Head Offices in New Prowse Block---Charlottetown.

Mrs. Angus McLeod, City, left yesterday on a visit to Boston.

There will be service in the English church, Long Creek, next Sunday at eleven o'clock.

Henry Smith and W. C. Turner, City, left yesterday to attend the Methodist Conference in Moncton.

H. A. Marvin and wife, St. John, arrived here by last night's train, and are at the Victoria.

Mrs. Carrie Waugh arrived home on Saturday night from the North west to spend the summer with her brother Percy Tanton, Summerside.

The Union Commercial College of this City will hold the annual closing Tuesday, 23rd inst., in Kindergarten Hall . Public cordially invited.

Dr. J. C. Ballem, Mt. Albion, who has recently graduated in medicine from McGill University has arrived home to spend a holiday.

L. B. Archibald, of Truro, came over by the str. Northumberland last night on an official visit to Prince Edward Preceptory, No. 35, Knight Templars.

Miss Mary Donahoe of Boston and Miss Margaret Donahoe of Philadelphia left this City yesterday to visit friends in the eastern part of the Province.

Mrs. Enoch Paige, John D. Malcolm, Donald and Laura Malcolm, and Arthur A. and Mrs. Guild arrived last night in this City from Boston on their regular summer visit to this Province.

The Dominion Government Cruiser Princess arrived in port yesterday. Rear- Admiral Kingsmill is expected to arrive today in the Canada and will inspect all of the Government ships now here.

The death occurred at Malpeque on June 8th of Simon Delaney, aged 81. He was born in the County Kilkenny, Ireland in 1827, and came to the Island with his parents in 1828. He was one of the oldest and most respected residents of Malpeque. He leaves to mourn two sisters and one brother. The funeral took place to St. Mary's Church, Indian River on Wednesday morning, and was largely attended.

Attention has been drawn by The Guardian in former years to the manner in which young live pigs are packed for shipment from this Province to the mainland. Large numbers of these are sent away every spring by the str. Northumberland, City of Ghent, and Halifax. They are usually crowded into small boxes where they actually have not more than enough room to stand up right. Ten of the little animals packed in this way were suffocated the other day while in transit from North Wiltshire to Arichat.

The sch. Helen M. Stewart, which recently arrived here from Barbadoes finished unloading her cargo of molasses and sugar yesterday and hauled out into the stream to anchor. Two colored women who came here in the schooner to get situations, became homesick, although they had fair prospects of comfortable situations and on Tuesday night they went down to the schooner imploring to be taken back to Barbadoes. The captain could not do so, and the poor creatures spent part of Tuesday night on the wharf in the rain until rescued by a kindly citizen who procured them shelter.

The marriage of Jean, daughter of George and Mrs. Wood Halifax and Edwin Crockett, inspector of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Toronto, took place at a quarter to seven o'clock Tuesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents in Halifax. Miss Wood has enjoyed local distinction as a gifted singer, and, especially in musical circles, great interest has been felt in her approaching marriage. The Rev. George Wood, of Chatham, N. B., a brother of the bride, officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Robert Johnstone, pastor of St. Andrew's church. Both bride and groom were unattended. Miss Wood, who was given away by her father wore a gown of white embroidered point d'esprit, with the conventional veil and orange blossoms, her bouquet being of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern. The ceremony was followed by a reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Crockett left for the wedding trip. Few bride's are so fortunate as Miss Wood in the matter of valuable and beautiful wedding gifts. In the large collection are two silver entree dishes, sent by the choir of Park street church Halifax and a solid silver tea service, from the officials of the head office of the Bank of Nova Scotia—for Mr. Crockett is as popular in Toronto as is the bride in Halifax. His gift to the latter was a diamond hoop ring.

Mrs. Franklin D. Hale, City, will receive Tuesday of each week from 4 to 6.

A COMPLAINT.

Sir:—A few days ago a countryman under the influence of whiskey, with his wife and young daughter in a carriage, drove at full gallop whipping his horse unmercifully, on one of our streets that had recently been excavated, for the purpose of placing a water system under it and which was in a bad state for driving. His wife was heard for some distance screaming, and begging for him to stop, or they would be killed, but he paid no heed to her. Horrified spectators along the street held their breath, expecting that something terrible would happen, when suddenly the carriage wheel dropped into a trench, throwing the occupants out. The woman fell heavily to the ground and remained unconscious for some time. The child was caught in the wheel and received a terrible scalp wound, while the driver escaped unhurt. Two doctors were called and the child's wounds were stitched up and dressed. Many who saw the accident—the woman lying on the ground, and the helpless child with its clothing saturated with blood, were unanimous in their opinion that such a fellow should be sent to the penitentiary for a term of years.

The man was arrested by Police Officer Philips, and next morning appeared before the Stipendiary Magistrate, and was fined three dollars. Mr McQuarrie asked Philips what charge was against this man? In reply Philips said he was drunk, and that was the only charge.

Will some one explain why this man should escape justice while others have to pay the full limit. Why were the facts in this case suppressed by our policeman?

W. B. Corsets
Often Imitated but Never Equalled

The old saying imitation is the sincerest flattery is perfectly true. There are a number of other makes of corsets being foisted on the public as being the equal of the W. B. now there are only two makes of corsets—W. B.'s and all others. Anyone who has worn or knows anything about the W. B. is not for a moment going to hesitate in choosing between it and one of another make.

We have all the latest and newest models and styles in W. B.'s from the Girdle to the Reduso.

Price $1.00, 1.35, 1.45, 2.15, up to 6.50 pair.

The Reduso is distinctly a W. B. Mode and cannot be procured in any other make. It is the high water mark of perfection for those figures that are large and stout; and will positively reduce the waist line from one to two inches without any inconvenience to the wearer. $4.25 pair.
