

Fruit trees are valued only as they produce fruit.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody
Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

Men still sin the sin of Judas and give up for gain.

Morning Guardian, Founded 1857
Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1933

12 PAGES

Annual Subscription Delivered $5.00
By Mail Canada and U. S. A. $4.50

Mar. Claims Discussed By Premiers

KEEN COMPETITION IN SILVER FOX BEAUTIES

Judging Begun At The Fox Show

Black, Dark Silver And Dark Medium Classes Have Been Completed—Competition Was Close.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC

Great interest was taken in yesterday's opening of the Prince Edward Island Fox Show at the Provincial Exhibition Grounds. Judging commenced at noon after classification had been completed. The Black, Dark Silver, and Dark Medium classes were concluded when the light failed rather early in the afternoon. These were the lightest classes in point of numbers which will be included in the whole show, but nevertheless, the judge, Mr. George E. Calbeck had his hands full in making the placings. This careful and efficient work however, is something to be admired.

The classes coming on today will be the Medium Silver, and Light Medium. All sections of these two classes will be extremely heavy, the entries in each section ranging from 15 to 35. Judging will begin today at 8:30 and will be pushed vigorously in order to get through as early in the week as possible.

One of the big events of the show will be the Banquet to be held this evening at the Canadian National Hotel. This banquet in part takes the place of the official opening held in former years. Addresses will be delivered by the Premier, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Hon. G. Shelton Sharpe, Minister of Public Works, Hon. Thomas MacNutt, Minister of Agriculture, His Worship Mayor Stewart, Hon. W. M. Lea, Mr. George Calbeck and others. An excellent musical program has been arranged.

The following is the complete list of awards made to date.

CLASS I

BLACK AND EXTRA DARK

Sec. 1 Male whelped previous to 1932

1—Helen M. Wood, Southport, P. E. I.

2—T. Humphrey, Kensington, P. E. I.

Sec. 2 Male whelped in 1932

1—W. W. Brown, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

(Continued on page 11)

Belfast Remembrance Day Ceremony. Returned Men fall in near Monument 10:15 sharp. 2496.

Hunter River Masonic Hall 6 to 9. Chicken Supper and Bazaar, Thursday, November 9th. 2514.

Borden Line Club loading hogs, lambs, calves, Albany, Wednesday, Nov. 8. Hours 12 to 3. 2496.

Tyne Valley Dramatic Players present their play in Borden Hall, November 9th. 2498.

Borden Rink dance at Abegweit Dance Hall Thursday evening, November 9. Elliott's orchestra. Admission 35 cents. 2485.

Concert and Dance in Grand View Hall Thursday, November 9th. Admission 20 cents. Ladies with boxes free. 2523.

Dance, MacDonald Consolidated School Thursday evening, November 9th. E. I. S. orchestra. Aid hockey club. Refreshments. 2494.

Annual Halloween Tea and Bazaar in aid of City Hospital in Holy Name Club Hall, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon, November 8th and 9th. 2316.

Lecture "Experiences in Scandinavia" by Prof. Shaw and programme in Clyde River Hall, Friday, November 10th, 8 p. m. If not fine, November 11th. Admission 10c and 15c. 2463.

A meeting of Cornwall Farmers Institute will be held in Cornwall Hall this Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp. All members requested for attendance.

Our retirement Income Bond is the most scientific way of saving money. Combined with our cheap Protective Policy, it makes an ideal system. Consult J. A. Moore, Manager Sun Life.

Old-time Fiddlers and Dancing Contest at Kelly's Cross Hall, Wednesday, November 8th. Bigger and better prizes. Mail your entries to Mrs. J. D. Flood, South Melville. Contest followed by Box Social and Dance. 2400.

Pay in Advance

As so many people disclaim responsibility for small ads, when bills are sent out, in future no such ads. will appear unless the order is accompanied with payment.

CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

YOUTH HELD FOR MURDER OF ASCAH GIRLS

Nelson Phillips Confesses to Crime Involving Deaths of Ascah Girls.

(Canadian Press)

GASPE, Que., Nov. 7.—In a dramatic setting, while hundreds crowded into the tiny hall, a signed confession of Nelson Phillips to the effect he had killed Maud and Marguerite Ascah was read before a coroner's inquest today. The jury then held the 18-year-old fisherman criminally responsible for the death of Maud and exonerated a friend of Phillips, also previously held as material witness.

Ends Search

The confessions brought to end a three months old search for a solution to the disappearance of the two teen-age cousins who vanished from their Peninsula, Que., homes on August 31.

"I met the girls at the store during the evening and I asked them to take a walk on the beach," said the confession. "After we got down on the beach my memory failed me and I do not remember just what happened and when I came back to my senses I saw the girls lying on the ground. They were Maud and Marguerite Ascah. To my knowledge they were dead."

Mutilated and partly clothed, the body of 16-year-old Maud Ascah was found in the freezing waters of Gaspe Bay more than a week ago. Her skull had been crushed. Until today's revelations the only clue to the fate of Marguerite was a foot found wedged in the shark-toothed

(Continued on page 10)

FIVE DEAD IN U.S. OUTBREAK

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Heavy voting and outbreaks of violence that caused five men to be killed and five wounded marked a chill, gray election day in Kentucky.

The vote on repeal of the 18th Amendment and on state issues served to bring out a large number of voters in most counties.

The first violence reported was in Louisville where Hugh Childs, 50, a negro Democrat, was shot to death in an argument with other negroes near a polling place. A suspect was questioned but no formal charges made.

Three men were killed and two wounded critically at Layman in the Harlan County coal fields.

Near Hopkinsville, in Christian County, Lloyd Marquess 22, was stabbed four times when he intervened in a quarrel at a polling place. His alleged assailant was a negro.

(Continued on page 10)

Maritime Board Of Trade Meets In Kentville Today

(Canadian Press)

KENTVILLE, N. S., Nov. 7.—Delegates from various sections of the Maritime Provinces were assembling here tonight prior to the opening tomorrow of the 35th annual convention of the Maritime Board of Trade.

Discussion of transportation rates in the Maritime Provinces will be the main topic, it was indicated tonight by F. McClure Scandlers of Saint John, N. B., Honorary Secretary, who described the convention as one of the most important in the history of the organization.

because no previous period ever has been gladdened with so many problems that bear so definitely and heavily upon the welfare of every economic activity."

Leading executives will be in conference late tonight mapping out a suggested course for the Maritime Transportation Commission, soon to be revived after disbandment in 1931.

Reviewing problems to be discussed, President M. T. Aard of Amherst, said what the Maritime Provinces most need is unity. "Working together," he said, "the people of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island can accomplish great things."

Marked Improvement In Law Enforcement

Armistice Day Service Will Be Broadcast

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The National Armistice Day Memorial Service on Parliament Hill will be broadcast over the Canadian Radio Commission's network, it was learned here today.

The service will begin at 11 o'clock E. S. T., with the two minutes silence, following which hymns will be sung. It is expected that the entire ceremony will take only 20 minutes.

His Excellency the Governor General and the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada will be in attendance and will deposit wreaths at the base of the cenotaph.

BRITAIN WILL MAKE "TOKEN" PAYMENT

British Government to Pay $7,500,000 On War Debts Owed States.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(C. P. Cable)—While France and six other nations are in default on their war-debt payments to the United States, Great Britain will make another "token" payment on Dec. 15 when an instalment of $117,000,000 falls due.

The payment of $7,500,000 will be made in United States currency, at presently slightly depreciated in terms of the pound sterling. The United States will accept the "token" payment without prejudice to the case of either the debtor or creditor, and will not regard Great Britain as being in default in any way.

MAKES STATEMENT

Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, made the announcement in the House of Commons when it re-assembled today, as the President simultaneously made a similar statement in Washington.

Referring to the debt conversations just concluded in Washington the Chancellor said: "It has unfortunately not proved possible to reach an agreement for a final settlement. His Majesty's Government recognize however the difficulties which exist at the present time."

(Continued on page 10)

Interesting Facts And Figures In Connection With Activities Of The R.C.M.P. In Enforcing Prohibition Legislation In Province.

The effective manner in which the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are enforcing the Prohibition Law of the Province is indicated by the fact that since January 1 to October 31 of this year no fewer than 235 prosecutions were laid under the Act, resulting in 206 convictions, as compared with 143 convictions obtained in the full year of 1931, the last year under which the Act was enforced by the former Provincial Police and Prohibition Force.

Moreover, since January 1, 105 convictions were obtained under the Highway Traffic Act out of a total of 125 cases brought into Court. This figure does not include investigations, which numbered 216.

In addition 120 investigations were made under the Excise Act and 233 under the Customs Act.

In Charlottetown alone, during the month of September last, 167 searches of suspected premises were

Anglo-Argentine Pact Signed

LONDON, Nov. 7.—An Anglo-Argentine trade agreement was formally ratified tonight when Sir John Simon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, and Ambassador Malbran of Argentina exchanged documents of ratification.

LAGUARDIA ELECTED NEW MAYOR OF N.Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(C.P.)—Tammany Hall was humbled tonight for the first time in 19 years by a powerful fusion movement that swept in Fiorello H. LaGuardia as Mayor of New York and gave fusion control of the important board of estimate.

Joseph V. McKee, running as an Independent with the endorsement of Postmaster General James A. Farley, ran far behind the stocky LaGuardia and only slightly ahead of Mayor John P. O'Brien.

CREW ESCAPE AS SHIP BURNS

YARMOUTH, N. S., Nov. 7.—Driven to their boats by flames after the motorship Nova V ran aground near Seal Island in a dense fog, Captain Freeman Anderson and his crew of eight landed here tonight and said their ship was a total loss.

Fire broke out while they were trying to refloat the craft. The flames raced through the wood rapidly and forced the nine men to flee for safety.

They reached Seal Island in the dories and were brought to Yarmouth by a boat that went out from here to get them.

The Nova V left Yarmouth last evening, but heavy winds slowed her and she was just off the Island when fog shut down. She struck about 7:40 o'clock this morning.

Fatally Injured Boarding Train

SYDNEY, N. S., Nov. 7.—His arm and leg severed by wheels of a string of pam cars, Matthew Kiely, 31, died in hospital today. Kiely, employed by the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation apparently lost his footing while attempting to climb aboard the train. A coroner described death as accidental.

Special Problems In Each Province To Be Considered

Meeting To Be Held Within Few Months For Further Discussion Of Maritime Matters.

(Canadian Press)

DEATH DUE TO NATURAL CAUSES

The death of Mr. Malcolm MacLeod, Vernon River, age 78, occurred suddenly yesterday afternoon on the road near Bradley's Mills, Millville. A coroner's jury empaneled to inquire into the cause of death found that death was due to natural causes.

The inquest was conducted by Dr. L. B. McKenna, coroner, and was held in Jenkins Bros. Undertaking rooms. The jurymen were Gordon Crane, Lee Crane, Chester Johnson, Wm. Masters, Leslie MacLeod, Wm. Drake, Edward Stewart.

Four witnesses were called. They were Dr. J. T. Collins, Vernon River, Malcolm MacLeod, Vernon River, Forrest Clow and Albert MacLeod.

Malcolm MacLeod testified that he saw the deceased just before the latter fell on the road. The deceased had changed his course, staggered and fell. The witness had been about 150 yards away. When he got to the body it was apparently lifeless.

Dr. Collins testified that there were no marks on the body, except some bruises on the face, which had been received in the fall.

URGES SUPPORT OF HITLER GOVT.

By Louis P. Lochner, Associated Press Foreign Staff

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—(A.P.)—In a message directed to millions of workers consolidated into a gigantic labor front the Nazi Trade Union Commissioner, Robert Ley, appealed today for a "solid backing for Chancellor Hitler" in Sunday's elections.

"Our honor must be restored," Ley told them. "Unanimous approval for the government's policy will restore German laborers in the eyes of the world."

"With honor you are workers; without honor you are slaves." At the polls German voters are expected to do two things:

Vote yes on the Hitler slate for the new Reichstag;

Endorse the foreign policy of the Hitler Government, especially its withdrawal from the League of Nations and the Arms Conference, and its insistence upon equality in the councils of the nations.

Hitler Reported Seeking New Disarmament Parley

(Associated Press)

ROME, Nov. 7.—Premier Mussolini received a letter from Chancellor Hitler today, and well-informed persons said they believed the German leader had requested the Italian chieftain to call an international disarmament conference.

The official version of the matter, as related by a government communique, was:

"The head of the government received at Venezia Palace Hermann Wilhelm Goerring, German Minister without Portfolio, who consigned to him a letter in which Chancellor Hitler thanked him for the work he had done in favor of Strong winds and gales; cloudy with some rain or probably part snow.

(Canadian Press)

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, Nov. 7.—Minimum and maximum temperatures—

| | | |
|---------------|----|----|
| Dawson | 45 | 63 |
| Edmonton | 40 | 48 |
| Calgary | 36 | 44 |
| Winnipeg | 19 | 37 |
| Regina | 14 | 32 |
| Saskatoon | 14 | 32 |
| Toronto | 32 | 42 |
| Kingston | 29 | 39 |
| Ottawa | 26 | 36 |
| Montreal | 28 | 38 |
| Quebec | 25 | 35 |
| Saint John | 24 | 34 |
| Halifax | 22 | 32 |
| Charlottetown | 21 | 31 |

FORECAST

Maritime West—Strong shifting winds or gales, cloudy, with some light rain or snow.

Maritime East—Strong winds and gales; cloudy with some rain or probably part snow.

High tide this afternoon at 2:50 and tomorrow morning at 1:33. Sun sets this afternoon at 4:40 and rises tomorrow morning at 6:49.

Last quarter moon Friday, Nov. 10, 12:15 p. m.

Summer tide eighteen minutes later than last tide.

GAR FERRY SCHEDULE
Week days—Leaving Borden 5:30 a. m.; 1 p. m. (Extra)
Week days—Leaving the Maritime 10:30 a. m. (Extra); 2:30 p. m.