YOU TAKE NO RISK

Our Reputation and Money is Back of This Offer.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obliged to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. Could anything be more fair for you? If there any reason why you should hesitate to put our claims to actual test?

The most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. They are very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

We urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—the Rexall Store, The McKinnon Drug Co.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province. WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage took place at Watermark, January 7th, by the Rev. D. MacLeod, of Malcolm MacLeod, Caledonia, to Miss Ethel, only daughter of Wm. H. Alchorn, Charlottetown. The bride was attended by Miss Jessie Livingstone and H. Alchorn assisted the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony they returned to the home of the bride where a few of the intimate friends had assembled. A happy evening was spent, and all left wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod a happy and prosperous journey through life.

SKATERS.—There will be hand at the Arena tonight. 15c admission.

THE EARL GREY.—The Earl Grey arrived in Charlottetown from Pictou at 1.50 p. m. yesterday.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.—People wishing to save money should pay their electric light bill today and receive the discount.

HOCKEY.—In the hockey game at Halifax on Tuesday evening between the Socials and Cubs of New Glasgow Arnold Rattenbury of Charlottetown replaced Chester Gregory in the second period as Gregory did not appear to be in the best condition. The Halifax Chronicle speaks of him as follows:—This player is a hustler, but weak in front of goal.

CORRESPONDENTS.—A number of British people have made enquiries to the Publicity Agent J. E. B. McCready asking for the names of persons to correspond with as will be seen by the ad. elsewhere. It should prove interesting work for the young people of this Province to write to friends thus formed and while being a pleasant and instructive recreation would do much to advertise this Province in the Old Country.

SOCIETY WEDDING.—On December 27, at 3 p. m., at the residence of Henry S. and Mrs. Dickenson, 607 Sherbourne street, Edmonton, Alta., the marriage took place of their only daughter Mae Ethel, to Rev. Dr. A. J. William Myers, son of Charles and Mrs. Myers, Lake Verde. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. C. Robinson, B. D. assisted by Rev. Dr. R. N. Burns. The bride entered the drawing room escorted by her father, and wore a very graceful gown of white charmeuse and Bohemian lace with pearls. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses and lilies. The bride's attendants were Miss Maud Mackenzie, of Woodstock, and Miss Bileida Dickinson of New York, the former groomed in pale yellow satin, and the latter in blue. They wore large tulle hats and carried bouquets of yellow roses. Prof. A. S. Morton, of Knox College, was best man, and Charles F. Hamlyn of Woodstock, was also in attendance. Two little ribbon bearers, Miss Constance Jacob, and Miss Dimples McArae, wore dainty white frocks with pale yellow and pale blue sashes. Just before the ceremony, "The Crown" was sung by Miss Isabel Wray, and Donald Agnew played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, on the "cello," accompanied by Dr. T. A. Davis. After a buffet luncheon the couple left on the five o'clock train for points west, the bride wearing peacock blue and black velours with hat to match, and ermine and mole furs. Upon their return they will reside in Nanton Court Rosedale.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The annual examination of De Sable School took place on Thursday, January 2nd, and was attended by a large number of the ratepayers, including trustees and parents. The school room was nicely decorated for the occasion and this together with the bright and happy faces of the children made a very pleasing picture. The scholars were examined by Colin McNevin, who formerly taught school, now attending P. W. College, and by their prompt answers did credit alike to themselves and to their teacher Miss Carrie M. Coyle. After the examination a program consisting of recitations, dialogues, songs and choruses was carried out by the pupils in a very pleasing manner. Hector McKay, one of the trustees, acted as chairman. Then followed complimentary speeches by trustees and ratepayers upon the manner in which the children had acquitted themselves. The pupils were then treated to candy and apples kindly provided by the parents after which the proceedings were closed by singing the National Anthem. The people of De Sable have always taken a lively interest in education, and this was amply evidenced by the large number who attended the examination. They have a commodious, well ventilated school, large and spacious playgrounds, and the school room is well equipped with everything needful for the effective carrying on of school work. The following is the prize list and standing of pupils in each class: Fourth Class—1, Margaret McNevin; 2, Walter McFarlane. Third Class (senior)—1, Russell McFarlane; 2, Lawson McNevin. Third Class (junior)—1, Christine McPhail; 2, Lillabelle McNeill; 3, Aubrey McPhail and Clifton Ince equal; 4, Ivan McKinnon and Keith Inman equal. Second Class (senior)—1, Stewart McFarlane; 2, Howard Ince. Second Class (junior)—1, Gracie McNevin; 2, Grainger McPhail. First Class (senior)—1, Myron Shaw. First Class (junior)—1, Colin McPhail, Blair McPhail; Beatrice McKay, Irma Inman, Ruth McFarlane, Evelyn Shaw and Archie Shaw.

QUIET EVENT.—A very quiet wedding was celebrated at the First Presbyterian Church, Boston, on the 18th of December, when Rev. Dr. Putts united in matrimony John B. Bradbury of England, now of Boston, and Miss Catherine M. Stewart, daughter of John A. Stewart of Clyde Bank, this province. The Guardian joins with the many friends of the young people in wishing them a prosperous journey through life.

MRS. FRASER DEAD.—Mrs. Janet Clow Fraser of 108 Meridian st., East Boston, died at her home yesterday, aged 85, says a Boston exchange of Jan. 5th. About a month ago she fell down a flight of stairs and received a shock from which she never recovered. Mrs. Fraser was born in Murray Harbor, P. E. I., Feb. 19, 1827. Her parents moved to East Boston when she was very young. She was married to Charles Leonard Fraser in 1854 and helped him to conduct his apothecary store. Mrs. Fraser attended the Presbyterian Church at London and Meridian Sts. many years. She leaves two sons, John and Henry Fraser, and two daughters, Miss Catherine Fraser and Mrs. Jessie Skinner. She is also survived by two sisters who live in Canada, another sister lives in Prince Edward Island, and two brothers in the Provinces.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty home wedding took place Christmas afternoon at the residence of R. W. MacKie, 825 Fifth Avenue, Sunny-side, brother-in-law of the bride, when Miss Maymie C. Larkin, daughter of A. F. Larkin of Gleichen, was united in marriage to John C. Savage of the firm of Plunkett & Savage, of this city, says a Calgary exchange. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. McDonald, B.L., a former pastor of the family. The bride, who was most becomingly attired in a rich dress of ivory satin with pearl and lace trimmings, and wearing the traditional bridal veil was attended by her sister, Miss Belle Larkin. The groom was supported by Dr. Charles Bouck, Calgary. The bride entered the parlor which was most tastefully decorated for the occasion, leaning on the arm of her father, the wedding march, (Mendelssohn), being played by Miss Edith MacDonald. After luncheon the happy young couple left on the evening train for the coast. The bride was dressed in a tailored travelling suit of navy blue serge with black picture hat with large French plume. After spending some weeks in Vancouver, and taking part in a family reunion there, Mr. and Mrs. Savage will visit Honolulu and a number of American cities, and will spend the winter in Southern California, returning to Calgary in the spring.—Mrs. Savage is a graduate of P. W. College, Charlottetown, and will be remembered by a wide circle of friends in this city. Mr. Larkin was formerly of Tignish.

Good Tooth Brushes

When new a good tooth brush 'looks' about the same as a bad one.

The goodness appears under hard usage.

Our 25c brush can be used for six months and you will still have a good brush; the bristles do not break off or come out. If you buy one of these and it does not wear satisfactorily we will buy it back at full price.

We have some others, the best for the price anywhere—from 10c up.

Try this Too Wash
Hundreds of people prefer a wash to powder or paste for the teeth. A wash penetrates into the small crevices of the teeth that a brush, paste or powder cannot touch.
Royal Vinolia Fluid Dentifrice is a splendid wash, not only for the teeth but for the mouth and throat as it refreshes the mouth, prevents decay, destroys pathogenic germs and has a refreshing and cooling effect.
