NO EXTENSION IN FISHING SEASON—The request of fishermen in the territory from Victoria to West Point and North Cape for an extension of the lobster season, has been turned down by the Department of Fisheries. POTATO CROP DAMAGED — Potato harvesting has started in this province and from all sections come reports of heavy losses from blight rot. Table stock growers are harvesting the late crop of potatoes but kept their potato vines well sprayed with control mixtures and escaped a larger part of the damage. Some farmers report more than 50 per cent of their crop affected by rot. Yield, too, is reported far below normal in many sections. Potato digging began during the past week but will not get into full swing until probably sometime this week. Many farmers have not completed their grain harvesting operations. Meanwhile four potato starch factories open their doors this week. They are located at Murray Harbour, Balde, St. Peters and Hunter River. The plants will take probably a half-million bushels of the poorer grades of Island potatoes.

Following the ceremony they moved to the home of the bride's parents where a delicious supper was served to the bride and groom and their immediate relatives, after which a jolly crowd of serenaders gathered, wishing them many years of happiness. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by the Panning Brook Women's Institute by which she received many lovely gifts. The couple will reside at Cross Roads.

ST. JAMES CHURCH

The Minister, Rev. T. H. Bussell Somers, M.A. S.T.M., conducted both services and preached yesterday. His text in the morning was from 1 Corinthians 4, Chap. 9th verse: "We are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels and to men," and he made a fervent appeal for practical Christianity, both in regard to social affairs and the spiritual life. In the afternoon Mr. Somers began his Young Men's Bible Class in the Church School with a most encouraging attendance.

In conclusion he stated, "I have no doubt of the ultimate outcome of the present struggle however long and terrible it might be as I believe we are a vehicle in the hands of Almighty God to smite the enemy who is out to destroy those things which we, as Christians, cherish and hold dear."

The Anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is,"—Shelley was sung by the choir and a vocal solo, "The Blind Ploughman."—Clark, was pleasingly rendered by Mr. Douglas Watt.

In the evening, Rev. Donald Boothroyd, B. A., preached the sermon taking as his text, Book of Daniel, "He kept His Windows Open Towards Jerusalem." The anthem, "Evening Prayer,"—Sullivan was sung by the choir. Despite the unfavorable weather there was a large congregation present.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service the Rev. I. J. Levy, took as the theme of his sermon "Maintaining the Spiritual Glow," basing his thought on the words of St. Paul in the Epistle to the Romans 12:11, "Never let your zeal flag, maintain the spiritual glow, serve the Lord" ( Moffett's translation).

In the first part of the letter to the Romans St. Paul, somewhat abstract and theoretical, sets forth a spiritual foundation, then gives in the words above, summary of our Christian responsibility to the soul within, the fellow man without, to God above.

We need to sustain zeal and enthusiasm in the life of religion. Let us never let our zeal flag, let us maintain the spiritual glow, so may we be faithful servants of God.

The anthem of the morning was Zingirdil's "Haste Thee O God."

The Rev. Aubrey Small, Secretary of the Grande Ligne Mission was the eloquent preacher at the evening service. Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" was the evening anthem." Communion of the Lord's Supper was observed at the morning service. John Inch, Musician and organist and choirmaster was in charge of the music of the day.

Rev. Maxwell Allan guest Preacher at Trinity

Rev. J. A. Maxwell Allan, Public Relations Officer, Canadian Legion War Services Inc., Ottawa, was the speaker at Trinity United Church yesterday morning and a large congregation was present to hear him. Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., B.D., took the devotional part of the worship.

Mr. Allan took as his text 1 Corinthians, Chapter 6, Verses 19-20. "Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." He took as his subject, "A Forgotten Truth—Bought With A Price."

In his opening remarks he referred to the fact that when Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of England, speaks he captures the attention of the English speaking world—not alone because of his ability to vividly paint world pictures of the events of the day but also because he speaks with an authentic voice. Likewise the writer of the words of his text captured the imagination of the world because he too spoke with an authentic voice, having himself suffered and endured for the truth.

Continuing, Mr. Allan stated, "During the last war as I sat in the most sacred garden in all the world—the Garden of Gethsemane, outside the walls of Jerusalem, I thought of the scene enacted there many years ago when the Master, agonized in prayer, said, 'Not my will, but thine, be done.' From there he went forth to suffer in the Judgment Chamber, then to die on the cross."

Bought With a Price

In the last war thousands of young Canadians poured out their red blood on the altar of sacrifice. We built in Canada a Cenotaph to their memory and gathered there once a year, then we war on our ways forgetting the great truth that we had been bought with a price, the preacher said.

He reminded the congregation that even as they sat in the church they were sheltering under blood because the cream of the Empire's youth are dying that they might enjoy their liberties. "There are many today who don't want to think we are sheltering under blood; they would prefer to be sprayed with rose water. They don't want to be told of blood, and tears, and toll and sweat. But we must face up to the truth of the Apostles' statement—bought with a price," he stated.

Continuing, Mr. Allan said, "I presume that every boy and girl in this beautiful Island of Prince Edward is taken something during their early years to the Confederation Chamber in the Province Building, that is known as the birthplace of Canada." He emphasized the need of teaching the children of the great and noble heritage that is theirs and the part Canada has already played in the world's history and of the magnificent contribution which it is making as one of the members of the British Empire.

In conclusion he stated, "I have no doubt of the ultimate outcome of the present struggle however long and terrible it might be as I believe we are a vehicle in the hands of Almighty God to smite the enemy who is out to destroy those things which we, as Christians, cherish and hold dear."

The Anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is,"—Shelley was sung by the choir and a vocal solo, "The Blind Ploughman."—Clark, was pleasingly rendered by Mr. Douglas Watt.

In the evening, Rev. Donald Boothroyd, B. A., preached the sermon taking as his text, Book of Daniel, "He kept His Windows Open Towards Jerusalem." The anthem, "Evening Prayer,"—Sullivan was sung by the choir. Despite the unfavorable weather there was a large congregation present.

A few causes Of fire listed By Fire Chief

This being Fire Prevention Week it is my duty to bring to the attention of the people of Charlottetown the necessity of making a complete check-up on their homes and buildings and checking up on their fire-hazards, declares Mr. Angus MacEachern, Chief of the Charlottetown Fire Department.

Begin in the attic. Inspect the flues and clean out all rubbish, continue down each floor to the cellar.

Inspect all stove pipes and wall safes. Have a look at your electric wiring. After making this inspection take the Chief's advice.

The five most frequent causes of fire are: 1. Careless smoking, which heads the list as a cause of fire, and a most avoidable one.

2. Fires caused by sparks on roofs. A large number of these are caused by your chimneys are cleaned at least once a year.

3. Fires resulting from defective or overheated chimneys or flues. Be sure you make careful inspection of all chimneys and flues this week.

4. Defective electric wiring and equipment. Have a competent electrician to take care of your electrical troubles.

5. Spontaneous combustion. Although not so frequent as flue or chimney fires cause nearly as much damage.

NINTH CHARLOTTETOWN TROOP (TRINITY)

On Wednesday the P.L.'s and A.S.M.'s of the Ninth Troop met in the Rooms of the Troop with the new S.M. Mr. Gordon Rice, to discuss affairs of the Troop and to plan a program for Friday's meeting. This meeting was planned with the view of re-organizing the Patrols and also with the purpose of introducing new ideas into the Troop Program. May the new S.M. have all possible success with the Ninth CHARLOTTETOWN SCOUTERS' CLUB MEETING

Thursday evening the Charlottetown Scouters' Club met at the Provincial office and Annual Meeting of the Club was held in the Public Kitchen Shelter. Twenty one Scouters were present including three members of the R. A. F. and one of the R. C. N. V. R. These men have signified the intention of assisting Patrols or Troops in Charlottetown and will be a very welcome and valuable addition to the Club and to Scouting in Charlottetown. It is hoped that other members of the forces who have been Scouters will also be contacted to assist as instructors and Leaders.

At the business meeting the Nominating Committee, which had been appointed last week, presented a slate of officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, V. A. Ainsworth; Vice-President, Harry Pineau; Secretary, Stan McInnis; Treasurer, Betty Bruce; C. M. Irene MacDonald was appointed to act as the Club's representative on the District Council.

Following the business meeting a wextry fry and sing some were held. Games were also played and some stunts presented. Several members were invited as members of "The Grand Order of Slam". This ceremony was very impressive and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. WE WONDER?

Who presented the Skipper with a roll which enclosed a candle nicely camouflaged with mustard. Did he bite? What brand of tobacco was Timber smoking? Why did some claim that it had the distinct odor of coffee? Was it possible that some member of the Club would stoop so low as to slip a spoonful or two of coffee into Timber's tobacco, or perhaps it was a new substitute or ersatz. WE WONDER?

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

"The man in the street, the scholar in the university, the rich man and the pauper, are all asking the question—'Is Hitler the Anti-Christ?'" so declared the Rev. Neil Heriman, last night in the Central Christian Church.

In answering this question the preacher said in part: "I am not imagining things. I was not sent to compare up sensationalism upon which curiosity mongers are always ready to bite. Hitler is my authority, and no one in this hour of world crisis can afford to laugh Bible prophecy out of court."

He read carefully read seriously, in the light of present day events Daniel, chapters 9, 11 and 12. Read quickly chapter 24. Read Revelation, chapter 13. Read 1 Thessalonians, chapter 4, and 2 Thessalonians chapter 2.

He will discover three very important things which rule out this man Hitler as the Anti-Christ. "First, the Jew rules him out. This man Hitler, whose leading the gripping drama of the Jew can never pawn himself off as the Anti-Christ. And in the second place, the Church whose presence in the world denotes the appearance of the coming Anti-Christ, rules this man Hitler out of the list.

And in the third place, the fate of the Anti-Christ covers twelve years, and those seven years close this present world age, Hitler has already covered more than seven years. Don't you see, in the light of this fact, Hitler cannot qualify for the job?

Hitler The Forerunner of the Anti-Christ

"But what join the Baptist was to the coming of our Lord, so is this man Hitler to the coming of the Anti-Christ. Hitler is the forerunner of this Man of Sin. Hitler paves the way, Hitler is the voice of one crying in the wilderness—'prepare ye the way of the Anti-Christ.'"

"This damnable counterfeit—this stupid counterfeit—presents a snappy picture of that terrible personality, which, because of man's choice of a world without God, without a Holy Ghost, without the Church, will become the god of this world, before whom a goddess humanity will bow the knee in confess the deity of the devil himself."

A Last, Sad Tragic Picture! The Bible presents in lurid colors, the last sad tragic picture of a closing age. Not the picture of the end of the world, for there is no end of the world. But this age of evil, of war and bloodshed and tears must end—and I pray God may end soon.

All that can be packed of falsehood, baseness, force, murder and hell are packed into the soul of Hitler, and packed there as a solemn warning to this generation. Hitler is proclaiming to a lost world this frightful declaration—'there is coming one after me, who will finish the programme of the devil—he will finish what I was not permitted to finish.'"

And then, as if by a divine compulsion, he is compelled to cry out—'Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish.'"

Souris Troop enjoy the success which it had some time in the past.

GOOD SCOUTING IN CHARLOTTETOWN

During the past few weeks several Scouters well known in Charlottetown Scouting circles visited the City. These Scouters were: Rev. Douglas Henderson, former Executive Secretary of the Province; Vice-King, former C. M. of the First Pack; Earl Doyle, former A.C.M. of the Sixth; Earl Taylor, former S.M. of the Ninth; Bob Morris, formerly of the First and Rupert McNeill, who assisted at several camps in the Province. All their old Scouting friends were very agreeably surprised to renew former friendships and to talk over good times of the past.

MEDAL CRAZY

A young lady named Lydia Sculler went "medal crazy" trying to keep track of the numerous medals and decorations worn by Laurence Olivier as Admiral Nelson in Alexander Korda's "That Hamilton Woman!" now playing at the Prince Edward Theatre.

It wasn't bad at the start of the picture, when Nelson was a Captain and devoid of most of his orders, but as the picture progressed and he was up to the rank of the Order of St. Ferdinand, the Order of St. Joachim, the Dukedom of Bronte, the Order of the Crescent and numerous others were heaped upon him, the situation became tough.

For each medal and decoration had to be worn in its particular spot on the Admiral's chest and it was up to Lydia to see that each was in its right place, with one worn over the heart and the others forming a cross.

Robert Sterling Charles Winninger, Donna Reed in... Offering

A thrilling prison break, a gun battle in a gang's hideout, and a capture of a ruthless racketeer leader highlight Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Get-Away" coming today to the Capitol Theatre.

Dan Dailey, Jr., plays Sonny Black, the menacing gang leader and Robert Sterling enacts Jeff Crane, the G-man who, disguised as a "tough" convict, gains the gang leader's confidence by a screen newcomer who is paired with Sterling—Donna Reed, who, as Maria Theresa Black, does not know her brother is a gangster and hates the G-man who hums him.

Comedy is provided by the inebricated old Dr. Glass, played by Charles Winninger, who unwittingly leads the gang's secret hide-out. This results in the capture of the band which has terrorized Middle West defense industries. Henry O'Neil, Broadway star of many years and veteran of several dozen pictures, plays the prison warden.
