AWAY

I cannot say, I will not say That he is dead.—He is just away. With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he lingers there. And you, O you, who the wildest yearn For the old-time step and the glad return, Think of him faring on as dear, In the love of there as the love of here; And loyal still as he gave the blows, Of his warrior-strength to his country's foes Mild and gentle as he was brave When the sweetest love of his life he gave To simple things.— Ah, think of him still as the same, I say; He is not dead,—he is just away.

War Garden Bulletin

PRACTICAL DAILY GUIDE FOR VACANT LOT AND BACKYARD GARDENERS ENLISTED IN GREATER PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN

issued by the Canada Food Board in collaboration with experts on the staff of the Dominion Experimental Farm. KEEP HOING

The gardener's best friend is the hoe—so keep it going. Nothing has done more to further the science of farming than the discovery of the fact that if you keep stirring up the soil around a plant it grows and produces better. There is no necessity to hoe deeply—an inch is enough. Hoe every seven days at least and always after a rain or watering, in order to break up the crust which forms. The more hoeing you do the less watering will be necessary. This is because the dust or "mulch," as it is called, which is formed by the breaking up of the surface soil into fine particles, keeps the moisture around the roots of the plants from evaporating. Another of the virtues of frequent hoeing is that it does not give the weeds a chance to make any progress. As they are the gardener's worst enemy he should make it a point to combat them for all he is worth. This is where the hoe will help him.

The Oil of Power.—It is not claimed for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that it will cure every ill, but its uses are so various that it may be looked upon as a general pain killer. It has achieved that greatness for itself and all attempts to surpass it have failed. Its excellence is known to all who have tested its virtues and learnt by experience.

J. K. L. ROSS' CUGDEL IS THE FAVORITE

NEW YORK, June 9.—While only six horses are carded for the running of the classic suburban handicap at one mile and a quarter over the Belmont Park race track today, the contest promises to be as interesting as any previously struggled for honors in this event. Chief interest centres in the meeting of Commanded J. K. L. Ross' Cugdel and James Butler's Spur. Two week ago Spur beat the Canadian owned colt at the Jamaica track. Cugdel is the favorite today. The other four Hollister, Johnson, Hendrie and Battle are favorites in the order named as betting choices.

TOO TALKATIVE

A widow, whose only son was fighting in France, had not received a letter from him for a long time. To her delight, one morning a letter came. It was bulky dimensions but to her surprise, on opening it, every single word had been erased by the censor. The only thing readable was a footnote by the censor himself: "Madam, your son is quite well, but he talks too much."

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

AUTOISTS—SPECIAL ATTENTION.

New markers with car numbers thereon are now ready for delivery. Auto owners who have not registered or renewed their car permits for the current season must do so at once. Persons operating motor vehicles without these new Markers displayed thereon after the 14th June, 1918, will be prosecuted according to Law. ARTHUR NEWBERY, Asst. Provincial Secretary. 8004-6-8M41

Face An Awful Sight Healed By Cuticura

Rough and Itchy With Eczema. Came in Pimples and Blisters. Kept From Sleeping. "My face got rough and itchy, and I was told I had eczema. It came in pimples, then water blisters, and my skin was sore and red. My face itched and I had to scratch, and it kept me from sleeping. The skin was dry and scaly, and would bleed. My face was an awful sight. "I saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I sent for a free sample. I afterwards bought more, and it was not over a week when I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Annie Fergie, Alderson, Ala., Aug. 28, 1917. If your skin is already healthy and clear keep it so by using Cuticura Soap for toilet purposes assisted by touches of Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal any tendency to irritation, redness or roughness of the skin or scalp. For Free Sample Each by Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. A, Boston, U. S. A." Sold everywhere.
