The Guardian regrets to announce the death of Bruce Cousins, who was killed in the Organita Mine, Merced, California by an accident, Friday, Dec. 18th, 1902, aged 23 years and five months. He left his home on P. E. Island four years ago and worked in Quincey, Mass. at the granite works for two years and then went out to California. He was a son of James and Annie Cousins formerly of Hunter River but who are now residing in Malden, Mass. He leaves to mourn his loss father, mother, four brothers and four sisters, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended, for they have lost a noble son and brother.

CHATHAM WORLD.—Rev. W. C. Matthews, of St. Luke's has received a unanimous invitation to the pastorate of Exmouth St. Church, St. John. He has accepted the call, which will take effect next July. Exmouth St. is one of the largest and most aggressive churches in the city, having a membership well on to 400 and a Sunday School enrolment of nearly 600. This church, of which Mr. Matthews is to become pastor for next summer, some fifteen or sixteen years ago set him forth into the work of the ministry, and now has called him back to become the leader in work for God. Rev. Mr. Matthews is well known in Charlottetown, where he was formerly located.

KENNEDY.—On Friday evening last the Guild of St. Mark gave a splendid entertainment consisting of a series of tableaux, as follows: A Swell Affair, Spring Summer, Autumn, Winter, Death of Joan of Arc, Courtship, Martyrdom, The Warrior's Death, The Jubilee of Peace. The costumes used and the posing of those who participated were excellent. A splendid success was the unanimous verdict. The following ladies and gentlemen took part: The Misses Sims, Walker, Pierson, McKee, Elizabeth Howard, Mrs. J. T. Thompson and Mrs. W. Howard, Messrs Thompson, Walker, Haslam, Sheen, Howard and Evans. Miss Laura Walker managed the setting of the tableaux and ably presided at the organ. W. W. Lalle gave a fine entertainment with his gramophone during the intervals. It is hoped the Guild will soon give another such series.
