CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

"Friendly Enemies" at Capitol Summerside

"Friendly Enemies," which is based on the bang-up stage hit of the first World War, the fighting picture since "The Soldiers." There are 21 fights between Winnie and Ruggles. They take 12 reconciliations in stride, there are eight draws and one big scene in which they make up for good.

As the cronies of the story, Winnie and Ruggles fight mainly about whether the Kaiser should be hanged or hocked. Winnie plays the role of an American who loves the Germany of his childhood. But in "Friendly Enemies," they also work up a comic squabble about anything from cigars to dresses to radishes to musical stocks to newspaper headlines.

At the end of the picture, however, when Winnie changes to a good American, they wind up with their arms around one another, patting each other on the back.

While waging their battle of the century in "Friendly Enemies," the actors are surprised by Nancy Kelly, James Craig, O. Kruger and Ilka Gruning.

She is now on the nursing staff at the King's County Hospital, Montague.

Christmas Carol Program

The closing Christmas Meeting of the Young People's Union of Trinity United Church was held in the Social Hall Friday evening.

After the business conducted by the President, Miriam Hughes, the director of the program Miss Bernice Huestis was introduced and Miss Ella Thompson in behalf of the young people presented Miss Huestis with a beautiful corsage of tallies roses.

Miss Huestis opened the program with an address on "The Origin of Carols." Groups of carols were sung. The first, by all those present, Little's Mollie Whitton, one of our guests from England sang "Deck the Hall with Boughs of Holly" and "An Old Welsh Carol" and "Away in a Manger," a German Carol with brief histories of the carols. LAG. Sidney Spelling, R.A. sang "God Rest you merry Gentlemen," a traditional Old English Carol. The Mrs. Novell, a medieval shepherd's tune; and by special request "God Bless this House."

Miss Margaret Stines, accompanied by Miss Susanne Brenton beautifully interpreted the story of each carol. The melody of "The Green Gables" was first prize in a contest conducted by The Guardian in 1930. E. L. Ashford was the composer. Then followed "Come, Rock the Cradle" a seventeenth century English carol and "Here's a Toast to the King of the Belgians," a brilliant French Carol. Miss Marie MacDoon sang a rousing "Jesus An'thony" written in Ontario by Paul P. Card who was a Huron chief.

After refreshments were served by the City-Summer Group of the Y.P.U. the leading group in the carol contest all were led by the choir to "The First Noel." The Scripture Reading was Luke 2. The worship story was "The First Christmas Rose," followed by prayer, the singing of "Silent Night, Holy Night," the Mizpah Benediction and a rousing "The Star." Famous U.S. Cruiser In Port For Repairs

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The cruiser San Francisco, flagship of the United States Solomons fleet that defeated a Japanese armada, came home today, grumpy and patched and proud.

On her decks stood a corps of heroes. On the same decks other heroes died in the backwash of that early-morning battle of Nov. 13 when the heavy cruiser raced between two lines of Jap warships and sank a cruiser and a destroyer and damaged a battleship so severely it was easy prey for the following torpedoes.

There were few on hand, however, to welcome the San Francisco as she slipped into the harbor. There was no advance word of her coming.
