Vary Rev. Dr. Kelley, President of the United States Extension Society was down at LaPeer, Mich., his old parish, last week, where, largely through his munificence they were burning a large and forbidding mortgage on the beautiful church, and a quantity of incense under his patriarchal nose. The love feast was very real, for the Doctor loved LaPeer and sacrificed himself for it, and LaPece seems to reciprocate as it should do. —Catholic Register. Dr. Kelley is a native of Charlottetown.

THE TEA PENALTY

A Strong Man's Experiences.

Writing from a busy railroad tower the wife of an employee of one of the great roads says:—

"My husband is a railroad man who has been so much benefited by the use of Postum that he wishes me to express his thanks to you for the good it has done him. His waking hours are taken up with his work, and he has not time to write himself."

"He has been a great tea drinker all his life, and has always liked it strong."

"Tea has, of late years, acted on him like morphine does upon most people. At first it soothed him, but only for an hour or so, then it began to affect his nerves, to such an extent that he could not sleep at night, and he would go to his work in the morning wretched and miserable from the loss of rest. This condition grew constantly worse, until his friends persuaded him to quit tea and use Postum."

"At first he used Postum only for breakfast, but as he liked the taste of it, and it somehow seemed to do him good, he added it to his evening meal. Then, as he grew better, he began to drink it for his noon meal, and now he will drink nothing else at table."

"His condition is so wonderfully improved that he could not be hired to give up Postum and go back to tea. His nerves have become steady and reliable once more, and his sleep is easy, natural and refreshing."

"He owes all this to Postum for he has taken no medicine and made no other change in his diet."

"His brother who was very nervous from coffee drinking, was persuaded by us to give up the coffee and use Postum and he also has recovered his health and strength." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

Advertising Talks—

A Few Facts About Good Copy

Copy or the text is the most important factor in the pulling power of an advertisement. It is the merchant's message to prospective patrons and should be as sincere, truthful, clear and convincing as he can make it.

And that is just where many merchant advertisers stumble. They are so familiar with their goods that they look at their stock with a prejudiced eye and cannot write a talk that is free from technicalities and slight exaggerations.

We make a scientific study of markets, merchandise and the buying public and write your copy so that it possesses over 20 p. c. pulling power. The very fact that you have read this ad proves our statements correct.

More Money for the Small Dealers

The big man isn't big in spite of the telephone—it's because of it, to a certain extent.

If you're satisfied with the profits your great-grandfather made, if you just want to eke out a bare existence from your business, if more business don't look good to you—well, a phone will be just in the way—a bothersome ornament.

But, mark it down plain, if you want more business, a larger and better class of customers, straight tips on all the markets, the most profitable of inside information and the respect of your customers and envy of your competitors—in short if you want success—you'll see what we can do for you, and you won't waste time over it either.

The phone will bring you business—it will prove its worth in better returns, in actual additional cash in your till.

Let Contract Dept. prove these facts to you.

Say "Tillson's" when you buy Rolled Oats

DON'T simply ask for "rolled oats." That is only a term indicating the process of rolling oat grains flat.

In ordinary rolled oats some of the flakes are thicker than others. They can't cook evenly.

Look at a handful of Tillson's Rolled Oats. Every flake is as thin as it can be rolled without breaking, and all the flakes are the same in size and thinness. That means not only quick cooking, but also even cooking.

Tillson's Rolled Oats make porridge that looks good and tastes good. And they are perfectly digestible after cooking but 15 minutes—no more.

Try a dish of porridge made from Tillson's Rolled Oats tomorrow.
