Toronto; and P. H. Fryer and wife, Moncton, are registered at the Victoria. Eleanor Hickey, a sister of the late Mrs. J. J. McInnis, is visiting in this City, the guest of Mrs. Soy.

Miss Emily McCallum, daughter of the late Stephen McCallum, Harrington, has graduated with honors from Lincoln Park Hospital, Chicago.

Mr. Tapper has returned to the City from French fort. His sister, who is seriously ill in Halifax is said to be rapidly declining according to latest news.

The regrettable illness of W. W. Wellner is the subject of much sympathetic comment among his many friends. The Guardian is sorry to announce that he is considered to be seriously ill.

The Benoit property on Water Street, was put up at auction yesterday but did not sell. $1531 was offered for the wood and brick portions taken together and $1200 for the wooden portion alone.

Mrs. J. McAlpine and J. J. Dunphy and wife, Amherst; R. P. Webster, San Francisco; Mrs. M. Vandierstine, Brookline, Mass.; Mrs. S. McFarlane, M. J. McAlpine, Sussex, N. B., were among the arrivals in the City last night.

A Charlottetown lady the other day cashed a check for $125.05, at one of the banks. On her arrival home on looking in her satchel where she thought she had put the money she was surprised to find only the sixty five cents in change. The notes must have been dropped when she thought she had put them away. Subsequently two twenty dollar notes were returned by parties who found them.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 132-2. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application, 1 ss postage if sent by mail, if they do not get what they want.

The death occurred at Amherst last Friday evening of Esther, beloved wife of John J. McInnis aged 23, at her home on Crescent Ave., after a painful illness of two months. The deceased was the daughter of James J. Hickey, an employee in the wood turning shop of Rhodes Curry Co., of that town. The death was especially sad from the fact that she had been married only one year. She is survived by her husband, father, and two sisters, Mrs. Lorne Taylor, and Eleanor at home, James Hickey, jr., who died very suddenly at Fredricton, (N. B.) only six weeks ago was a brother of the deceased.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from 10th from St. Charles, (R. C.) Church. The Ladies Auxiliary attended in a body and profusely decorated the casket with flowers. Mr. McInnis has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in his bereavement, both in Amherst and Charlottetown to which city he formerly belonged.

The following further reports of annual school meetings in Queen's County have been received: At Pleasant Valley, the present teacher, Miss Eliza Elliot has been retained for another year. Mid-summer recreation was granted.—At North Rustico the supplement was increased by $5, and an amount voted for a new school house.—At Belle River, the supplement is $32; expenses $15. The teacher Miss McGregor has been re-engaged.—At Dunstaffnage the trustees are the same as last year. Supplement $25, an increase of $5, expense $30. The teacher Miss McFadyen has been re-engaged.—At Orwell the supplement is $15, one dollar less than last year.—At Southport school Daniel Stewart the trustee was re-elected, supplement $50, contingent expenses $37, repairs $600, new fence $2. Allison Campbell, teacher, resigned.—At Union Road, Lot 38, the supplement voted was $20, a decrease of $10, ranging expenses, $40, no change.—At Mount Stewart the supplement is $40, expenses $35, no change. The trustees are: Dr. Toombs, A. J. Grant and J. D. Coffin. In Mt. Stewart South $15 was voted for supplement.—At Pownal the supplement is $50, expenses $100, mid-summer vacation. Teacher C. B. Jones, re-engaged. Albert Jenkins re-elected trustee, Frederick Paught, and W. E. Smith, are the two others.

The Isl nd Sheep Dip is sure death to all insect life. It is equal to any preparation of its kind on the market. Prepared and sold at the Central Dispensary. Only 25 cents per bottle. A. W. R. ddn Phem-B-Sunnyside.

Peroy Gunn has returned to Moncton, N. B. from Prince Edward Island. W. S. McKie, Charlottetown, registered at the Dufferin, St. John, yesterday.

In future all classified and other advertising, verbal replies to which are to come to this office, will be charged at double rate. F. L. Yorke, of the Bank of Commerce of this City leaves this morning for Bridgewater, N. S., to which place he has been transferred.

Rev. W. H. Harding who was announced to preach in the Christian Church in this City next Sunday, writes that owing to the illness of his wife he will not visit Prince Edward Island this year, as was intimated in yesterday's Guardian.

Advertisers are asked to have changes in not later than ten a. m. each Saturday for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The business, and news departments are open as on other days.

The work recently done on Prince Street by the City workmen have made that section one of the handsomest in the City. The immense superiority of the concrete over the old plank sidewalk is admitted without question as soon as seen.

There will be a turnout of Nos. 1 and 2 Companies of the Fourth Regiment C. A. with the regimental Band, in Victoria Park this evening at 7.30 o'clock. The regiment will go through battalion drill. The men will wear the naval pattern caps with which they recently have been equipped.

Correspondents should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be put down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get anything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

The battle flag is furled in the vicinity of Connelly's Wharf, where last Monday night the redoubtable crew of the Sea Skipper were put to flight by an equally redoubtable balliff. The schooner, still lies forsaken and alone—rising and falling with the tide, as it ebbs and flows over the shore in full view of the Park Roadway. The crew has dispersed, nor seek for more adventures of that kind. The parties who suffered defeat on Monday night, yesterday through the subtle processes of the law won out and ousted the enemy who had taken charge of the property on the wharf. Although the dogs of war are now quiet there is no telling yet how the case may end, or whether the Sea Skipper and her doughty crew will again be called upon.

The Annual meeting of the National Council of Women of Canada convenes on the 15th July at Vancouver. Arrangements have been made by which delegates may go for one fare, the ticket being good till 15th Sept. On the return journey delegates have the privilege of choosing from a variety of routes. These tickets must be purchased on the day of departure and will be validated at the western destination by the Agent, for which a small fee will be charged by the railway. Those desiring to go by boat from Owen Sound or Sarnia to Fort William could do so at an additional charge in either direction. Any intending to take advantage of this excursion party must leave Charlottetown on 1st July to meet the delegates leaving Toronto on the 3rd July. Hospitality will be provided by the Vancouver Council to the elected delegates and lists of desirable boarding houses for others will be available. This is an exceptional chance to visit the west, and anyone desiring to take advantage may obtain further particulars by applying to the officers of the Local Council of Charlottetown.
