FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Mrs. John C. Croake was held at St. Dunstan's Cathedral and R. C. cemetery yesterday morning, High Mass of Requiem being sung by Rev. Frank McQuaid. The large funeral procession and the spiritual and floral offerings bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which the late Mrs. Croake was held by citizens. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. J. Brown, R. J. Ledwell, Peter Bradley, James Keenan, J. T. McKenzie and A. Irwin.

GOLF CONVEYANCE—Mr. R. H. Sterns has kindly arranged for motor bus to leave Bank of Commerce Corner, Saturday at 3.30 for golf links, stopping only at Baptist Church. Coupon holders must be promptly on time

AN ACCIDENT.—While rounding Kent Street at the Corner of Queen yesterday afternoon a lad riding a bicycle and an automobile came into collision. The cyclist was brought down to the ground quite violently, his face being badly cut and bruised. The rim of his bicycle was also damaged. Just who was to blame it is impossible to say.

PARCELS ARRIVE SAFELY.—Word has been received from Mr. R. L. Botham announcing arrival in excellent condition of Easter parcels from the P. E. I. Artillery Auxiliary for the Second Canadian Heavy Battery. The boys are loud in their praises of the tasty contents of the parcels and the kindly thoughtfulness of the Ladies of the Auxiliary in so tangibly remembering their Battery.

WOOD WILL BE RECEIVED at the grading stations at Charlottetown, Summerside and Souris from June 24th to July 1st. Twine for tying fleeces and shipping tags can be secured from the Egg and Poultry Association Charlottetown. 7037-5-30M31.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The many friends of Mrs. Wright Leard of Middleton are sorry to hear of the sad news she received on Tuesday of the sudden death of her father, Mr. C. H. Thomas at his home in Fredericton, N.B. The deceased was proprietor of the Oak Hall Gents' Furnishing store in Fredericton, a well known and highly respected citizen, having taken an active part in civic affairs. He leaves to mourn, besides a widow, (formerly Miss Elizabeth Hale) two sons, Frank in Fredericton and James in Montreal, also one daughter, Mrs. Wright Leard of Middleton, P. E. I. to whom is extended deepest sympathy.

ISLANDER HONORED—Lieut. F. T. Peters, D.S.O., serving in the Royal Navy has again received recognition for distinguished work and gallant conduct. He now adds the Distinguished Service Cross to the Distinguished Service Order. Lieut. Peters is the eldest of four sons of Ex-Prime Minister Fred Peters, K. C., of Prince Edward Island, all of whom joined the service early in the war, and of these two were killed in the Ypres salient. An aunt of this gallant officer, Mrs. William Abbott, lives at 328 Melrose avenue, Westmount says the Montreal Star.

Keep Minard's Liniment in the house.

POLICE COURT.—A case against a man for desertion under the Military Service Act before the Court yesterday was adjourned for a week, the prisoner being remanded to jail for that time.

ROTARY CLUB—Rotarian J. A. McMillan presided at the weekly luncheon in the Kozey Korner yesterday. Messrs. A. E. Morrison and Walter R. Shaw were introduced on taking their seats for the first time. Rotarian J. O. Hyndman spoke on Marine Insurance, and afterwards read a most instructive article on the greatest insurance of all the British Navy. He explained that the local branch of the Navy League was growing in numbers and that they expected the new Canadian organizer, Dr. Hall, to visit the province shortly. Rotarian E. G. Saunders sang "Rule Britannia," the members joining heartily in the chorus.
