HAPPY ENDING WANTED.

(Manchester Guardian.)

A charming, auburn-haired nurse tells the story. She bent over the bed of one badly wounded man and asked him if he would like anything to read. The soldier fixed a humorous eye on her and said: "Miss, can you get me a nice novel? I'd like one about a golden haired girl and a wounded soldier, with a happy ending." After this the pretty nurse looks down contemptuously on civilian compliments.

WELL TO REMEMBER

That every path hath a puddle.
That the fruit of success ripens slowly.
That he is the richest who wants the least.
That a million dollars will not buy a ray of sunshine.
That the greatest of faults is to be conscious of none.
That the brightest of thoughts sometimes come from the dullest-looking men.
That all of the good things of this world are of no further good than as they are of use.
That there can be no greater mistake than the stopping to worry over a mistake already made.
That with contentment the lowest hovel is more of a palace than the loftiest mansion without it.
That while few are qualified to shine in company, it is in the power of most people to be agreeable.
That our homes are like instruments of music, of which a single discordant string destroys the sweetness.

EAT WITHOUT FEAR OF INDIGESTION OR SOUR, ACID STOMACH

INSTANT RELIEF! "PAPE'S DIAPESPIN" ENDS YOUR STOMACH TROUBLE FOREVER

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; of sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stinking lumps; head dizzy and aches; black gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated,—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit of food, if you find if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.
