*RED CROSS MUSICAL.-A most enjoyable event took place in Montague on Friday evening last when Mrs. E. M. McKinnon kindly opened her home to the members of the Women's Institute and the W. P. A. and their friends for a musicale for Red Cross benefit. That the programme was enjoyed by all was shown by the hearty and persistent encores following each number. The soloists were: Miss Annie Sutherland, Miss Lucy McLean, Mr. S. S. Hessian and Mr. Geo. McIntyre. There was also a piano solo by Mrs. G. H. Henry, a piano duet by Mrs. G. Ellis and Miss Helen McLean, a reading with musicale accompaniment by Miss Lillian McDonald and a duet (in costume) by Misses Mary McIntyre and Hazel Campbell. Next in order came a Grocery Contest prizes being awarded to the successful guessers. In this contest Miss Ota McDonald won first prize for ladies and Mr. M. F. McDonald for gentlemen while Mr. D. L. McKinnon carried off the Consolation. After this dainty refreshments were served by the ladies and when a hearty vote of thanks had been tendered Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon a most delightful evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

WHY IT IS A NUT BROWN

If your Roman Meal Porridge tastes of staxeed, it's a positive sign you've stirred it while boiling. Try again, and follow directions on package. Properly made, it's delicious. Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal is nut brown, because made from entire grains. To be highly nourishing, the dark parts must be used. These parts also carry the salts which prevent the blood from becoming acid. Roman Meal not only makes the best porridge obtainable, but can be served in all sorts of nourishing baked products. Try also the really-cooked form, known as Roman Meal Nuggets.

SURVIVORS GAVE THREE CHEERS FOR THE CAPTAIN.

PARIS, April 1.-"The calm courage and presence of mind of Captain Mouffet filled us all with admiration," said Mde. Wisser Verilindem, a survivor of the Channel steamer Sussex, whose husband is at the front. "Although badly hurt himself, this fine French officer worked without ceasing for the safety of the passengers. While giving orders he answered all the questions, adding a reassuring word, declaring that the ship would keep afloat and advising all who felt that they had sufficient courage to remain aboard. The last of the passengers to leave the Sussex for the Marie Therese were several British officers. They formed in line on the deck of the Sussex and saluted Capt. Mouffet, who, exhausted, was turning over command of the ship to the first officer, and then gave three ringing cheers for him."
Enrique Granados, the Spanish composer, and his wife were passengers on the Sussex and are believed to have perished. Senor Granados composed the opera "Goyescas," which was produced recently at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. He and his wife were last seen clinging to a small raft, according to survivors. Granados was trying to keep the raft straight.

LONDON, April 2.-The Times publishes a lengthy account by a French aviation expert, George Prade, of the results of his study of the remains of a Zeppelin brought down on February 21 at Revigny. M. Prade believes the airship was of the latest type and compares its details with those of the Z-8 which was brought down in France in August, 1914. The writer says:-
"In presence of the shapeless heap of debris it is not possible to reconstruct exactly the dimensions of the airship which bore the number LZ-77 but an examination of the main beams warrants the conclusion that she measures 30,000 cubic meters.

A Great National Public Utility

That concerns all merchants and all people

THE original Cash Register rang a bell, indicated and recorded the amount of the purchase. It benefited the merchant only.

In a third of a century this old model has developed into a Cash Register that directly benefits every man, woman, and child who spends money in a store.

This new Cash Register equally concerns every merchant and clerk, every banker and wholesaler in this land.

It furnishes every customer with a receipt or sales-slip.

It prints on this the amount paid or charged.

On this is also printed the date of the sale and who made it.

It forces a duplicate, printed record for the merchant.

It prevents disputes over charges and bills paid.

It saves shoppers' time.

It gives the merchant all his profits. It gives him more money for his family.

It promotes more and quicker sales.

It protects each clerk against making errors and against the mistakes of others.

It rewards the diligent clerk by telling his employer which one makes the largest number of sales and which one gets the greatest amount of business.

It assures the banker additional security for the money he loans the merchant.

It gives the wholesaler additional assurance that the merchant will have money to pay his bills.

It furnishes the banker and the wholesaler mechanical evidence that the merchant's statement of his business is correct.

It is a business necessity.
