TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

The Thanksgiving Festival was observed by appropriate decorations in the church, by special music and by special sermons. Fruits of the field and flowers of the garden were artistically arranged and Professor Kendall was supported by a choir of 34. There were good congregations but there should not have been a vacant seat at a Thanksgiving service at the present time. The morning anthem with Mr. Harvey MacPherson taking the solo part and Miss Margaret Sterns in the rendering of Mendelssohn's "I Will Sing of Thy Great Mercies" were both much appreciated.

The sermon, by Rev. T. E. McLennan, was based on Matthew 11-25 "I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, because Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent and hast revealed them unto babes". "At this thanksgiving time," said Mr. McLennan, "we have much for which to be thankful. Our harvests that never fail, our health and homes, our churches and institutions of learning, our hospitals, doctors and nurses, in fact the immeasurable blessings of daily life ought to make each one pause and give thanks to the Author of all good. But this morning I want to go with you back of it all and try to understand the thankfulness of Christ (1) His thanks for God, His Father. This is the root of all thanksgiving, our faith in God. (2) Jesus thanks for God's revelation to simple people, ordinary folk like His disciples. These are the great objectives of true Christian Thanksgiving God and humble folk through which the good of man is advanced. Today by the sacrifice of humble people we can see the menace to all we hold dear receding so let us give thanks to God by dedication of ourselves to the preservation and advancement of all goodness."

In the evening the theme was "Our dependence upon God". Deut. 8-17 and 18. The writer of Deuteronomy is reminding the people of their dependence upon God for all common things in life. The recent conference at Hot Springs, Va., recognized this and representatives of forty nations sought to work out a plan whereby the fruits of the earth could be so controlled that they would be delivered to free people everywhere suffering from want. A recognition of the truth that God is the provider.
