JUST ARRIVED

Our Early Fall Millinery

A smart selection of Velvets and Felts in styles that have captured every variation of the new mode, whether a Pompadour or Mile-wide Skinner we have them for you. Prices $2.25 to $7.95

This striking action photo will give you an idea of what a sailor sees on convoy duty. Destroyer has just dropped a depth charge where enemy sub was heard somewhere in the Atlantic. Huge column of water indicates terrific force of the underwater explosion.

VETERANS GUARD SEEKS 2,500 RECRUITS FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

Col. H. R. Alley, Officer Administering the Veterans Guard of Canada (shown at right) is appealing to Canadian ex-servicemen to join the unit for important war duties. A total of 2,500 men can be enlisted. At left are two Great War veterans who are again in service. Holding the rifle is Pte. George Dunnean, 45, of 2188A Laurier Avenue East, Montreal, while Corporal Harry Marsden, of 623 Cadillac Street, Montreal, describes the aperture sight. Corporal Marsden served in the Royal Navy in the last war and Pte. Dunnean was at Ypres with the 2nd Auxiliary Horse Company.
